THE FOURTEENTH REPORT UNDER THE 14 & 15 VIC., c. 68.

REFORM CL
PALL MALL

TO HIS EXCELLENCY JOHN, BARON WODEHOUSE,

Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland.

Poor Law Commission Office,
Dublin, 31st March, 1866.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland submit to your Excellency this the Nineteenth Annual Report of our proceedings, under the Acts in force for the Relief of the destitute Poor in Ireland.

1. We submit, in the first place, in continuation of similar returns in previous Annual Reports, a summary of weekly returns of persons relieved in the workhouse and out of the workhouse for fifty-two weeks, from the week ended 25th February, 1865, to the week ended 17th February, 1866, both inclusive; and we repeat, in illustration of these and the former returns, the two in-door and out-door relief diagrams,* each with an additional line for the last year, so as to afford a comparison of the fluctuations which have occurred in each year for seven years past, commencing with 1859–60, the most favourable year which has occurred since the period of the famine.

* See diagrams facing page 30.

3. The progressive decrease of pauperism, which we noticed in our last Annual Report, considered apart from fluctuations incidental to different seasons of the year, has now again to be noticed as showing itself in a still more marked degree on a comparison between the last and the preceding years; the average daily number of workhouse inmates having undergone a further decrease of 3,687, the difference between 55,808 and 52,121, or 6·6 per cent.

The average daily number of persons receiving out-door relief has in the same period increased from 8,748 in the preceding year, to 10,040 in the last year, showing an increase of 1,292 persons; but as observed in previous Reports, a small increase in the number receiving out-door relief indicates rather a change of practice in the administration of relief by the Guardians than any increase of distress.

4. It was noticed in the seventeenth paragraph of our last Report that during the latter part of the year 1864, and the commencement of 1865, some alarm was caused by the prevalence of an unusual amount of fever, and, in some localities, of a bad type. On the 11th February, 1865, the number of fever patients in the workhouse hospitals reached the number of 2,211, a greater number than had been known since the year 1856; the daily average during the intervening years seldom exceeding 1,200. At the corresponding date in 1866, the number is shown by the Table, in paragraph 1, to have been 1,557, or 654 less than in 1865, showing an improved sanitary state in the population generally, and a further continuance of that immunity from epidemic typhus which has prevailed since the famine period.

5. In the other columns of the summary of fifty-two weeks, there is nothing worthy of remark in regard to the comparative numbers of the various classes relieved, except that the able-bodied inmates have decreased from 12,102, on the 18th February, 1865, to 10,162, on the 17th February, 1866.

6. In the deaf and dumb asylums of Ireland, there is an average daily number of about 150, and in the blind asylums of about 200 inmates, supported at the charge of the poor rates of the several unions.

7. The number of workhouse children out at nurse on the 17th February last, was 473, in comparison with 310 at the same time last year. Until a period of five years at least has elapsed from the passing of Sir R. Peel's Poor Law Amendment Act (the Act of 1862), by which this form of relief for orphan and deserted children was first legalized, there will naturally be an increasing number of such children. After five years of age, unless their continuance on out-door relief is permitted as necessary to health, these children return to the workhouse for further maintenance and education.

8. The emigration from Ireland which has been connected in any way with assistance from the poor rates during the twelve months ended 25th March, 1866, is represented by the sum of £3,425, and 1,120 persons, in comparison with £2,518 and 846 persons in the previous year.

The following table is repeated from the last Annual Report, with an additional line of figures for the year just expired :—

9. An additional impulse has been given to the removal of Irish-born persons from England to Ireland, by the recent reduction of the period of residence which confers irremovability from three years to one year. This change is to come into operation on the 31st March, instant, and at that date many persons who are now removable on receiving relief will become irremovable; and, therefore, some unions and parishes have recently been more active than usual in obtaining warrants of removal, in order to avail themselves of the still existing state of the law, before the change takes effect. We regret to say that we cannot report any general improvement in the manner of conducting removals from the Metropolitan parishes and unions, which has been made the subject of complaint in our Annual Reports for several years past. A further selection of cases of irregularity and disregard of the law will be found in the Appendix.*

10. We wish particularly to call attention to the correspondence in the case of Catherine Nevin and her children,† who, under an order of removal to Loughrea, were deserted, by the person having charge of them, in Dublin. In this case we have, for the second time, prosecuted to conviction a person intrusted with the execution of warrants from Metropolitan unions and parishes, who was wholly unfit for that service. His employer, Mr. Frost of Wapping, is the general agent for the deportation to Ireland of Irish-born persons from the English Metropolis, and it would appear as though he regarded with indifference any penalty which can be inflicted for violation of the law committed by his servants in executing orders of removal intrusted to him by the Guardians for execution. We are bound to add that we do not expect from the limited penalty of £10, on convictions obtained at great expense to the public, any security against the repetition of these offences by persons who stand in no official relation to the English Poor Law authorities, and who conduct with a view to profit, and in the spirit of traffic only, the deportation of human beings deprived of their personal liberty, and consigned to them for that purpose.

11. We have not, since the date of our last Report, been called upon by any Board of Guardians to appeal against any of these removals, the ground of such appeal being limited to the one point of irremovability from England to Ireland, no such redress being provided in the case, which is continually occurring, of removal to the wrong union. In one case, however, of removal from Toxteth Park, Liverpool, to the Wexford Union, we instituted, at the desire of the Board of Guardians, a preliminary inquiry under the statute with a view to an appeal. To this case, which is that of Elizabeth Finn and her four children, we beg to call attention, and to the correspondence concerning it which is given in the Appendix.* By the English law of removal, the desertion of an Irish-born woman by her husband, whether an Englishman or an Irishman, renders her and her children, under fourteen, liable, on receiving relief, to be sent beyond seas to any part of Ireland to which she may belong. This power is sometimes used where no desertion has actually taken place, but where the husband is away from his home for a time seeking employment. Of this practice the case now referred to is an instance; and there is no doubt that in this case, under the authority of an illegal warrant, handcuffs were provided to overcome the reluctance of a wife and four young children to quit the place where the husband and father was still resident in the eye of the law, though absent in search of work, which, as it subsequently appeared, he had succeeded in obtaining, and has been since rejoined by his wife and children.

12. There is reason to believe that cases of this kind are not of rare occurrence; for desertion by the husband is very often made the ground of removal of women and children to Ireland, and it is impossible to know, without a preliminary inquiry in England (which in the case above referred to cost the Wexford Guardians

* Appendix A, II., page 56.

£21), what the real state of the facts may be. In another very recent case, likewise reported in the Appendix,* a woman removed by force with her two children, and sent by deck passage from Westminster to Cork, and thence without any removing officer to Limerick, received, after admission to Limerick Workhouse, a letter from her husband in London, expressing his great surprise and sorrow that she and his children had been taken from him and sent to Ireland, and his hope that the gentlemen of Limerick Union would assist them to return, as he had plenty of work to support them.

The Guardians in this case did not seek from the Commissioners a preliminary inquiry under the statute, but placed the matter in the hands of their own solicitor; and the Commissioners have since been informed by their Inspector, that after the receipt of the letter from her husband, the woman took her discharge from the workhouse, and returned with her children to London, and there rejoined her husband.

13. It seems more than probable that in signing orders of removal of Irish-born persons to Ireland, English magistrates do not generally make inquiry as to any disruption of family ties which may possibly be occasioned by the exercise of their powers of removal in particular cases, but confine themselves to the legal question of removability and the state of health; otherwise we should not see, as we often do, the nearest ties of relationship severed by a compulsory process of separation, and, as frequently also occurs, persons of either sex sent in extreme old age from a country in which they have spent nearly all their lives, to a country in which they have no longer any relations or connexions, to die in the workhouse of the union in which their birthplace is situated.

Justices and Stipendiary and Police Magistrates in England, who sign Irish removal orders on the application of union or parish officers, ought not to omit to make inquiry on such points; for by the 2nd section of the 8 & 9 Vic., c. 117, it is left absolutely at their discretion to sign or to refuse to sign, as some have done, such orders of removal when applied for; and if they do not make any inquiry, the cases of hardship and cruelty which occasionally occur in consequence thereof must be placed to their account.

We trust we may be excused for expressing our hope that the entire system of pauper removal (an interference with the personal liberties of the poor unknown, as we believe, in any other part of Europe,) may ere long be expunged from the statute book.

* Appendix A, II., page 69.

14. An Act was passed in the last Session of Parliament authorizing the Guardians of Unions, subject to the consent of the Poor Law Commissioners, to grant a superannuation allowance to any union officer who had devoted his whole time to the duty, and had become inefficient through old age or through permanent infirmity of mind or body.

We are enabled to report that the operation of this Act has been so far satisfactory, and that the Guardians have in several cases awarded, with our consent, the full amount authorized by the Act, that is to say, two-thirds of the salary. At the same time it will be seen from the subjoined list of all the cases which have occurred since the passing of the Act, that the public advantage gained by parting with inefficient services in the way provided, has not been purchased by any serious amount of expenditure, especially when it is considered that some of the cases dealt with in the first instance may be regarded as cumulative through the previous absence of such a provision as that in question.

15. Since the date of our last Annual Report an effort has been made to revive the question of amalgamating unions, with a view to save expense in the management of workhouses; and we place in the Appendix* some further correspondence which has taken place on that subject, in the course of which we were called upon to explain to your Excellency our views in reference to the proposal of enlarging generally throughout Ireland the area of unions, so as to reduce that part of the poundage of the poor law expenditure which is caused by what are called "Establishment Charges." We remain of the same opinion on this point as that which we expressed in our Tenth Annual Report, and which was opposed to any extension of union areas for the purpose suggested; and we trust that the reasons which we have assigned for retaining those views will be considered satisfactory.

16. We now submit the statistics relating to the collection of the poor rate, &c., as shown by the audited union accounts for the year ended 29th September, 1865, in comparison with those of the preceding year.

Notwithstanding the decrease of pauperism adverted to in preceding paragraphs and shown in the above statement, there is an increase of expenditure in relief of £4,084, due partly to the increase of out-door relief and partly to the increased cost of maintenance per head in the workhouses, which averaged in the former year 2*s*. 0¼*d*., and in the latter, 2*s*. 1½*d*. per head weekly, exclusive of clothing.

17. The next subjoined Table shows the average daily number of the several classes of the inmates of workhouses during the year, with the average number of deaths per week and rate of mortality, in comparison with the same for thirteen previous years.

18. The next table exhibits a comparative statement for fourteen years, including the year ended 29th September last, of the collection of poor rates and the several heads of expenditure.

It is satisfactory to observe in the first column of this comparative statement that the net annual value of the rateable property in Ireland continues to increase, and now exceeds by £180,211 its amount at the close of the previous year.

Comparing it with the valuation of 1855, the increase (which has been continuous during the last ten years) is £1,369,699.

The total cost of relief under the Poor Law and Medical Charities Acts amounts to £717,588, showing an increase of £6,218 over the preceding year. This is, however, more than counterbalanced by a decrease of £8,646 under the head of "Registration Expenses"; the present year showing the ordinary amount of those expenses in the present state of the population; whereas in the preceding year the cost of providing registration offices in all the unions was included. The total expenditure under all branches shows a decrease of £2,367.

STATEMENT of the Annual Collection and Expenditure of Poor Rates for fourteen years, ended on the 29th September, 1865; showing the Net Annual Value of Property rated, the Amount of Poor Rate collected, and the Expenditure under the Poor Relief and Medical Charities Acts, &c., for each year ended 29th September, from 1852 to 1865, inclusive.

In reference to the remarks which we shall hereafter submit on the successful operation of Sir Robert Peel's Compulsory Vaccination Act, it may be here pointed out that the number of deaths in the workhouse hospitals by small-pox is only 59, in comparison with 145 in the preceeding year.

PROCEEDINGS under the MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT; the Act of 1858, "To make further provision for the practice of Vaccination in Ireland;" and the Act of 1863, "To further extend and make compulsory the practice of Vaccination in Ireland."

19. We next submit to your Excellency the report of our proceedings under the above-mentioned Acts.

The subjoined table exhibits a summary of the relief afforded under the Medical Charities Act for each of the last ten years ending respectively on the 30th of September in each province, and in the whole of Ireland, distinguishing the cases prescribed for at the dispensaries from those of a more serious nature attended by the Medical Officers at the patients' homes.

20. It appears from this summary, that for the last year in the table, compared with the preceding one, there has been in the province of Ulster a decrease in the number of cases prescribed for at the dispensaries amounting to 11,095 ; and of cases attended at the patients' homes, a decrease of 354 cases. In the other three provinces there has been a considerable decline in the number of cases prescribed for at the dispensaries, and an increase in the number of domiciliary cases, amounting for the former class of cases, to 18,119 for Munster, to 22,229 for Leinster, and to 4,259 for Connaught. While, on the other hand, there has been an increase in the latter class of cases of 740 for Munster, 1,446 for Leinster, and 2,704 for Connaught, giving, for the whole of Ireland, a decrease in the number of cases prescribed for at the dispensaries, amounting to the large number of 55,702 cases, and an increase in the number of domiciliary cases of 4,536. A decrease in the former class of cases has occurred before on two occasions only since the enactment of the Medical Charities Act in 1851, but to a much less considerable extent than now. In the year ended September 30th, 1860, compared with the year before, there was a decrease in these cases amounting to 19,806, and for the year ended September 30th, 1864, compared with the preceding year, there was a decrease of the same class of cases of 6,649. Taking the whole series of years since 1851, there has occurred a decline in the total annual number of cases receiving dispensary relief on three occasions, comparing, in each case, the year with that immediately preceding, viz., in the years ended September 30th, 1860, 1864, and 1865; but upon the whole series of years we find an increase in the total annual number of cases relieved from 690,411 in 1853, to 837,669 in 1865.

21. In the Appendix a detailed statement will be found of the medical relief afforded in each dispensary district in Ireland, for the last year in the table, for each province and for all Ireland.*

22. In the next table is given the expenditure on dispensary medical relief in each province, and in all Ireland, for each of the last ten years ended, respectively, on the 29th of September.

For the first three years in the table the expenditure was incurred solely under the Medical Charities Act, vaccination having been performed during that time as a part of the ordinary duty of the Dispensary Medical Officers. For the last seven years the Medical Officers have received special remuneration for the performance of this duty, by fee for each case of successful vaccination, under the Act for the further promotion of vaccination of 1858, and that of 1863, to make compulsory the practice of vaccination in Ireland. To the operation of these Acts is mainly due the sudden increase of expenditure observable for the year 1859, and continued since.

This table shows an increase of expenditure for the year ended September 29th, 1865, compared with the preceding year, amounting to £2,133, after an increase of £5,699, which took place in this latter year compared with 1863. The increased expenditure of last year has fallen tolerably evenly on Leinster, Munster, and Connaught, the increase in Ulster being very slight.

23. In the next table is given the total expenditure under the three Acts above mentioned, digested under six heads, for the year ended September 29th, 1865.

* Appendix D, II,

Under the heads of salaries and medicines and medical appliances in this table, there appears an increased expenditure for the last over that of the year before, amounting under the former head to £1,275, and under the latter to £713. A small increase has taken place also under the heads of rent of dispensary buildings and vaccination expenses, viz., £98 under the former, and £329 under the latter head. Under the heads of books, forms, &c., and fuel, porters, incidental expenses, &c., there has been a slight diminution of expense.

24. The average poundage on the Poor Law valuation of Ireland, to furnish the total expenditure of last year, under the Medical Charities and Vaccination Acts, was 2·17*d.*, or nearly 2¼*d.*, which is very slightly above that of the year before, viz., 2·16*d.*

25. But few alterations have been made in the dispensary arrangements during the past year, the number of districts remaining the same, viz., 716. In the Waterford dispensary district a second medical officer was appointed in lieu of the apothecary; and in the Donnybrook dispensary district, South Dublin Union, a second medical officer was appointed; in each case because of the number of dispensary patients, too large to be efficiently attended by one medical officer. New appointments of midwives were authorized during the year in seven dispensary districts. There are now fifty-six dispensary districts, in which these most useful appointments, to provide the attendance of a skilled midwife for women in natural labour have been made. In twenty-one other districts the number of members of dispensary committees was increased, for the purpose of affording to the sick poor greater facilities for procuring tickets for medical relief.

26. The next table exhibits, for the first six years comprised in it, the progress of vaccination under the Medical Charities Act alone; for the next five years and the first three months of the following year, under that Act and the Act of 1858, for the further promotion of vaccination; and for the period of one year and nine months subsequent to the 1st of January, 1864, under those two Acts and that of 1863, to further extend and make compulsory the practice of vaccination in Ireland. It should be borne in mind that till January 1st, 1864, the Dispensary Vaccination Registers recorded all the vaccinations performed by the dispensary medical officers, whether successful or not, but that since that date successful vaccinations only are entered.

27. A comparison of the numbers in this table for the last two years, compared with the previous years, shows a large increase in the total annual number of vaccinations since the enactment of compulsory vaccination. On the other hand, a comparison of the number of vaccinations for the two last years exhibits a decrease for 1865 compared with 1864, amounting to 22,668 cases. Nevertheless an analysis of the vaccinations for the last year clearly proves that the Compulsory Vaccination Act has been, for the first year and nine months since its enactment, eminently and uniformly successful.

28. The following table exhibits the total result of the vaccinations in Ireland for the last year, in comparison with those of the previous year, distinguishing the cases of persons born before 1st January, 1864, and of those born since :—

PROVINCES.	No. of Cases of Vaccination performed during the year ended Sept. 30, 1865.

Connaught,	13,468	15,181	28,649
Total, Ireland, 1865,	97,160	71,982	169,142
Total, Ireland, 1864,	25,354	166,456	191,810

In column 1 of this table we observe that there have been for the year ended September 30th, 1865, 97,160 vaccinations of infants under the Compulsory Vaccination Act, against 25,354 for the last nine months of the year before. The smallness of this latter number is accounted for by the fact that no children could be included in it who were born before 1st January, 1864, although not less than 70,000 would in natural course be born within the previous six months, and would no doubt most of them be vaccinated, and form part of the large number of 166,456 cases of persons born before 1st January, 1864, and therefore not within the provisions of the Compulsory Act, although vaccinated under its influence, as described in 29th paragraph of last Report. This class of vaccinations must of course decrease every successive year, as the body of persons among whom they take place decreases by deaths, but can receive no addition to its number by births. Accordingly, we find this class reduced from 166,456 in the first year, to 71,982 in the second, accounting amply for the total reduction on the entire year. In fact, the period of the first nine months is quite abnormal, there being no child to which the compulsory provisions could apply until six months had expired, or in other words, until three months before the termination of the period. The large number of 97,160 born after 1st January, 1864, and vaccinated between 30th September, 1864, and 30th September, 1865, is most satisfactory, as showing beyond doubt the successful operation of the Act in the first annual period, which can be considered as a normal one, giving hope of even greater success in future, as the action of the machinery improves by use and experience.

29. The means do not exist of making any comparison of the former mortality by small-pox throughout Ireland, with the same as affected by the provisions of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, the causes of death not having been registered before 1864; and the Registrar-General's returns of the causes of death since that date not having yet been published. But from the weekly returns of mortality within the Dublin district (population 314,409), we are enabled to make a comparison between a period of six months ended 31st March, 1865, and a like period, ending 31st March, 1866. The result is a decrease of deaths by small-pox from 52 to 4. Assuming the number of deaths to have been in the ratio of 1 to 5 to the number of attacks, we have a decrease of small-pox cases from 260 in 1864–5, to 20 in 1865–6. Whatever value may attach to results obtained for so limited a period, and within so limited a district, they are, to say the least, of good augury for the whole country and for the future; and it must not be forgotten that the class protected by the operation of the new Act is that which is most exposed to fatality by small-pox. Dr. Farr calculates that 75 per cent. of the total mortality from small-pox takes place under the age of five years. It is probable that the average age of vaccination in Ireland, before the enactment of compulsory vaccination, was as high as this, and consequently, that three-fourths of the deaths that small-pox would ever have occasioned in a given population had already occurred before the protective influence of vaccination as formerly practised, had been resorted to.

30. The success that has attended the Compulsory Vaccination Act during the past year, is owing to the diligence and zeal with which the Guardians, the Magistrates, and the Medical Officers have very generally performed their respective parts in the enforcement of its provisions. A very few instances have come to our knowledge in which the Justices in Petty Sessions have defeated the benevolent intentions of the Legislature, by imposing nominal fines on defaulters under the Act, and throwing the expense of the proceedings taken to enforce its salutary provisions on the Guardians. It is to be hoped that these gentlemen will reflect on the calamitous consequences of their ill-judged lenity, and discontinue it. Otherwise, it will sooner or later assuredly happen that natural small-pox, being introduced amongst the unprotected children of their districts by itinerant inoculators, or accidentally, that virulent and most contagious disease will destroy every fourth or fifth child attacked, and of the survivors a certain number will lose their sight or hearing, or have their constitutions so broken as to be disabled from earning their livelihood in after-life.

However gratifying the amount of success already attained, it must be borne in mind by those to whose exertions that success is due, that much still remains to be done to ensure the complete and permanent success of compulsory vaccination; and that this result will only be secured by the steady enforcement of the penalty enacted against defaulters by the 8th section of the Act, till the poor all over Ireland become convinced that failure, on their part, to perform their duty by their children in this respect, will very certainly be visited with the trouble and expense of prosecution and fine.

31. The Registrar-General for Ireland has registered the births of 144,638 children for the year ended March 31st, 1865, all of whom had come within the purview of the Compulsory Vaccination Act, at the close of the year ended September 30th, 1865, the last year in the table. We may safely assume that the registered number of births is somewhat under the truth. Making a reasonable addition to it on this account, and a deduction from the sum on account of children vaccinated by private practitioners, and of children dying within six months after birth, we think it cannot be very wide of the truth to estimate that there were born in the course of that year about 130,000 children proper subjects for gratuitous vaccination by the Dispensary Medical Officers. The number, however, actually vaccinated, was 97,160, leaving the large number of 33,840 still to be vaccinated. We trust and anticipate that this excess, the measure of the degree in which the operation of the Compulsory Vaccination Act has fallen short of complete success, will diminish year by year till it shall nearly, if not entirely, disappear.

32. The record of the numbers of cases of small-pox, scarlatina, and fever attended by the Dispensary Medical Officers for the year ended September 30th, 1865, is given in the Appendix.* The number of cases of small-pox was very nearly the same for each of the last two years, viz., 1,965 and 2,000, showing a small increase in the latter year.

These figures appear to negative any such decrease of small-pox under the compulsory Act as is indicated in paragraph 29; but the period there taken for comparison is one immediately subsequent to the year ended 30th September, 1865, to which the above figures relate. The dispensary returns for the quarter ended 31st March, are not yet received; but, comparing the returns for the last six months of 1865 with the same for 1864, we find a decrease of small-pox cases from 933 to 269, which is confirmatory of the result stated in paragraph 29.

Scarlatina shows an excess over the preceding year of 2,156 cases, the numbers of cases having been 4,476 for 1864, and 6,632 for 1865.

There has been a considerable increase in the number of cases of fever also for 1865 compared with 1864, the numbers being for 1864, 21,586, and for 1865, 26,566. This excess arose from a prevalence of the disease which caused some alarm in the end of 1864 and beginning of 1865, lest it might indicate the commencement of one of those terrible epidemic visitations of fever which formerly so frequently, and during this century, till the time of the famine, with such singular regularity, afflicted Ireland, destroying great numbers of lives, and reducing to the condition of paupers great numbers of the poor. The discontinuance, or at least the interruption of these visitations, has not attracted the attention its great importance and the powerful influence it must have exercised towards the amelioration of the condition of the poor in Ireland, deserve.

* Appendix D, No. 5.

33. In the Medical Charities' Report for 1857 attention was directed to this subject. In paragraph 15 of that Report we said:—

"The quarterly reports from the Medical Officers of dispensaries for the year ended 29th September, 1856, show an increased prevalence of fever in the spring, and a subsequent very considerable decline in the autumn, but negative the existence of the disease to any serious extent in any part of the year. Nevertheless, the time being now at hand, when, according to the lamentable experience of past times, a visitation of epidemic fever might be expected to occur in this country, we shall not fail to watch the indications of the returns with deep interest, and not without hope that a powerful proof of the improved condition of the people, in addition to the unmistakable ones we are already acquainted with, will be found in the mitigation of this scourge, which, for a long series of years, has returned with such periodic regularity and such terrible destruction of life. Severe epidemics of fever occurred in Ireland in 1799, 1810, 1816, 1826, 1836, and 1846. Any evidence of the absence of epidemic influence in respect to this disease at the present time is, therefore, highly gratifying; and we have the pleasure of being able to add, that the returns from the fever hospitals of the workhouses completely confirm the evidence of the dispensary returns, inasmuch as they exhibit for the six months, from the beginning of April to the end of September, 1856, a tolerably uniform decline of fever, from 1,806 cases in April to 1,015 in September. It is true this decline of fever belongs to the season; but it is quite inconsistent with the supposition that an epidemic fever has commenced and is making progress."

In the last of these epidemics recurring so regularly at each decennial period from 1816 to 1846, the number of cases treated in the temporary fever hospitals provided under requisitions of the Board of Health (and therefore exclusive of cases treated in other hospitals or for which removal to hospital was refused) was 332,462, with 34,622 deaths.* It might naturally be supposed that this famine epidemic must have been pre-eminently fatal; but, owing perhaps to the fact that much of the fuel that would otherwise have fed it was destroyed by famine, or removed by emigration, this was far from being so. In the severe epidemic that commenced in 1816 there were treated in the fever hospitals of Dublin, Cork, and Waterford alone in the years 1817–1819, 67,611 cases, with 2,855 deaths;† and in the admirable account of that epidemic drawn up by Drs. Barker and Cheyne, it is shown to be probable, that "assuming the population of Ireland to amount to six millions, it will be no exaggeration to state that a million and a half of persons suffered from an attack of fever in the time included between the commencement of the year 1817 and the middle of 1819."* At the average rate of mortality of that epidemic, this amount of typhus would have been attended with 150,000 deaths.

* See Report of the Commissioners of Health, Ireland, on the Epidemics of 1846 to 1850. Dublin, 1852.

† See Account of the Rise, Progress, and Decline of the Fever lately epidemical in Ireland. By F. Barker, M.D., and J. Cheyne, M.D., F.R.S., Edinburgh. Dublin, 1821. Vol. i. page 87.

34. It is most painful to contemplate the suffering and pauperization that must have accompanied and followed such calamities as these ; and we must experience a corresponding gratification in being able confidently to assert, now at the end of the second decennial period since the famine fever, that there is no evidence to justify the apprehension of the approach of another such epidemic visitation of typhus.

35. The returns, now very nearly complete, of the number of cases of fever treated by the Dispensary Medical Officers in the last quarter of 1865, give 5,536 cases for that quarter, against 7,109 for the same quarter of 1864 ; and at the end of the last week in December, 1865, there were in the workhouse fever hospitals 1,478 cases, against 1,881 at the same period in 1864.

36. In the early part of the autumn of last year the steady progress of epidemic cholera along the northern shores of the Mediterranean, by Italy, France, and Spain, towards Western Europe, having given rise to some public alarm, from the expectation that the disease would before long reach Ireland, we addressed a circular to the Guardians on the 23rd of August, calling their attention to the subject, and urging upon them the importance of putting actively in force, while the danger was still distant, the powers they possess under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts for the improvement of the sanitary condition of their unions. They were reminded of the very satisfactory results with which, in the last epidemic of cholera, the dispensary organization, then recently established under the Medical Charities Act, had been applied in the treatment of the disease and its premonitory symptoms ; and they were referred to the four first Medical Charities Reports, in their possession, in which a detailed account is given of the measures which were adopted on that occasion in anticipation of, and during the whole

CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTIONS AND CORRESPONDENCE UNDER THE POOR LAW ACTS.

I.—CIRCULARS.

No. 1.—Precautionary Measures in Anticipation of Infected Ships arriving from Ports in the Baltic.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
April 13, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to acquaint the Board of Guardians of * Union that they have been made aware that ships from ports in the Baltic may soon be expected to arrive in some of the Irish ports, and that the Collectors of Customs have received directions to report the case of any infected ship to the authorities of the place in which the port is situated.

As it is possible that contagious disease, arriving from the part of the Continent referred to, may present characteristics different from the forms of fever ordinarily known in this country, it seems desirable that, in the event of any infected ship arriving in port, facilities should exist for the reception and treatment of cases of contagious disease on shore in a distinct and separate hospital.

Although it is very probable that ground does not exist for serious alarm on this subject, the precaution now suggested can only have the effect of creating increased public confidence, and the Commissioners request that the Board of Guardians will take the matter into consideration, with a view to securing at once the possession of suitable premises to meet any contingency that may arise. As such premises, when once secured and put into a proper state, can at any time be provided, on the instant, with beds, bedding, and all other requirements from the Union resources, as well as with medical attendance and nurses, it will not be found necessary to incur any considerable expense until the emergency arises.

The Commissioners having, in their Circular of the 6th December last, drawn the attention of the Board of Guardians to the importance of being adequately prepared for the possibility of an outbreak of epidemic fever,† do not deem it necessary to refer more particularly to that subject on the present occasion; but they think it right again to remind the Guardians of their powers and duties under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act, and to refer them again to their Circular Letter on that subject, dated 19th October, 1852, and published in their Second Report under the Medical Charities Act, page 74.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 2.—Superannuation of Union Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
June 8, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of an Act, which received the royal assent on the 26th ult., authorizing the granting of superannuation allowances to officers whose whole time has been devoted to the service of the union, and who may become incapable of discharging their duties with efficiency by reason of permanent infirmity of mind or body, or of old age.

It will be observed that the allowance must not in any case exceed two-thirds of the salary at the time of retirement, that no officer is to be entitled to it on the ground of age who shall not be sixty years old and who shall not have served as an union officer for at least twenty years, and that no grant can be made without one month's previous notice to be specially given in writing to every Guardian of the union.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 3.—Superannuation of Union Officers.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 31, 1865.

Sir,

Adverting to their Circular of the 8th June last, on the subject of the recent Act authorizing the granting of superannuation allowances to Union Officers, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that several cases having already arisen in which Boards of Guardians have been desirous of availing themselves of the powers given by the Act, and there being apparently some uncertainty as to the effect of some of its provisions, the Commissioners deem it right to point out for the future guidance of Boards of Guardians:—

1. That no superannuation allowance can in any case be granted to any officer until he has actually resigned or otherwise ceased to hold office.

2. That no such grant can be made without one month's previous notice, in writing, specially given to every Guardian of the union; and that as the word "month" means, according to the 4th section of the Act 13 Vic., cap. 21, a calendar month, such notice can in no case take effect earlier than the fifth weekly meeting of the Guardians after the direction to send it.

3. No such grant will be valid without the consent of the Commissioners: and in exercising the function thus assigned to them, the Commissioners will require to be satisfied in each case that all the provisions of the Act have been duly complied with, and that the case falls within its provisions. With this view, the Commissioners have caused a series of questions to be prepared, a copy of which will be transmitted for answers in any cases in which it may be proposed to grant a superannuation allowance.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 4.—REMOVAL of IRISH POOR from ENGLAND.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
SIR, January 22, 1866.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of the 6th and 8th sections of "The Union Chargeability Act, 1865," 28 & 29 Vic., cap. 79.

The Guardians will observe that by the 8th section of the Act, a residence of one year will, after the 25th of March next, be sufficient to establish the right of irremovability, instead of three years, as specified in the Act 24 & 25 Vic., cap. 55.

The 6th section of the Act which provides, under certain circumstances, for the removal of paupers without orders of removal, does not appear to apply to cases of removal to Ireland, inasmuch as it is limited to cases of paupers who were settled within and removable to a union or parish; and as there is no law of settlement in Ireland, these words do not seem to be applicable to Unions in Ireland, nor would they authorize a Board of Guardians of an Irish Union to consent to receive a pauper proposed to be removed from England without an order.

The remaining portions of the Act appear to relate exclusively to the administration of the English Poor Law.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

Sections 6 and 8 of the Act 28 and 29 Vic., cap. 89 (referred to in the foregoing Circular).

"6. Where the Guardians of any union or parish shall be satisfied that any pauper is settled within and removable to their union or parish, and shall consent under their common seal to receive such pauper without an order of removal, the Guardians seeking to remove such pauper may do so without any such order.

"8. From and after the twenty-fifth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the period of one year shall be substituted for that of three years specified in the first section of the statute twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth of Victoria, chapter fifty-five."

No. 5.—Cattle Plague.—Order in Council.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 30, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, to be laid before the Board of Guardians, a copy of an Order in Council on the subject of the Cattle Plague, now prevailing in parts of England and Scotland.

This order has been made with a view to checking the spread of the disorder, in case it should extend to Ireland; and it has been forwarded to the Commissioners by direction of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, with a request that they would communicate it to the several Boards of Guardians, and at the same time invite them to form Committees to assist in carrying the order into effect.

The Commissioners accordingly request that the Guardians will be so good as to take the subject into consideration, with the view of forming Committees for the purpose suggested.

By order of the Commissioners,

II.—CORRESPONDENCE ON THE SUBJECT OF THE REMOVAL OF POOR PERSONS FROM ENGLAND TO IRELAND.

Case of Cornelius Lynch and Family removed from Greenwich to Cork.

No. 1.—Report from Mr. O'Brien, Poor Law Inspector.

Gentlemen,

Cork, May 20, 1865.

Referring to past correspondence upon the subject of the removal of Irish-born poor persons from Greenwich Union to this country, I have the honour to inform you that Mr. Lane, one of the Relieving Officers for Cork City, having, on Thursday last, drawn my attention to a recent case of this nature which had come under his notice, I this day made inquiry into the particulars, which I now take leave to submit for your consideration.

It will be seen from the evidence, &c., enclosed herewith, that on Sunday, the 23rd ult., a man named Cornelius Lynch, having with him a wife and four young children, arrived in Cork by the Cormorant steamer, in charge of an agent of Mr. Frost's named William Lyons, who appears to have been the bearer of a warrant for the removal of this family to Kenmare Union, to which, however, it will be seen they were never conveyed by him, having, under the circumstances detailed by Lynch, been left at large by him in the city of Cork, where they now remain, and where, though as yet they have made no application for Poor Law relief, three of the children are in receipt of assistance out of the rates through the Dispensary.

It is quite certain that the man Lynch earnestly desired himself to remain in Cork, and also, that had he been willing to proceed with his family to Kenmare, Lyons offered and was ready to convey them there, though, for the reason given, he was not in a position to do so immediately on their reaching Cork.

It has not, however, been left within the discretion, either of the persons so removed or of the officer charged with the execution of such warrants, to elect whether or not they are to be delivered up at the place of ultimate destination, and the effect of Lyons's failure, in this case, to complete the duty intrusted to him, has been to leave in this city six poor persons whose removal to another Union and county had been duly ordered, and who may at any moment become altogether, as they already are partially, a charge upon the local rates.

It appears that Mr. Frost wrote instructions to his local agent, Barry, in Cork, to obtain a certificate that these parties had not become chargeable on the Cork Union; and it will be seen that an unsuccessful attempt to obtain such a certificate from the Relieving Officer was actually made by Lyons and Barry.

I am not aware in what way it was conceived that such a certificate could be used as a discharge of the warrant, nor what effect it is supposed attaches to the subsequent declaration which it appears Lynch was brought by Lyons to make before the local magistrates here, that he "had no further claim on the Greenwich Union."

An attempt was also made by Lynch, it will be seen, to induce the Medical Officer of the Dispensary to certify that the family were unfit to be removed.

It appears from Dr. Curtis's certificate, however, that this never was the fact; and, in any case, it must be borne in mind that it was not for a week after their arrival in Cork that it became necessary to afford one of the children some slight medical relief, and Lynch himself admits that when they arrived here there was nothing in their state of health to prevent their proceeding to Kenmare.

I think it will be desirable to furnish the Board of Guardians with a copy of this evidence, and instructions as to the precise steps that will be necessary in case it should be decided to institute a prosecution in the case—at the same time I fear very much that, having regard to the large amount so recently expended in this way, and the very slight redress then obtained, a serious reluctance will be now most probably felt to embark in any similar proceedings.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your most obedient servant,

W. P. O'Brien.

The Poor Law Commissioners.

Minutes of Evidence enclosed in foregoing Report.

Cork, May 20, 1865.

Cornelius Lynch, sworn and examined—I am a labouring man, and lived for the eight months before I was sent over to Ireland in Deptford, in the Greenwich Union. My family consists of my wife and four children; the eldest was born in 1858, and the youngest last February. We all arrived in Cork on Sunday, the 23rd of April last, by the Cormorant steamer. We had been for the three months before that in the Greenwich Union Workhouse, and were then ordered to be sent over to the Kenmare Union, county Kerry. I did not get a copy of the warrant, but I saw the warrant in the police courts, both at Greenwich and Cork. It directed that we should be delivered at the Kenmare Workhouse. Mr. William Lyons, a man of Mr. Frost's, came over with us, and on our arrival in Cork on Sunday, the 23rd of April, Mr. Lyons brought us, as well as some others, to the house of Mr. Michael Barry, 29, Patrick's-quay.

I told Mr. Lyons that I and my family would remain that night at the house of my mother-in-law, who resides in Cork; and he allowed us to do so. I met Mr. Lyons, by appointment, the following morning at Mr. Barry's house. He told me he was then going to deliver one woman at Fermoy and another at Kanturk, and that he could not take us on to Kenmare till the following day. I asked him to take me on alone and leave my family in Cork, where I intended to get my living, and that my presenting myself at Kenmare would be sufficient. He said that would not do; that he could not take me without my family; but I said I would go at my own expense and so we parted.

I did go the following day, by myself, to Kenmare. I did not see the Master of the Workhouse there, but I saw an officer named Shea, to whom I reported myself. I did not go into the Workhouse at all, but came back to Cork on the following Thursday, on which day I found that before my arrival Lyons had returned to London by the Dodo. I remained from that till Sunday, the 7th instant, at the house of my mother-in-law, earning a few shillings about the town. On that day I again met Mr. Lyons, who had just returned from London again, with a person bound for Mill-street. He asked what I was going to do, and I asked him to take me alone on to Kenmare, as he had the warrant; but he refused to do so without also taking my children. He then asked me to come to Barry's house, when two police constables were sent for. Lyons wanted one of the constables to witness a declaration from me that I had no further claim on the Greenwich Union; but he refused to do so. I said on that occasion that my children were ill, and not fit to go.

On the Thursday following I was brought by Lyons to the Police Court, where I signed a declaration that I had no further claim on the Greenwich Union, and I stated, I believe, in it that my children were not fit to be removed. The Magistrate required me to get him a medical certificate of this, and I brought him a certificate from Dr. Curtis to state that two of my children were receiving medicine from him.

Three of my children have received Dispensary relief since we arrived in Cork. The first relief was given to my son Cornelius on the 1st of May. He had a lump under the jaw and whooping-cough.

There was nothing in the state of health of my family to prevent our going on to Kenmare the time we arrived in Cork, only being fatigued after the voyage. It was I that objected to taking the family to Kenmare, as it was my wish to earn my living in Cork, and I did not wish to have the expense of taking them down and then bringing them back here again.

Mr. Lyons has taken the warrant back with him to London. It was on the back of that my declaration was written.

Cornelius Lynch.

William P. O'Brien, Poor Law Inspector.

Timothy Lane, Relieving Officer, sworn and examined—On Sunday, the 7th instant, I was called upon by William Lyons, as I understood, removing agent of Mr. Frost's, of London; he was accompanied by a local person here named Michael Barry, and the last witness, Cornelius Lynch. Barry had what I understood to be a warrant for the removal of Lynch and his family to Kenmare Union, and the object of the application to me was for a certificate that neither Lynch nor his family had become chargeable on Cork Union. Barry showed me a letter from Frost directing that such a certificate should be obtained. I refused to give the certificate—at the time this application was made the family of Lynch had, in fact, received relief from the Cork Union, a ticket for Dispensary relief having been issued for his son Cornelius, on the 29th of April, and since then similar tickets have been issued for two more of his children, one dated the 9th and the other the 19th instant.

Timothy Lane.

Sworn and acknowledged before me on this 20th of May, 1865.

Certificate of Dr. Curtis, Medical Officer, Cork Dispensary.

I certify that three children of Cornelius Lynch, recently removed to this country from England are at present receiving medical relief from me at the Cork City Dispensary. The first applied to me on the 1st instant, and the two others on the 9th and 19th instant respectively. The nature of their illness is merely a slight attack of whooping-cough; and there was nothing to prevent their being conveyed with safety to Kenmare Union, which is, as I understand, their place of destination.

I was recently pressed by Lynch to furnish him with a certificate of the unfitness of his children to be removed. This I refused to give, but simply certified that they were then receiving medicine from me.

No. 2.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Clerk of Kenmare Union.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, May 23, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, request that you will inform them whether a copy of a warrant for the Removal of "Cornelius Lynch," his wife, and four children, from the Greenwich Union, has been received by the Board of Guardians of the Kenmare Union.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Kenmare Union.

No. 3.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians of Cork Union.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, May 23, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to inform the Board of Guardians of the Cork Union, that they have received a report from Mr. O'Brien, Poor Law Inspector, with the minutes of evidence taken at an inquiry held by him into the circumstances attending the removal of a man named "Cornelius Lynch," and his family, from the Greenwich Union to Cork, the case having been brought under his notice by Mr. Lane, one of the Relieving Officers.

The minutes of evidence are enclosed herewith, for the Guardians' information.

It will be seen that on Sunday, the 23rd April last, Cornelius Lynch, his wife, and four young children, arrived in Cork by the steamer Cormorant, in charge of an agent of Mr. Frost's, named William Lyons, who appears to have been the bearer of a warrant for the removal of the family to Kenmare Union; that they were not, however, conveyed by Lyons to Kenmare, but were left at large in the city of Cork, where they now remain, and where, though as yet they have made no application for relief under the provisions of the Poor Relief Acts, three of the children are in receipt of assistance out of the rates, through the Dispensary.

It appears to be evident that Lynch earnestly desired himself to remain in Cork, and also, that had he been willing to proceed with his family to Kenmare, Lyons offered and was ready to convey him there, although, for the reason assigned in the evidence, he was not in a position to do so immediately on their reaching Cork.

It has not, however, been left within the discretion either of the persons so removed, or of the officer charged with the execution of such warrants, to elect whether or not they are to be delivered up at the place of ultimate destination; and the effect of Lyons' failure in this instance to complete the duty intrusted to him, has been to leave in the city of Cork six poor persons, whose removal to another union had been duly ordered, and who may, at any moment, become altogether, as they already are partially, a charge upon the local rates.

It appears that Mr. Frost wrote to Mr. Barry, his local agent in Cork, to obtain a certificate that the parties had not become chargeable to the Cork Union, and that an unsuccessful attempt to obtain such a certificate from the Relieving Officer, was actually made by Lyons and Barry.

The Commissioners are not aware how it was supposed that such a certificate could be used as a discharge of the warrant, nor what effect it is conceived attaches to the subsequent declaration which it appears Lynch was brought by Lyons to make before the local Magistrates at Cork, that he "had no further claim on the Greenwich Union."

An attempt, it appears, was also made by Lynch to induce the Medical Officer of the Dispensary to certify that the family were unfit to be removed.

It will be seen, however, from Dr. Curtis's certificate that this never was the fact; and, in any case, it must be borne in mind that it was not for a week after their arrival in Cork that it became necessary to afford one of the children some slight medical relief; and Lynch himself admits that when they arrived at Cork, there was nothing in their state of health to prevent their proceeding to Kenmare.

Sir,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23rd instant, requesting to be informed if a copy of a warrant for the removal of "Cornelius Lynch," his wife, and four children, from the Greenwich Union, have been received by the Board of Guardians of Kenmare Union.

In reply, I have to state that no such warrant has been received by the Board of this Union.

The Chief Clerk, Poor Law Commission Office,
Dublin.

No. 5.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union, dated 25th May, 1865.

Read letter from the Poor Law Commissioners, 23rd May, 9,915/'65, in reference to the removal of Cornelius Lynch and family from the Greenwich Union, enclosing depositions taken in the case.

Ordered—that the Clerk forward copies of depositions to the Greenwich Guardians, and call their attention to the continued disregard of the requirements of the law in the removals from that Union, and the injustice inflicted thereby on this Union.

No. 6.—Letter from the Board of Guardians of Cork Union to the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union.

Cork Union,
May 30, 1865.

Gentlemen,

I am directed to forward the accompanying sworn depositions, relating to the case of Cornelius Lynch and his family, recently removed from the Greenwich Union, and who ought to have been delivered by your officer to Kenmare, according to his warrant, but who were left (in compliance with the pauper's request) in Cork.

This family having become chargeable to the rates of this Union, the Guardians wish again to represent the injustice and hardship which your officers continue to inflict upon this Union, by the disregard and infraction of the law, under the authority of which they act.

The Guardians wish to remind you, that it is not within the discretion of the persons removed, or of the officer charged with the execution of the warrant, to elect whether or not they are to be delivered up at the place of ultimate destination, and the effect of your officer's failure in this instance to complete the duty intrusted to him, has been to leave in the city of Cork six poor persons, whose removal to another union had been duly ordered, and who may at any moment become altogether, as they already are partially, a charge upon the rates.

It appears that Mr. Frost wrote to Mr. Barry, his local agent in Cork, to obtain a certificate that the parties had not become chargeable to the Cork Union, and that an unsuccessful attempt to obtain such a certificate from the Relieving Officer, was actually made by a Mr. Lyons and Barry.

The Guardians are not aware how it was supposed that such a certificate could be used as a discharge of the warrant, nor what effect it is conceived attaches to the declaration which it appears Lynch was brought by Lyons to make before the Magistrates here, that "he had no further claim on the Greenwich Union."

The Guardians of this Union did not expect after the statement made in the House of Commons, on behalf of your Board, by Mr. Villiers, that they would have had to address you upon such a case as the present one, and they trust that you will favour them with an explanation, and instruct your officers to carry into effect the provisions of the law, the execution of which is intrusted to them.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

R. J. O'Shaughnessy, Clerk of the Union.

The Board of Guardians,
Greenwich Union.

No. 7.—Letter from the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union to the Board of Guardians of Cork Union.

Greenwich, S.E.,
June 6, 1865.

Sir,

I am directed by the Guardians to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 30th ultimo, together with copies of statements relative to the conduct of Mr. John Frost and his agents, in the removal of Daniel Lynch, who, with his wife and four children, were ordered by warrant of removal to be conveyed from this Union to the Kenmare Union

Workhouse, and in reply, to state that by a bill of charges received by the Guardians from and paid to Mr. Frost, for the removal in question, the Guardians inferred until the receipt of your letter, that the paupers had been duly conveyed to their destination.

A copy of Mr. Frost's bill of charges, as paid by the Guardians on 8th ultimo, is sent herewith.

The Guardians of the Cork Union are doubtless aware that Mr. Frost is not an officer of this Union, but a person largely employed by London parishes and unions in the conveyance of Irish poor, under warrants of removal, who is quite aware of the requirements of the law, and fully authorized to carry them out, and held responsible for so doing.

A copy of your letter and its enclosures has been ordered to be sent to Mr. Frost, with a request for an explanation, on receipt of which a further communication will, if necessary, be made to you.

In the meantime, I am directed to observe, that the Guardians of this Union, and their officers, are not open to the animadversions contained in your letter, being unaware until its receipt of any want of regularity on the part of Mr. Frost, who had been paid the full charges for the due execution of the warrant of removal.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

Samuel Saw, Clerk to the Guardians.

R. J. O'Shaughnessy, esq., Clerk to the Guardians, Cork.

The Guardians of the Greenwich Union,

To John Frost.

No. 8.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union, dated 8th June, 1865.

Proposed by R. Butcher; seconded by G. Chatterton:

Resolved,—That the Cork Board of Guardians have received and had before them the letter of the 6th inst., from the Clerk of the Greenwich Union, and they have seen with satisfaction from it that the recent failure to convey Cornelius Lynch and family to Kenmare, of which they have had occasion to complain, was attributable, not to any intentional omission of duty on the part of the Greenwich Board, but to a deliberate and palpable fraud which appears to have been practised upon them by the agent employed by them to give effect to the removal order. At the same time, the Greenwich Board are doubtless aware that over the arrangements which they may think proper to make in such cases as the present, the Cork Board have no control whatever, and that it is to the Guardians of the Greenwich Union they can alone look for securing to them the protection which the law of removal as now framed was intended to confer on Cork, and other similar port unions.

Under these circumstances, and as a guarantee against the further recurrence of any similar proceedings, the Cork Board must now appeal to the Guardians of the Greenwich Union to institute criminal proceedings against the perpetrator of the fraud in Lynch's case, in furtherance of which this Board will readily afford every information as to the facts that may be required from them.

It is necessary, however, to call the attention of the Greenwich Board to the provisions contained in secs. 2 and 3, 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76, and to point out that it appears from the annexed letter of the Clerk of the Kenmare Union to the Poor Law Commissioners, and the sworn evidence of Cornelius Lynch, that no copies of the removal warrant were in this instance furnished, in accordance with the law, either to the head of the family removed, or the authorities of the Kenmare Union.

No. 9.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union, dated 22nd June, 1865.

Proposed by W. D. E. Parker; seconded by Dr. Wall:

Resolved,—That the special attention of the Greenwich Board of Guardians be drawn to the intimation conveyed in their letter of the 6th instant, that they would procure from Mr. John Frost an explanation of the circumstances under which he had obtained payment from them for the removal of Cornelius Lynch and family to the Kenmare Union, though they had been in point of fact deserted in the city of Cork by his agent, Mr. Lyons. No further communication having been since received by the Cork Board on this most serious and important case, they are desirous of calling attention to it, and to the other resolution of the 8th instant on the subject.

No. 10.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union, dated 13th July, 1865.

Proposed by W. D. Parker; seconded by P. O'Sullivan:

Resolved,—That this Board have now, for the third time, to call the attention of the Greenwich Board of Guardians to the case of Cornelius Lynch and family, who were deserted in the city of Cork by their Removing Officer, and as to which the Guardians are anxiously expecting the communication promised by the Clerk of the Greenwich Union under date of the 6th June last.

No. 11.—Letter from the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union to the Board of Guardians of Cork Union.

Greenwich, (S.E.),
July 14, 1865.

Sir,

I am directed by the Guardians to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 24th ult., and in reply thereto to state that the Guardians having fully considered the circumstances of the case of Cornelius Lynch, and corresponded with Mr. Frost as to the irregularity which occurred in the execution of the order, have come to the conclusion that there are no sufficient grounds for instituting a criminal prosecution against him or his agent.

Mr. Frost has explained that his agent endeavoured as far as possible to execute the order, and incurred considerable expense in so doing, but that difficulties were interposed by Lynch, as the depositions also show.

The Guardians have, however, insisted on his giving instructions, if necessary, for the conveyance of the paupers from Cork to their destination at his own expense, which he has consented to do.

If the paupers are to the knowledge of the Guardians or Officers of the Cork Union, still in Cork, I will on hearing from you instruct Frost to effect their removal.

I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

SAMUEL SAW, Clerk.

R. J. O'Shaughnessy, esq.

No. 12.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of CORK UNION, dated July 20, 1865.

Proposed by W. D. E. Parker, seconded by R. Butcher:

Resolved,—That this Board have received with the utmost surprise and disappointment the letter of Mr. Saw, Clerk of the Greenwich Union, with reference to the case of Cornelius Lynch and family.

The previous letter of the Clerk of Greenwich Union, distinctly stated that Mr. Frost had furnished to that Board a detailed account of the expenses alleged to have been actually incurred in conveying this family to Kenmare, though they had never been removed there at all. This statement if correct, as this Board must presume it to have been, disclosed on the part of the removing agent, Mr. Frost, not merely an irregularity but a palpable fraud, by which he made himself liable to criminal proceedings; and the Board must express their amazement at finding that this most serious point in the case is not even adverted to in the present letter of the Clerk of the Greenwich Union.

Under these circumstances this Board feel bound to request the Poor Law Commissioners to bring the entire correspondence that has taken place under the notice of the Government, with a view to terminating the connexion of Mr. Frost with the removal of Irish poor to this country; and that this Board do furnish to the Greenwich Board a copy of Judge Keogh's judgment in the case of another Removing Officer at the recent Limerick Assizes.

No. 13.—COPY of JUDGMENT of JUDGE KEOGH referred to in the foregoing MINUTE.

LIMERICK ASSIZES—(from the Cork Herald of July 19, 1865).—DESERTION of a PAUPER by a REMOVING OFFICER.

William Fitzgerald, a Removing Officer, living in King-street, city of Cork, was put forward on the charge of abandoning a pauper who was intrusted to his care for removal to Listowel.

Mr. Waters (barrister), said he was appointed for the prisoner, and he was instructed to withdraw the plea of not guilty, and substitute one of guilty. He thought it was right to state to the Court the circumstances under which the man was charged. A warrant was given to a person named Frost, and under that warrant some paupers were brought over here from England.

Fitzgerald, who lives in Cork, received the warrant and a sum of money from Frost sufficient to carry those people to their respective destinations. He (counsel) had the instructions delivered by Frost, and in accordance with them he brought the paupers to Limerick, the place of destination being Listowel. Under a late statute persons removing paupers were only required to take their charge to the next port; and if his lordship would take into consideration that the accused was certainly unaware of the Act that was passed more recently, a few months before this offence had been committed, he would suggest that the ends of justice would be satisfied by pleading guilty, and having a mitigated penalty imposed.

Mr. De Moleyns, Q.C., said the state of feeling revealed in this case has very recently created a good deal of attention. The learned counsel quoted the Acts of Parliament relating to the removal of paupers, and proceeded to say that in this case it appeared that the unfortunate paupers had been placed on board the steamship Ibis, and that during five days they were exposed on the deck, without proper clothing or nourishment. The circumstances of their removal were most startling, and it was in consequence the authorities thought it right to institute this prosecution.

Mr. Waters, in reply to his Lordship, said the paupers brought the warrant themselves. The money was sent from England to this man.

His Lordship having read the warrant and letter from Frost to Fitzgerald, said the whole blame of this transaction was thrown on the union at the other side. That did not appear to be the true state of facts. Fitzgerald was a small slave dealer (as he could call him nothing else), living in the city of Cork, and he eked out his livelihood out of the pay he received by the transportation of those people. For a brief consideration he undertook, as a sort of contractor, to remove the paupers to a certain place, and when he got them to Limerick he left them there. Thus both he and Frost endeavoured to make a false profit by the deportation of human beings. It was as plain as daylight that these unfortunate people were placed on board a steamer without food or clothes, and in his (the Judge's) opinion, if any of them died on the passage, the person intrusted with their charge was liable to be indicted for manslaughter. The law stated that the officer could not part his charge until he brought him to the destination set forth in the warrant. The warrant in this instance was most carefully drawn up, and it set forth that the paupers were to be taken to Limerick, and thence to the said Union of Listowel. The words of the Act of Parliament were, "that any person employed in the execution of a warrant duly issued, who shall willingly desert the pauper before he has conveyed him to the place of destination, shall be liable to a fine of £10, and in default, three months' imprisonment." The warrant is intrusted for execution to Frost, and he gives it to the unhappy paupers, who are themselves compelled to carry their own badge of servitude, to hand it over to the agent, a sort of crimp in the port of Cork, to whom it is transmitted. Frost is enabled by his arrangement with this man to transgress the Act of Parliament, which says he must accompany them. He puts them on board a steamer, and gives them a shilling or sixpence, and away they go until Fitzgerald picks them up in Cork, and he shoves them off to Limerick, and when he gets them here, he leaves them.

Mr. Waters said from his Lordship's expression he would withdraw the plea of guilty, and let him take his trial.

Judge Keogh said he would not allow it now.

Mr. De Moleyns said that the Crown did not press for a severe punishment, but they thought it right to bring forward the case to prevent a recurrence of the offence. It was quite possible that the man was not aware of the law.

His Lordship.—That is perfectly out of the question. Here is the warrant specifying the Act of Parliament, and expressly calling the attention of the parties. Of course the law cannot reach a man in England, and the only way is to deal with the sub-agent here; but undoubtedly I will teach those persons a lesson that they wont forget soon. I think the penalty in the Act of Parliament is entirely too light, and I am sorry I have no power to increase it. I will impose the fullest penalty, £10, or three months' imprisonment.

No. 14.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, July 24, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of the resolution passed at the meeting of the Board of Guardians of the Cork Union on the 20th instant, referring to the communication received from the Clerk of the Greenwich Union, relating to the case of "Cornelius Lynch" and his family, brought to Cork under warrant of removal from Greenwich Union, instead of being taken to Kenmare Union, in which the Guardians request the Commissioners to bring the correspondence under the notice of the Government; and the Commissioners desire to state that the Guardians' resolution will receive their attention. You will have the goodness to return to this office the minutes of evidence in the case, which accompanied the letter of the 23rd May last.

The Commissioners conclude that the Board of Guardians do not propose to furnish any information with a view to the illegal proposal in the letter from the Clerk to the Guardians of the Greenwich Union, as to sending the family on to Kenmare now, being carried into effect.

The man and his family having passed out of the custody of the Removing Officer, he has no power whatever to take such a step as that contemplated in the Clerk's communication.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

The Clerk, Cork Union.

No. 15.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,

Sir, August 7, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to forward herewith, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of a resolution passed at the meeting of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union on the 20th ultimo, in which the Guardians request the Commissioners to bring under the notice of the Government the correspondence which has taken place with respect to the removal of a family named "Lynch," from the Greenwich Union to Ireland, under the circumstances therein represented.

A copy of the correspondence is enclosed, from which it appears that a man named Cornelius Lynch, with his wife and four young children, arrived in Cork in charge of an agent of Mr. John Frost, who contracts for the removal of paupers from the London unions to Ireland, and that the agent, William Lyons, was intrusted with a warrant authorizing and directing the removal of the family to the Kenmare Union.

The precise terms of the warrant cannot be specified, inasmuch as the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union neglected, as it appears, to comply with the terms of the 3rd section of the Act 24 & 25 Vic., cap. 76, which requires that a copy of the warrant shall be sent to the union to which the pauper is to be removed by the Guardians obtaining the warrant.

Instead of taking the family on to Kenmare when they arrived at Cork, the Removing Officer left them in Cork, and allowed them to go at large there, thus rendering the Cork Union liable at any moment to be burdened with their support.

Both Mr. Frost and his agent appear subsequently to have become aware of the breach of the law which had been committed in abandoning the family, for they made various attempts to free themselves in an irregular manner from the consequences which they apprehended.

The Board of Guardians of Cork Union, on the circumstances of the case being made known to them, addressed the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union on the subject, calling their attention to the continued disregard of the requirements of the law in the removal of paupers to Ireland on the part of the persons employed by them, and to the hardship inflicted on the Cork Union thereby, at the same time requesting their explanation in regard to the present case.

It will be seen by the reply from the Greenwich Board, dated the 6th June, that the Guardians of that union were under the impression, from the items of the bill of expenses furnished to them by Mr. Frost, and paid, that he had caused the paupers to be duly conveyed to their destination, his bill specifying items purporting to have been disbursed by his agent for conducting the family to Kilgarvan, in the Kenmare Union.

The Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union had promised on the 6th June to obtain an explanation from Mr. Frost on the subject, but it is only now, after twice being applied to, that the communication of the 14th July has been received from the Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union, which the Commissioners concur with the Guardians of Cork Union in regarding as wholly unsatisfactory.

The Board of Guardians of Greenwich Union now make a proposal to the effect that Mr. Frost should now convey the paupers from Cork to Kenmare at his own expense; but the man and his family having passed out of the custody of the person removing them, he has no power whatever to interfere with the liberty of the subject by taking such a step, and the Commissioners have apprized the Guardians of Cork Union to that effect.

The Commissioners, in compliance with the request of the Board of Guardians of Cork Union, desire to bring the case under the consideration of His Excellency, with a view to the facts being made known to the Poor Law Board in England, and in order that some effectual means may be taken to cause the provisions of the law for the removal of Irish born persons to Ireland to be carried out in a lawful and effectual manner by duly authorized and responsible persons.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Dublin Castle.

No. 16.—Letter from the Under Secretary of State for the Home Department to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Whitehall,
Sir, October 9, 1865.

With reference to your letter of the 9th August last, and its enclosures (herewith returned), I am directed by Secretary Sir George Grey to transmit to you herewith, as received from the Poor Law Board, a copy of a letter which the Board have received from the Guardians of the Greenwich Union, respecting the removal of a family named Lynch from that union to Ireland, and I am to request that you will lay the same before their Excellencies the Lords Justices. I am to add that the Poor Law Board state they are advised that they have no power to take any further steps in the matter.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

T. G. Baring.

Major-General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B., &c.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 17.—Copy Letter from the Greenwich Board of Guardians enclosed in foregoing.

Greenwich (S.E.),
My Lords and Gentlemen, September 6, 1865.

I am directed by the Guardians of this union to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of 24th ultimo, on the subject of a complaint made by the Guardians of the Cork Union relative to the execution of the warrant for removal of Cornelius Lynch and his wife and family from the Greenwich Union to the Kenmare Union in Ireland.

In reply to the inquiries contained in your letter, I am directed to make the following observations:—

1. The warrant of removal was obtained at the Greenwich Police Court on 21st March last, and directed the removal of Cornelius Lynch, his wife, and four children, from the Greenwich Union to the workhouse of the Kenmare Union, in the county of Kerry, and copy of such warrant was posted by Mr. W. Young, Assistant Relieving Officer, Deptford (addressed to the Guardians of the Kenmare Union), on 22nd March.

2. In the month of April the warrant was intrusted by the Guardians to Mr. John Frost, a person of considerable experience in the removal of Irish poor, with the view that the paupers should be properly conveyed to their legal destination, and they were forwarded by him in due course, reaching Cork en route on 28th April.

3. On arriving at Cork, Lynch appears to have objected to his children going on, and said they were too ill to proceed, but went on to the Kenmare Union house alone, his expenses thither being defrayed (it is stated by Mr Frost) by Mr. Lyons, Mr. Frost's agent. It is clear that one of Lynch's children was ill and under medical treatment on 29th April, the day after arrival, and that subsequently two others became ill, as appears from the statement of Mr. Lane, Relieving Officer of the Cork Union, but it is denied by the Guardians of the Cork Union that they were unfit to proceed.

4. The Guardians of the Greenwich Union were unaware that the warrant of removal had not been completely executed until the receipt of a letter dated 30th May last, from the Clerk to the Cork Union, they having, on 8th May last, paid Mr. Frost a bill of charges, which contained an item for the expense of conveying all the paupers to the workhouse of the Kenmare Union.

5. On receipt of the letter from the Clerk to the Cork Union, the Guardians of this union wrote to Mr. Frost, and were informed by him that Lynch had thrown obstacles in the way of the removal of his family beyond Cork. No satisfactory explanation was received as to the charge for removing all the paupers to Kenmare Union house; but Mr. Frost afterwards stated that his agent went to considerable expense in endeavouring to execute the order, which he considered entitled him to make such charge, and Mr. Frost assented to the requirement of the Guardians of this union that he should convey the paupers from Cork to their legal destination, and this was notified to the Guardians of the Cork Union by the Clerk to this union, in a letter dated 14th July last; but the Guardians of the Cork Union have expressed themselves dissatisfied that the Guardians of this union have not instituted a criminal prosecution against Mr. Frost, for fraudulently obtaining money from the Guardians of this union by means of the overcharge contained in his bill.

6. The Guardians of this union, as at present advised, do not deem it expedient to incur the heavy expense of a criminal prosecution against Mr. Frost, in reference to the overcharge contained in his bill, it being very doubtful how far such a prosecution would be sustainable; and as this union alone and not the Cork Union is aggrieved by the overcharge, the Guardians of this union are fairly entitled to exercise an uncontrolled discretion as to the prosecution in question.

7. The Guardians of this union have done all in their power to remedy any grievance of the Cork Union arising out of the mode in which the warrant of removal was executed; but if the Guardians of the Cork Union have evidence of a violation of the law by Mr. Frost, or his agents, in the wilful desertion of the paupers, it is open for them to prosecute under the 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 89, sec. 4; but the correspondence of the Cork Union does not allege any such wilful violation of the law, so far as it appears to the Guardians of this union from a perusal thereof.

8. The further details of the matter will be found in the correspondence between the Cork Union and Greenwich Union, with accompanying documents, copies of which the Guardians of this union understand have been sent from the Cork Union to the Poor Law Board.

In conclusion, I am directed to add that any further information in the power of the Guardians of this union will be sent to the Poor Law Board on application.

I have the honour to be, my lords and gentlemen,

Your most obedient humble servant,

(Signed), SAMUEL SAW,
Clerk to the Guardians.

No. 2.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, 10th August, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of the warrant, and replies to the usual "heads of inquiry" in the case of "Michael Crotty," removed from the parish of St. Luke, Middlesex, to Tipperary; and in reference thereto the Commissioners request that they may be informed whether this man resided continuously in the parish of St. Luke for "nine years" before his removal, or whether there was not such a break in his residence as would reduce the period of his continuous residence to a time which would render him removable? He would be irremovable if at the time he had resided three years previously in the parish of St. Luke.

The Commissioners also request to be informed whether Michael Crotty and his wife were living together at the time of his relief and subsequent removal?

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Tipperary Union.

No. 3.—Letter from the Clerk of the Union to the Commissioners.

Tipperary Union, Board Room,
August 11, 1865.

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 10th instant, No. 14,572/'65, acknowledging the receipt of the warrant and replies to the usual "heads of inquiry," relative to the removal of Michael Crotty from the parish of St. Luke's, Middlesex, to Tipperary, and requesting further particulars relative to said removal—

I have the honour to state that Crotty positively asserts he had a continuous residence in the parish of St. Luke's for nine years. He, however, states that he sought relief there for the purpose of being removed to Ireland for the benefit of his health. He got only one night's relief, and was removed the following morning at his own request. He further states that his wife and himself lived together at the time of his receiving relief and subsequent removal.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

W. B. Reardon, Clerk of Union.

To the Poor Law Commissioners,
Dublin.

No. 4.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
14th August, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 11th instant, in reply to their further inquiries regarding the circumstances attending the removal of Michael Crotty from the parish of St. Luke, Middlesex, to the Tipperary Union, from which it appears that Michael Crotty asserts that he had a continuous residence in the parish alluded to for nine years, and that he sought relief there for the purpose of being removed to Ireland; and in reference thereto, the Commissioners have to state that if Michael Crotty's statement be true, he was not removable from the parish of St. Luke, and that if the Guardians wish for a preliminary inquiry to take place with a view to an appeal, they should make application under the provisions of section 7 of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, to which the Commissioners desire to draw the Guardians' attention.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Tipperary Union.

No. 5.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians, dated 15th August, 1865.

Read letter dated 14th August, 1865, No. 15,051/'65, acknowledging the receipt of the Clerk's letter of the 11th instant, in reply to theirs of the 10th instant, regarding the circumstances attending the removal of Michael Crotty from the parish of St. Luke's, Middlesex, to Tipperary, from which it appears that he had a continuous residence in the parish alluded to for nine years, and that he sought relief for the purpose of being removed to Ireland. If this statement be true, he was not removable, and stating that if the Guardians wish for a preliminary inquiry they should make application under the provisions of section 7 of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89.

Ordered—That the Commissioners be informed that the Guardians are not willing to incur any expense in the matter, but they request the Commissioners will take steps to prevent such illegal removals, and with that view they are prepared to furnish them with the declaration of Crotty, should they think such necessary.

No. 6.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
21st August, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of the minutes of proceeding of the Board of Guardians of the Tipperary Union on the 15th instant, containing a minute referring to the Commissioners' letter of the 14th instant, relating to the circumstances attending the removal of Michael Crotty from the parish of St. Luke's, Middlesex, and stating that "the Guardians are not willing to incur any expense in the matter, but request the Commissioners will take steps to prevent such illegal removals."

In reply, the Commissioners request that the Board of Guardians will be so good as to apply for a copy of the depositions taken in the case, in pursuance of the 3rd section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., c. 76; and Michael Crotty's statement to the Guardians of Tipperary Union, as to the circumstances under which he alleges that he was removed, illegally as it appears at present, might at the same time be made known to the Guardians of St. Luke's.

As regards the expense of appeal, the Commissioners desire to call the attention of the Board of Guardians to the terms of the 7th section of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, in which it is provided that if the warrant of removal be reversed or declared illegal on appeal, the "Guardians or Overseers on whose application the same was obtained, shall pay the costs and expenses incurred, both for the preliminary inquiry and the appeal, and for the maintenance of such poor person, and for conveying such person back to the parish or township in England from which the removal was made."

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the Tipperary Union.

Case of MARY LANDERS and CHILDREN removed from Swansea to Dublin.

No. 1.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of NORTH DUBLIN UNION, dated 28th February, 1866.

RELIEVING OFFICER'S REPORT.

February 28, 1866.

I beg leave to report that I have admitted Mary Lander and two children sent over by the authorities under warrant from Swansea (Wales), without being accompanied by a removing officer. She states that she has been sent as deck passenger; that she has been fifteen years away from this country, and is a native of Athlone, county Westmeath, which is also stated in the warrant.

Referred to Poor Law Commissioners.

No. 2.—COPY of WARRANT referred to in foregoing MINUTE.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Swansea Union, in the County of Glamorgan.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Athlone Union, in the County of Westmeath, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Borough of Swansea, in the County of ———, to wit.

At a Petty Session of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said borough of Swansea, holden in and for the division of the said borough of Swansea, in the said county of Glamorgan, at the police court in the town of Swansea, on the sixteenth day of February, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, before us, the undersigned, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said borough.

Whereas complaint hath been made by the Board of Guardians of the Swansea Union, in the county of Glamorgan, that Mary Lander, the wife of John Lander, and her two children hereinafter named, have become and are now chargeable to the common fund of the said Union of Swansea.

And whereas the said Mary Lander having been brought before us, and application having been made to us, in Petty Sessions assembled, by George Baker Haynes, Clerk of the said Guardians, on their behalf, we have made due examination on oath, and find that the said Mary Lander is of the reputed age of thirty-one years, and was born in the kingdom of Ireland, in the parish of Saint Mary's, in the county of Westmeath, now contained in the said Union of Athlone, and hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said Swansea Union; and that she hath two children, namely, John, aged seven years, and Thomas, aged one year, which children are not exempt from removal from the said Union.

And we have seen the said Mary Lander, and her said children, and are satisfied that the said Mary Lander, and her said children, are in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are, therefore, to require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the Swansea Union, to cause the said Mary Lander, and her said children, to be safely conveyed to the said parish of Saint Mary's, in the said Union of Athlone, and to be delivered at the workhouse of the Dublin Union, which contains the port of Dublin, being the port nearest to the place of the ultimate destination of the said Mary Smith, and her said children.

Given under our hands and seals, at the sessions aforesaid,

Geo. Grant Francis. (Seal.)
Henry W. Boysheens, Q.C. (Seal.)

Received here February 24, 1866.

No. 4.—Letter from the Commissioners to Mr. Robinson, Poor Law Inspector.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, March 5, 1866.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland forward for your information the accompanying copy of a warrant, authorizing the removal of a pauper named Mary Lander and her two children from the Swansea Union, in the county of Glamorgan, to the port of Dublin, with a view to her subsequent removal to Athlone, together with replies to the queries suggested in the Commissioners' letter of the 21st June, 1864, which were obtained from the woman on her arrival at the Workhouse of North Dublin Union; and the Commissioners request that you will have the goodness to examine the woman on oath as to the circumstances of her removal, and to report to the Commissioners thereon.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Henry Robinson, Esq., Poor Law Inspector, Pilot View, Dalkey.

No. 5.—Report from Mr. Robinson to the Commissioners.

Gentlemen, Dalkey, March 8, 1866.

In accordance with the instructions contained in your letter of the 5th inst., I have the honour to forward to you the sworn evidence of Mary Lander, who, with her two children, was lately removed from Swansea to this country.

According to her statement it appears she was taken by rail to Bristol, and sent by steamer to Dublin, where she arrived on the 24th ult.

She says that a policeman took her from Swansea Workhouse to the railway station, and gave her in charge there to another officer who accompanied her to Bristol, and that this officer left her on board the steamer at Bristol, and paid 15*s.* for her passage, giving her at the same time the removal warrant, and telling her that she would be forwarded from Dublin to the union in which she was born. She does not know the name of the policeman, or of the officer who accompanied her to Bristol.

I wrote to the agent of the steamer at Bristol for information on this subject, and he states that a man paid the steward 15*s.* for the passage "of a woman with two children (one free) as deck passengers," on the 23rd ult., but that he cannot ascertain the name of the man.

The advertised charge for a deck passage from Bristol to Dublin is 10*s.*, and 5*s.* would appear to have been paid for one child, the other having been taken free.

You will observe that the removal of this woman was effected without any regard to the provisions of the Act 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89; the form of warrant prescribed by that Act was not adopted; the officer charged with the execution of the warrant did not accompany the person removed to the place of destination; the warrant directed that the woman should be delivered at the workhouse of the Dublin Union, instead of at the workhouse of the union in which she was born; and the woman and two young children were removed as deck passengers in the month of February.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

Henry Robinson.

The Poor Law Commissioners.

Deposition of Mary Lander, enclosed in foregoing Report.

Mary Lander having been duly sworn, states—I was born at Moate, in the county of Westmeath, and lived there till I went to England about fourteen years ago. I married at Birmingham, and about a year ago I came with my husband and my two children to Swansea. My husband left me about eight months ago, and about five months ago I went into the workhouse at Swansea. Some days before I was removed I was taken before the magistrates and questioned as to my place of birth, and I said it was Moate; but I did not wish to come to Ireland, and I said so. The master of the workhouse took me before the magistrates.

On the Thursday after I was before the magistrates a policeman came for me to the workhouse, and took me and my two children to the railway station, and gave me in charge to another officer who was not in uniform, and who was called a detective. This man took us by train to Bristol, and put us on board the Dublin steamer; and I saw him pay our fare to Dublin. He paid 15*s*. He then gave me the paper, and told me to take care of it, and to come to the Dublin Workhouse and to show the paper, and I would be taken in; and that I would be sent on from Dublin to Athlone if I liked. I heard him tell the stewardess to look after me and the children. He then went away, and I did not see him again. He gave me enough of food for the journey.

I do not know the names, either of the policeman who took me to the train, or of the officer who came with me to Bristol.

The steamer left Bristol on Friday morning about twelve o'clock, and we arrived in Dublin about three o'clock next day, and a policeman directed me here.

We were on deck all night. It was a very bad night, and I got wet, but I had a piece of oilcloth lent to me by a sailor to cover the children.

My eldest child is a boy, about seven years old, and the other is thirteen months old."

Mary Lander.

Sworn before me this 6th day of March, 1866.

Henry Robinson, Poor Law Inspector.

No. 6.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 13, 1866.

Sir,

With reference to the resolution of the Board of Guardians of North Dublin Union on the 8th ultimo, on the subject of the removal of Mary Lander and her two children from Swansea, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, desire to acquaint the Board of Guardians that having instructed their Inspector, Mr. Robinson, to examine the woman on oath as to the circumstances of her removal, they have now received a report from him, from which it appears that according to Mary Lander's statement, she was taken by a policeman from Swansea Workhouse to the railway station, and there given in charge to another officer, who accompanied her to Bristol; that this latter officer left her on board the steamer at Bristol, and paid 15*s*. for her passage, giving her at the same time the removal warrant, and telling her that she would be forwarded from Dublin to the union in which she was born. She does not know the name of either of these officers, nor could the agent of the steamer at Bristol, to whom Mr. Robinson applied on the subject, ascertain the name of the man by whom the passage-money was paid to the steward. The money paid was for the passage "of a woman with two children (one free) as deck passengers."

Upon referring to the warrant of removal, it appears that the Guardians of the Swansea Union are required by it to cause the woman and her children "to be conveyed to the parish of St. Mary's, in the Union of Athlone, and to be delivered at the workhouse of Dublin Union, which contains the port of Dublin, being the port nearest to the place of ultimate destination." It appears, therefore, that the removing authorities have acted in ignorance of the change of the law made in 1863 (26 & 27 Vic.,

c. 89), by which the power to remove paupers to any place other than the place of birth or last residence in Ireland named in the warrant, is repealed; but as the woman appears to have been legally removable to Ireland, there is no appeal against the warrant.

The violation of 6th section of the Act 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76, in removing the woman and her children as deck passengers in the month of February, exposes the parties who conducted the removal to a penalty of £5 on conviction; but, as above stated, it does not appear from the evidence who the parties were.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk North Dublin Union Workhouse,
North Brunswick-street.

No. 7.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians, dated 14th March, 1866.

On motion of Mr. Flanagan; seconded by Captain Lindsay:

Resolved,—That in reply to the Poor Law Commissioners' letter, No. 5,204, 13th March, 1866, we beg them to inform the persons at Swansea, who have in their opinion acted illegally, of that fact, and to procure for us the name of the officer who conducted the woman on board the steamer, and paid 15*s.* as passage-money for herself and her two children to Dublin. Passed.

No. 8.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 20, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, the accompanying copy of correspondence which they have had with the Board of Guardians of North Dublin Union, on the subject of the removal of Mary Lander and two young children from the Swansea Union.

It will be seen that the warrant under which the removal took place, is framed in accordance with the provisions of the 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76, and without any regard to the provisions of the later Act (26 & 27 Vic., c. 89), by which those provisions have been materially altered. In the present state of the law, the parties obtaining the warrant of removal ought to have made provision for conveying the persons to be removed to the place of ultimate destination, and there is no authority for sending them to a port union, as has been done in this case, with a view to their being removed to their place of ultimate destination by the Guardians of that union. It will be seen, also, that independently of any question regarding the warrant, the mode in which the removal was conducted was most irregular; the woman appears to have been deserted by the person employed in the execution of the warrant when he placed her on board the steamer at Bristol, and he has thereby been guilty, according to the 4th section of the 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89, of a misdemeanour, which exposes him to a penalty of £10, or three months' imprisonment.

It appears also that she and her children were sent as deck passengers, in violation of the 6th section of the Act 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76.

The Commissioners have pointed these circumstances out to the Board of Guardians, and have at the same time stated that they had been unable to ascertain the names of the parties engaged in the removal, and the Guardians now request the Commissioners to take further steps in the matter. The Commissioners, however, have no powers of inquiry in England, except when an appeal is contemplated under the 7th section of the 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89; but they think that the removing authorities at Swansea should have the opportunity of explanation in reference to the absence of all regard to the existing state of the law as alleged in the present case, and as appearing on the face of the warrant, and with this view the Commissioners have thought it right to bring the case under the notice of His Excellency.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

Case of Elizabeth Finn and Four Children removed from Toxteth Park to Wexford.

No. 1.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, dated 13th January, 1866.

Read a warrant dated 6th January, 1866, from under the hands of John Campbell and T. O. Underwood, esquires, for the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park, in the county of Lancaster, to the Poor Law Union of Wexford, &c.

Ordered that a copy of the warrant, together with the answers returned by the woman to the inquiries annexed to Commissioners' letter of 21st June, 1864, be forwarded to them by the Clerk, with the copy of the Guardians' minutes of this day.

No. 2.—Copy Warrant referred to in foregoing Minute, dated 6th January, 1866.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Township of Toxteth Park, in the County of Lancaster, and to the Guardians of the Poor of the Wexford Union, in the County of Wexford, in Ireland.

County of Lancaster, to wit.

Whereas complaint is now made by the Guardians of the Poor of the said township of Toxteth Park, in the county of Lancaster, unto us, the undersigned, two of Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in and for the said county, in Petty Sessions assembled, at Liverpool, in the said county of Lancaster, that Elizabeth Finn, now present, aged thirty-two years, a person born in Ireland, hath become and is now chargeable to the said township of Toxteth Park. And whereas, upon examination of a competent witness,

~~the said Elizabeth Finn,~~ taken upon oath before us, it doth appear to our satisfaction that she is of the reputed age of thirty-two years, and was born in the parish or place of Howlot, in Ireland, and that the last place of her residence for the space of three years in Ireland was in Howlot aforesaid, and that she hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal; and that she hath four children, videlicet, Margaret, aged thirteen years; John, aged eleven years; Thomas, aged eight years; and Mary, aged four years or thereabouts, which said children have gained no settlement in England, and are not otherwise exempt from removal. And whereas we have duly examined the said Elizabeth Finn as to the state of health of herself and of her said children, and are satisfied that they are respectively in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by removal to Ireland under this warrant.

These are, therefore, to require you, the Guardians of the Poor of the said township of Toxteth Park, to cause the said Elizabeth Finn with her family to be safely conveyed from and out of the said township of Toxteth Park to the said Union of Wexford, in Ireland, to be delivered at the workhouse of the said Union of Wexford.

Given under our hands and seals this ~~eighteenth~~ sixth day of ~~December,~~ January, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-~~five~~ six.

JOHN CAMPBELL.
T. O. UNDERWOOD.

14. If the pauper is a married woman deserted by her husband, how long is it since the desertion took place?—Is a married woman; her husband did not desert her or her children, but went in search of employment. She states no better husband could be than he was.

a. Where was the husband born?—Born in Liverpool.

b. Had he ever received relief from any parish or union in England or Scotland? if so, at what time and from what parish or union?—His wife states he never received parish relief.

c. Where did he last reside?—No. 3, Court, Woolf-street, township of Toxteth Park, county of Lancaster.

d. How long had he resided there?—For four years.

No. 4.—Letter from the Commissioners to Mr. Hamilton, Poor Law Inspector.

Poor Law Commission Office,
January 18, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith the answers to the usual inquiries in regard to the case of Elizabeth Finn and her children, who have been removed under warrant from the township of Toxteth Park to the workhouse of Wexford Union; the removal warrant is also enclosed.

The Commissioners request that you will be so good as to examine the woman upon oath as to the circumstances of her removal, and learn from her precise particulars regarding her past residence; the time when, and the circumstances under which her husband left her; and the precise place in Liverpool of her husband's birth, naming the parish or township if possible; also as much of his history and present place of abode as she can give.

You will be good enough to return the enclosed documents with your report.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To W. Hamilton, esq.,
Fiddown, Piltown.

No. 5.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 19, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of the warrant for the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her family from the townland of Toxteth Park, together with answers to the usual inquiries in regard to her previous residence, and other particulars relating to the removal; and in reference thereto, the Commissioners desire to inform the Board of Guardians that they have thought it right to instruct their Inspector, Mr. Hamilton, to examine the woman on oath on the subject of her removal, and also in reference to her husband's place of birth and previous residence, and the circumstances under which he left her.

The Commissioners will address the Board of Guardians again on receiving Mr. Hamilton's report; and in the meantime they suggest that application should be made to the Guardians of Toxteth Park for a copy of the depositions on which the warrant of removal was granted, and which they are bound, by the 3rd section of the Act 25 and 26 Vic., c. 76, to furnish on application.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk, Wexford Union.

No. 6.—Report from Mr. Hamilton, Poor Law Inspector, to the Commissioners.

Fiddown,

Gentlemen, January 25, 1866.

In compliance with the instructions conveyed to me in your letter of the 18th instant, No. 1,052/'66, I have examined Elizabeth Finn, and I now beg to forward her statement on oath.

I have no means of testing the accuracy of her statement; I have, however, as you will see, obtained such details as will facilitate any further inquiry into her case at Toxteth Park.

It seems to me that there are sufficient grounds to question her liability to removal to Ireland.

The circumstances attending her removal are fully detailed.

The Board of Guardians of Wexford Union have written for a copy of the depositions in her case.

I beg to return the documents which accompanied your letter.

I have, &c.,

W. J. Hamilton.

I beg to state that Oulart is in the Union of Enniscorthy.

The Poor Law Commissioners.

Minutes of Evidence enclosed in the foregoing Report.

Elizabeth Finn, duly sworn, states—I am a married woman, and the mother of five children. I am about forty-two years of age. I was born at Monavullen, in the parish of Oulart, about five miles from Enniscorthy. I first left my home the summer of the year the Queen was crowned. I was only a child when I left Ireland. I went to Liverpool; was a servant there; then went to the Cheshire side of the river. I was married in the R. C. Chapel of Birkenhead about twenty-two years ago. My husband is an Englishman. He always told me he was born and brought up in Liverpool. I do not know in what precise place in Liverpool or the name of the parish or township. My husband's name is Owen Finn. I cannot tell whether he was of Irish origin. He is a labourer. I do not know where he is now. He left me to go and look for work three days before I went into the workhouse at Smithdown-lane, Toxteth Park. My husband and I lived with our family in Henderson-street, Toxteth Park, for eight years. I forget the number. We then removed into Bedford-street, Toxteth Park. No. 4, Bedford-street. We were twelve months there. Then into Albert-street, No. 3. This was in Toxteth Park too. Then to No. 6, John-street, Toxteth Park—three years there; then Stanhope-street, No. 5, Court, in Toxteth Park too. We then removed to 25, Opwood-street, Northend, not in the Toxteth Park district; it is about four miles from Toxteth Park. We removed according to the work: for the last four years we have lived at Wolf-street, Toxteth Park, No. 3, Court. We never left it all those four years. We lived in the same house. It was in the Toxteth Park Union. I don't know the name of the parish or township. I only know our chapel was St. Patrick's Chapel. My husband was for twelve years in one employment, Mr. Miller's. He always supported his family, and kept us out of the union; but work becoming scarce, he went to America some months ago to try and do better for us. He left us all at home (No. 3, Court), Woolf-street. On his arrival in America his health failed and he came home again. He was away altogether five months. About six weeks before he came back, I was forced to seek relief for myself and children (four), my oldest being at sea. The eldest of my children now with me is 13, Margaret, Johnny 11, Jemmy 8, and Mary 4. We were allowed 5s. a week for six weeks. I then went before the Board, and told them my husband had returned from America, and that he had again gone to look for work; they then said I had better come into the poorhouse, and I did so. I brought the children with me, leaving my furniture and things in a neighbour's house, Mrs. Caffrey's house, Market-court, Rathborne-street. I was five weeks in the poorhouse. About a fortnight after I had been there, I was taken before a magistrate. I don't know his name. He told the Passmaster I had been too long in the country, and he could not pass me. The Passmaster said I was Irish. He said he dared say I was, and did not doubt it, but he could not pass me, especially as I had seen my husband so lately. All my children were born in England, and registered in England; three were born in Liverpool, and two in Cheshire; my eldest son is 21. I have been once in Ireland since I was married, about thirteen years ago. I was only one week at my sister's, who lives near Oulart. My husband never was in Ireland to my knowledge, nor were any of my children until now.

When I asked for my discharge from the workhouse to go and get tidings of my husband, the Master of the Workhouse said he had a warrant to pass me to Ireland, and I was sent off against my wish. I resisted, and three officers escorted me to the steamer, and a pair of handcuffs was sent to be used if necessary. The children cried, and begged me to go quietly, so that I might not be handcuffed; at a moment's notice I was sent off like a prisoner.

We embarked at Liverpool on the 10th of January. We were deck passengers, but we got shelter in the hold with some sailors and others who were passengers. We had a fearful passage, and the children suffered a deal. It blew so hard that the vessel could not get into Wexford, but had to run for Ballyhack. We then came here, a distance of twenty-five miles, on an open car, and the children were quite benumbed with cold when they reached Wexford, at 11½ o'clock on Thursday night. We were accompanied by a paid officer of Toxteth Park Union. I don't know his name. I last saw my husband three days before I went into the workhouse, and I was about five weeks there, to the best of my knowledge. My husband never received relief from any parish. I don't know where my husband is. He was always a good husband and a good father, and had I been let out of the workhouse I could have found him. He always went to his place of worship. I am sure he has returned before this, and it is no fault of mine that I am not there to meet him. I am sure my things are all safe. My sailor son is now on his way home from Calcutta. The Master of Toxteth Park Union told me that if I wrote to him he would tell my son where I had gone on his arrival, as I said I feared when he found his home broken up, he might go to the bad.

No. 7.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 26, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to acquaint the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, that they have received Mr. Hamilton's report with the deposition of Catherine Finn, taken by him on the 23rd inst., in reference to her removal, with her four children, from the township of Toxteth Park; but before advising the Guardians on the subject, they wish to see the depositions on which the warrant of removal purports to have been granted, which the Commissioners believe the Guardians have already applied for as suggested by them.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Wexford Union.

No. 8.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, February 2, 1866.

Referring to their letter of the 26th ultimo, on the subject of the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park to the workhouse of the Wexford Union, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that, as the question of the liability of Elizabeth Finn and her children to be removed to Ireland appeared open to considerable doubt, the Commissioners were desirous of seeing the depositions on which the warrant was granted, but as those depositions do not appear to have been yet furnished to the Guardians, the Commissioners now forward a copy of the woman's statement on oath, as made to Mr. Hamilton, Poor Law Inspector.

From this statement it appears that, apart from the question of the liability of the woman and her children to removal, there were several irregularities and some hardship in the case.

In the first place, it appears that if removable to Ireland at all the family ought to have been sent to the Enniscorthy Union, and not to the Wexford Union.

It would also appear from her statement that the only magistrate before whom she was taken, stated that she was not removable, and declined to grant the order; and if this statement is true it would appear that the warrant which was subsequently obtained, and under which she was removed, was not obtained in accordance with the provisions of the Poor Removal Acts.

The family were removed as deck passengers, contrary to the provisions of the 6th sec. of the 24 & 25 Vic., cap. 76, by which the guilty parties have rendered themselves liable to a penalty of £5.

The forcible removal of the woman against her will (handcuffs being produced to her, though not actually used), without allowing her an opportunity of seeing after her furniture, appears to have been an act of harshness though not any violation, probably, of the law as it exists.

The main question, however, appears to be whether the woman was removable at all to Ireland. If her husband, who appears to be an Englishman, has a settlement in England, and if that settlement is known, the family ought to have been removed to the place of his settlement. The depositions, however, do not contain sufficient information on this point, and it becomes a question for the Guardians' consideration whether they will incur the expense of a preliminary inquiry in England, to ascertain what the facts really are, and the place of the husband's settlement—which can be done at trifling expense.

The costs of an appeal against the removal, under the 7th sec. of the Act 26 & 27 Vic., cap. 89, would be more serious; but in the event of the appeal being successful, the costs of both proceedings, as well as the costs of the paupers' maintenance and their re-transmission to the Union from which they have been removed would be payable by the Board of Guardians of that Union; and if the Guardians think an appeal desirable, and will pass a resolution, in terms of the section above referred to (a copy of which is enclosed), agreeing to pay the costs, the Commissioners will at once take the necessary steps in the matter.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Wexford Union.

No. 9.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, dated February 3, 1866.

Read Letter, No. 1,695/'66, dated 2nd February, 1866, forwarding copy of Elizabeth Finn's statement on oath in reference to her removal from Toxteth Park township to this union, as made to Mr. Hamilton, Poor Law Inspector, &c.

The Clerk of the Union reported that the Guardians of Toxteth Park township had not yet sent a copy of the depositions upon which the warrant for the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children was granted, although he had written to them for it on the 22nd ultimo.

Resolved unanimously,—That this Board of Guardians are desirous of appealing against the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from Toxteth Park township to this union; and hereby undertake in the event of being unsuccessful to pay the expenses consequent on the proceeding; and we therefore request that the Commissioners will take the necessary steps to proceed in the matter as early as possible.

Moved by Colonel Hatton, and seconded by Mr. Patrick Lambert, and passed: "That a copy of the correspondence in reference to the removal of Eliza Finn and her four children be transmitted by the Clerk to Mr. George, M.P., with a request that he will, at the proper time, bring the matter under the notice of Parliament.

No. 10.—Letter from the Commissioners to Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, Solicitors.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
February 9, 1866.

Gentlemen,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, request that you will be so good as to make a preliminary inquiry, in accordance with the provisions of the Act 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89, sec. 7, with a view to an appeal, if it should appear likely to be attended with success, against a warrant for the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from Toxteth Park to Wexford Union.

The copy of the warrant received by the Enniscorthy Board of Guardians, together with a copy of the statement made by Elizabeth Finn in reply to questions put to her on her arrival at the workhouse, and of her subsequent examination on oath by the Poor Law Inspector, are herewith enclosed, together with a copy of the Guardians' resolution expressing their desire to appeal against the warrant.

It will be seen from these documents that there were, according to the woman's statement, various irregularities attending the obtaining and execution of the warrant, which, it will be observed, orders her removal to a union with which she had no previous connection either by birth or residence, Oulart, her place of birth and last residence in Ireland, being in the Enniscorthy Union and not in the Wexford Union; but, independently of these circumstances, which would not, the Commissioners presume, constitute any ground for an appeal against the warrant under the section above referred to, it will be seen that Elizabeth Finn states that her husband is an Englishman and was born in Liverpool, and the Commissioners presume that if this is the fact, and if her husband's settlement is known, she and her children (who were all born in England) ought to have been removed, if removable at all, to the husband's place of settlement, and not to Ireland.

The Commissioners request that you will be so good as to return the copy of the warrant of removal with your report of the result of your preliminary inquiry.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, Solicitors,
Warrington.

No. 11.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
February 23, 1866.

Sir,

With reference to previous correspondence on the subject of the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park to the workhouse of the Wexford Union, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that they understand from their Inspector, Mr. Hamilton, that he has been informed that Elizabeth Finn and her children have left the workhouse, a brother of Elizabeth Finn having taken them out with the intention of sending them to England.

The Commissioners request that they may be informed whether this information is correct.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Wexford Union.

No. 12.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, dated February 24, 1866.

Read letter from the Commissioners, dated 23rd February, 1866, requesting to be informed if Elizabeth Finn and her children has left the workhouse.

Ordered that the Commissioners be informed that the information which they have received from Mr. Hamilton in reference to this woman and her children is correct.

No. 13.—Letter from Messrs. Marsh and Barratt to the Commissioners.

Warrington,
February 26, 1866.

Sir,

We beg to enclose herewith our report of the preliminary inquiry into the facts connected with the removal of Elizabeth Finn and family from Toxteth Park. We send also all the documents which formed the enclosures accompanying your letter of the 9th instant.

We are, &c.,

Marsh and Barratt.

Commissioners, Dublin.

No. 14.—Report of Preliminary Inquiry enclosed in foregoing Letter.

Wexford Union.

Report of Messrs. Marsh and Barratt to the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, on a preliminary inquiry under the Act 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89, s. 7, as to the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from Toxteth Park, Lancashire, to Wexford Union.

The undersigned beg to report that we have been for seven days engaged in making a diligent inquiry into the circumstances of this removal. Of the difficulties which have attended our inquiry some idea may be formed when we mention the fact that Mrs. Caffrey, the neighbour in Market-court, mentioned in the pauper's deposition, had died a fortnight before our inquiry commenced; and of all the inhabitants of No. 3, Court, Woolf-street, such is the migratory nature of the population, that one only had resided there for a longer period than a week. We succeeded, however, in ascertaining that Owen Finn had returned and removed his furniture, and had been seen by a provision dealer named Doyle, to whom he owed a small shop bill, and to whom he would not give his address. Either from this circumstance, or from his distrusting, for other reasons, the object of our inquiry, we have no doubt he has during a whole week been purposely evading all attempts to find him. We succeeded, however, in tracing him to the works of the Great Northern Extension Railway at Liverpool, thence to a quarry at Everton, thence to Bootle; and eventually, from assistance afforded to us through the influence of the Rev. Canon Chapman, of St. Werburgh's Roman Catholic Chapel, Birkenhead, and the Rev. P. Power, of St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Chapel, Liverpool, we succeeded in finding Owen Finn living at No. 7 house, No. 28, Court, Hornby-street, Liverpool. His wife, Elizabeth Finn, and three of the four children removed are living with him, having been sent back by her friends.

There is no ground for the suggestion that Owen Finn is an Englishman. He states that he was brought from Ireland when about nine years of age by his father and mother, but never heard from what part of Ireland he came. We have seen his sister, named Regan, who is living in Stanley-court, Dryden-street, Scotland-road, and is a little older than Finn, and she can only give the same information.

Before seeing him we had ascertained from Messrs. Williams and Jones, of 32, Castle-street, Liverpool, the house agents who have the management of the property in No. 3 Court, Woolf-street, that the date of Finn's entry into the tenancy of that house was the 16th March, 1863; and as the pauper in her statement to the Poor Law Inspector had given her last previous residence at 25, Hopwood-street, North End, we considered it unnecessary to make further inquiries on that head. On its being pointed out to Finn and his wife that this did not give as long a residence in No. 3, Court, as had been stated, he asserted that he had lived for a month previous in another house in the same court, and his wife wished to extend the statement to two months. We place no reliance on this assertion, and if true it is unimportant, as the period during which the pauper was receiving relief would have to be excluded from the computation of time necessary to make the paupers irremovable, and the wife and family seem to have been receiving either out-door or in-door relief from the beginning of November, 1865. There is therefore no ground for alleging irremovability. If the time had been sufficient a question would have arisen as to the effect of the husband's absence in America, which, on the facts as now ascertained, it is unnecessary to discuss.

We find that the pauper is as alleged the wife of Owen Finn, though she has not stated truly the date of the marriage, which according to her deposition, should have been about the year 1843 or 1844. We searched in vain the register at St. Werburgh's during the years 1842 to 1851, except during a short period during which the original register is defective, but fortunately the Marriage Register for the district of Wirrall preserves a copy, and we find that Owen Finn and Betsy Dempsey were married at St. Werburgh's on the 20th February, 1850. Their eldest son, spoken of in the wife's deposition as being abroad, was born out of wedlock at the workhouse in Birkenhead. We had obtained copies of the baptismal registers of the two next, namely, Margaret, born 8 April, 1851, and John, born 9 September, 1853, each being a year or two older than stated by their mother. We have not found any register of the two youngest; but from the above facts it is evident that they were born in England. We are told they were baptized at St. Anthony's Roman Catholic Chapel, but have not thought it necessary to procure copies of the register.

It is clear then that the pauper and her children are neither settled in England nor irremovable from Toxteth Park; but there are several grounds on which the warrant of removal appears to us to be open to fatal objections, if it should be thought worth while to appeal against it, under the circumstances of the pauper having left Ireland and returned to Liverpool, and having regard moreover to the difficulty there may be in again searching for the paupers, and procuring their evidence in the event of an appeal.

From the moment of the husband's return from America he was clearly resident in Toxteth Park where his wife and family were living, and his subsequent absence in search of work was no interruption of his residence there, unless it was a desertion of his wife and children, which (having regard to Mr. Justice Erle's definition of desertion R. v. All Saints, Derby 14, 2 B. 220) there can be no pretence for alleging. Consequently relief given to his wife and children was relief given to Owen Finn as the head of the family, and no valid order could be made, except on his appearance before the magistrates, or at least on the return of a summons served upon him. See remarks of Coleridge J, in the case above quoted.

The removal ought to have been to the union where the husband and not the wife was born, or if his place of birth or residence in Ireland could not be ascertained, then to the most convenient port, under the 24 & 25 Vic., c. 76, s. 2.

The warrant of removal is bad on the face of it in not showing any ground of removal to Wexford Union. It departs from the form provided by 26 & 27 Vic., c. 89, in not alleging Oulart the place of birth to be in Wexford Union, and it appears from the Board's instructions in this case that it is in fact in another union.

The pauper's evidence alleges another important irregularity in the making of the order. She alleges in fact that the order was refused when she was before the magistrates, and subsequently made behind her back, and her evidence in this respect is corroborated by the appearance of the document itself. She embarked from Liverpool on the 10th January, having been about five weeks in the workhouse, which would bring the date of her admission to about the 6th December.

She was taken before the magistrates when she had been about a fortnight in the workhouse, which would bring us to about the 20th, and the warrant appears to have been filled up ready for signature on the 18th (a very close approximation to the dates derived from her statement), and subsequently altered to the 6th January, the name of the pauper as the person giving evidence being at the same time altered to "a competent person." The form given by the Act does not require the names of the witnesses to be given, but it does require the name of the person making the application for the warrant: and its omission in this case may be worth noticing in the grounds of appeal, if an appeal be determined on, in respect of the more serious irregularities.

MARSH and BARRATT.

Warrington, February 26, 1866.

No. 15.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the BOARD of GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 2, 1866.

SIR,

Adverting to previous correspondence on the subject of the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park, Liverpool, to the workhouse of the Wexford Union, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland now transmit herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of a report which they have received from Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, solicitors, on the preliminary inquiries made by them into the circumstances of the removal in this case.

The Commissioners desire at the same time to state that, looking to the fact that the woman and her children have now returned to Liverpool, and have rejoined her husband there, it seems scarcely worth the expense of proceeding with an appeal on the grounds suggested in the report, though the Commissioners place the fullest reliance on Messrs. Marsh and Barratt's view of the case.

The Commissioners intend, however, to place the case before the Government, as an instance of the irregularities practised in England by Poor Law authorities in availing themselves of the present law of removal, and to point out the harshness of separating his wife and children from Owen Finn on the unsustained ground of his having deserted them.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Wexford Union.

No. 16.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of WEXFORD UNION dated March 3, 1866.

Read letter from the Commissioners, dated March 2, 1866, forwarding copy of Report made by Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, in reference to the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her children.

Ordered that the Commissioners be informed that the Guardians will act on the Commissioners' suggestion, and not proceed further in the matter.

No. 17.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to Messrs. MARSH and BARRATT.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 9, 1866.

GENTLEMEN,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge with thanks the receipt of your report of the 26th ultimo, on the preliminary inquiries made by you into the circumstances of the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park, Liverpool, to the workhouse of the Wexford Union.

The Commissioners desire to inform you that they have forwarded a copy of your report to the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, and have stated that looking to the fact that the woman and her children have now returned to Liverpool, and have rejoined her husband there; it seems scarcely worth the expense of proceeding with an appeal, on the grounds suggested in the report, though the Commissioners place the fullest reliance on your view of the case; and the Board of Guardians at their meeting on the 3rd instant, passed a resolution to the effect that they will not proceed further in the matter.

The Commissioners request that you will be so good as to furnish them with your bill of costs in the case, with a view to its being placed before the Board of Guardians for payment.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Messrs. Marsh and Barratt,
Solicitors, Warrington.

No. 18.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 10, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of correspondence relating to the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children, aged thirteen, eleven, eight, and four years respectively, from the township of Toxteth Park, Liverpool, to the workhouse of Wexford Union.

The case is one in which, as the Commissioners are advised, there are good grounds for an appeal against the warrant; but on consideration of the circumstances mentioned in the report of Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, solicitors, of Warrington, by whom a preliminary inquiry has been made in accordance with the provisions of the 7th section of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, and of the fact that the family have returned to England, and are no longer chargeable to Wexford Union, the Commissioners have advised the Board of Guardians not to incur the expense of an appeal, but have at the same time stated to them that they would bring the case under the notice of Her Majesty's Government in Ireland.

The Commissioners submit that the papers show the following state of facts, viz., that there was no legal ground for the removal of the woman and children without the husband; that if removable they ought to have been all removed to the place to which the husband would have been removable; and that even according to the wife's place of birth and residence in Ireland they ought not to have been removed to Wexford Union, she having been born and always resided, when in Ireland, at a place situated in Enniscorthy Union; and lastly, that the order was made in her absence, the woman not being before the magistrates when the warrant was granted, as required by the 1st section of the Act 24 and 25 Vic., c. 76.

It will be seen by the woman's deposition as taken by Mr. Hamilton, that about a fortnight after she entered the Toxteth Park Workhouse, she was taken before a magistrate, who refused to grant a warrant for her removal; and that about three weeks afterwards, on her applying for her discharge, in order that she might go and get tidings of her husband, the master told her he had a warrant to pass her to Ireland, and it was under this warrant that she was removed. This statement is confirmed by the appearance of the warrant itself, which, as originally filled up, referred to the examination of Elizabeth Finn, and stated that the examination was annexed, and bore date the 18th December, 1865. The words referring to the examination of Elizabeth Finn have, however, been altered, by striking out the words "the said Elizabeth Finn," and inserting the words, "a competent witness;" the words "which examination is hereto annexed" have also been struck out, and the date has been altered from the 18th December, 1865, to the 6th January, 1866; and it is a remarkable circumstance that although the Guardians of Wexford Union applied on the 22nd January last for a copy of the depositions in the case, to which they are entitled by the 3rd section of the Act, no reply has been received.

Assuming that the solicitors who conducted the preliminary inquiry in Liverpool are correct in their view, that no pretence existed for considering this woman to have been deserted by her husband, the removing authorities have without any colourable pretext separated by force a wife from her husband, and several young children from their father, sending them a long sea voyage on the deck of a steamer in stormy weather, at this inclement season of the year. It was only at the entreaty of the children who cried to her to go quietly, and not have the handcuffs put on her, that the woman ceased to struggle against the illegal violence of those who were taking her from the place where her husband was residing, although temporarily absent from her, in order to obtain work. The sufferings of the children during the voyage and afterwards are described in Elizabeth Finn's deposition before the Inspector. She has on all occasions when examined declared Owen Finn to have been a good husband to her, and a good father to her children, and this part of her statements is confirmed by the fact of her having since obtained from her relations in Ireland the means of returning to him at Liverpool, and by the further fact that on the recent inquiry made in that town they were found to be living together. Such proceedings as these would demand attention, even if they were capable of being justified by a rigorous construction of the law of removal; but as the case is now presented to the Commissioners, it appears to them quite necessary that the removing authorities should have the opportunity of explaining their conduct, and with this view the Commissioners have submitted the case to His Excellency's consideration.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 19.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 16, 1866.

Sir,

With reference to the letter of the 2nd instant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, transmit, to be laid before the Board of Guardians of Wexford Union, the accompanying bill, which they have received from Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, solicitors, of the costs incurred in the preliminary inquiries made by them into the circumstances of the removal of Elizabeth Finn and her four children from the township of Toxteth Park, Liverpool, to the workhouse of Wexford Union, amounting to £21 15*s.* 10*d.*; and the Commissioners request that the Board of Guardians will have the goodness to remit the amount to them for payment to Messrs. Marsh and Barratt.

The Commissioners desire to express their regret that the expense exceeds what they, from previous experience, expected it to be; which arose from the peculiarity of the case and the great difficulty the solicitors appear to have encountered in discovering the parties.

The average expense of preliminary inquiries in previous cases conducted by the same solicitors has been less than £5.

The information obtained is of great interest and importance in reference to the existing state of the law of removal, and the case has been brought under the special consideration of Her Majesty's Government.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the Wexford Union.

No. 20.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of the Wexford Union, dated 17th March, 1866.

Read letter from the Commissioners, dated 16th March, 1866, forwarding account of Messrs. Marsh and Barratt, solicitors, of expenses incurred in the case of Eliza Finn and children. Ordered that a cheque be drawn in favour of Messrs. Marsh and Barratt for this sum, and forwarded with minutes of this day to the Poor Law Commissioners, who will have the goodness to forward to the Guardians solicitors' receipt when it will have been received by the Commissioners.

Case of Mary Barry and Children removed from Westminster.

No. 1.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Limerick Union, dated January 24, 1866.

The case of Mary Barry, admitted on the 13th November, 1865, removed from England to Limerick, unaccompanied by the Removing Officer from Killarney to the latter place, and whom it appeared had acquired the right of irremovability by a continuous residence of sixteen years in York-street, in the parish and Union of Westminster, having been brought under notice—

It was ordered that the solicitor of the Board be instructed to take the necessary legal steps against the parties concerned in the violation of the Statute.

[Note.—A statement of particulars with reference to this case will be forwarded next post.]

No. 2.—Statement of Particulars referred to in the foregoing Minute.

Mary Barry, aged twenty-eight, married; Kate Barry, two years and ten months, and James, fifteen months, her children.

Date of warrant or copy?—Not received.

Date of embarkation?—9th of November, 1865.

Name of the port at which the embarkation took place?—St. Catherine's Dock, London.

How sent; as a deck passenger or otherwise?—Deck passenger to Cork, third class passenger per train to Killarney, from thence, like accommodation to Limerick.

When and by whom delivered at the workhouse?—13th November, unaccompanied by Removing Officer.

How long is it since the pauper left Ireland?—Sixteen years.

Where was the pauper born in Ireland (giving if possible the name of the parish, and the name of the townland)?—Village of Patrick's Well, county and union of Limerick.

What was the pauper's last place of residence in Ireland (giving if possible the name of the parish and the name of the townland)?—Village of Patrick's Well, county and union of Limerick.

How long had the pauper resided in such place before leaving Ireland? —From birth.

Where was the pauper residing in England when he or she became chargeable? (Give the name of the union, and also of the parish or township, if possible).—Resided for sixteen years in the parish of Westminster, London.

If the pauper is a widow, when did her husband die?—Married, husband in Westminster.

If the pauper is a married woman deserted by her husband, how long is it since the desertion took place?—Not deserted.

Where was the husband born?—Carey's-road, city of Limerick.

Had he ever received relief from any parish or union in England or Scotland? If so, at what time and from what parish or union?—No.

Where did he last reside?—York-street, Westminster.

How long had he resided there?—Sixteen years.

Date of surviving parent's death?—About ten or fifteen years.

Where was the parent residing at the time of death? (Give the name of the union, and also of the parish or township).—Patrick's Well.

How long had the parent resided there?—Always resided there.

The Pauper made the following Statement.

That having applied for and obtained relief twice at the Westminster Workhouse, her husband having left London at that time in search of employment, she was forcibly taken before a magistrate, who interrogated her as to her previous place of residence. That she was then brought back to the workhouse, where she, with her two children, had been placed in a cab and sent off to the Saint Catherine's Dock, put on board the steamer bound for Cork. That she entreated of the officials at the workhouse to let her go to her husband, and "she would never trouble them again;" and was told when he (the husband) would come to make inquiries about her he would be similarly dealt with. That during the three days she had been coming to Cork, the Removing Officer (whose name she could not ascertain) took no pains whatever about herself or two children, as he always appeared to be under the influence of drink. That upon her arrival in Cork, she was again put into the train, and found herself next in Killarney, where, the Removing Officer having paid her fare per train to Limerick, left her.

She also submitted a letter, of which the following is a copy, received from her husband since her admission to this workhouse :—

Drury-lane, 25, Charles-street, London.

My dear Wife,

I was greatly surprised when I received your letter to hear that you were in Ireland, which grieved me very much to hear that you and my dear children were so distressed. They had no right to send you and my children away from me, that the children were born in Westminster parish, and I lived there twenty years; and where else could they claim but that parish? I was greatly surprised that they pressed them away from me in that manner without letting me know. As those in Westminster parish had no feeling, I hope and trust the gentlemen of Limerick Union will kindly assist you and the children back to me again, as I have plenty of work to support them, for which I should feel very grateful.

Your affectionate husband,

Patrick Barry.

No. 3.—Letter from the Commissioners to Mr. Bourke, Poor Law Inspector.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
February 19, 1866.

Sir,

With reference to your observations dated the 18th inst., relative to the removal of the pauper Mary Barry and her two children from Westminster to the workhouse of the Limerick Union, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, have directed that the papers on the subject be herewith sent back to you, and they will be obliged to you if you will be so good as to report any further information you may obtain thereon. It may perhaps be desirable that you should take the woman's deposition on oath, and examine her especially as to the circumstances under which her husband left London, and the duration of his absence.

No warrant having been received by the Guardians of Limerick Union, it should be ascertained whether the pauper has a copy, the Act of Parliament requiring it to be given to her.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To R. Bourke, esq., Poor Law Inspector, Nenagh.

No. 4.—Report from Mr. Bourke to the Commissioners.

Lisnagry, Limerick,
March 12, 1866.

Gentlemen,

With reference to your letter of the 19th ult., No. 1,762, requesting me to report to you upon the case of Mary Barry, who, with her two infant children, was removed from one of the metropolitan unions on the 9th November last, under circumstances of great hardship, and in a manner apparently both cruel and illegal, I beg leave to state that upon personal inquiry, made at the Limerick Workhouse on the 21st ult., I found that the woman had taken her discharge on the 9th, and returned with her children to London, there to join her husband.

I had no means, therefore, of examining her upon oath, nor could I ascertain the position of the case, as the solicitor to whom the papers had been intrusted by the Guardians, with a view to his prosecuting the offenders, was absent from Limerick, where he only returned last week for the assizes.

I now understand from Mr. Murphy, the solicitor, that the woman swore no information in the case, his opinion being that no proceedings could be successfully undertaken; and he confined himself to addressing the Poor Law Board on the subject, from whence he received a reply dated the 23rd of February, stating that inquiries were in progress regarding the case.

Under these circumstances, there is no other evidence than the woman's own statement as to her treatment by the parish officers of the removing union. But it is certain that she and her children were deserted on their journey, contrary to the provisions of the Act, and arrived at the Limerick Workhouse unaccompanied by any Removing Officer. It is also certain that no warrant for her removal was received by the Limerick Guardians, nor, according to her statement, was any copy given to her.

She states that she resided sixteen years in Westminster, and that although her husband had left London in search of employment when she applied the second time for relief, she was not deserted. It seems probable, however, that there was sufficient break in the husband's residence to render the wife removable, as a letter received from him by his wife, whilst in the Limerick Workhouse, is dated from Charles-street, Drury-lane. She states that she and her children were deck passengers from London to Cork, contrary to the provisions of the Act regulating the removal of the Irish poor; and that from Cork she was taken first to Killarney, and sent on from thence unaccompanied by the Removing Officer to Limerick, where she arrived on the 13th November.

The omission of the parish authorities to furnish the Limerick Board with a copy of the warrant of removal in this case, deprived it of the immediate attention usually given in similar instances. And the woman has now left the workhouse without having furnished the means of determining the parish by which she was removed, and without giving all the details of her husband's absence from London.

It would appear, however, that she was living in York-street, Westminster, at the time of her removal, and it ought not to be difficult for the Poor Law Board to ascertain the facts relating to it, through the Clerk of the Union in which that street is situated.

I return the enclosures to your letter of the 19th ult.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

R. Bourke.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 14, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, transmit to you herewith, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of a statement which they received on the 27th January last, relating to the removal of Mary Barry and her two infant children from a parish in Westminster together with a copy of a report which they have since received from Mr. Bourke, the inspector in charge of the union on the subject.

It appears in the present case, as well as in the case of removal from Toxteth Park to the Wexford Union, reported in the Commissioners letter of the 10th inst.,* that the woman and children had been illegally removed without the husband, the latter not having deserted them, as Mary Barry states, and her statement being confirmed by the letter she received from her husband while an inmate of Limerick Workhouse.

* See page 67.

The Guardians of Limerick Union have placed this case in the hands of their own solicitor, and have not applied for a preliminary inquiry with a view to an appeal under the 7th sec. of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, probably on his advice; and therefore the question whether she had been actually deserted or not, has not been further inquired into by the Commissioners.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 6.—Letter from the Clerk of the Limerick Union to the Commissioners.

Office, Limerick Union,
Sir, April 13, 1866.

I beg to forward for Commissioners' information the correspondence received relative to the case of Mary Barry, removed from the union comprising the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

H. Naish, Clerk of Union.

B. Banks, Esq., Chief Clerk,
Poor Law Commission Office.

No. 7.—Copy of Correspondence with the Poor Law Board in England enclosed in foregoing.

Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
Sir, April 7, 1866.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to forward to you herewith for your information and with reference to the letter which you addressed to them on the 5th February last, a copy of a correspondence which has taken place between the Board and the Governors and Directors of the poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, respecting the case of the pauper, Mary Barry.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

Enfield, Secretary.

Joseph Murphy, Esq., Solicitor,
55, George-street, Limerick.

Copy of Correspondence.

No. 5,542/1866 C. Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
Sir, February 13, 1866.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to forward to the Guardians of the poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, the enclosed copy of a letter which the Board have received from Mr. Joseph Murphy, Solicitor to the Guardians of the Limerick Union, with reference to the removal from Westminster to Ireland, of a poor woman named Mary Barry and her children.

The Board request to be furnished with any observations which the Guardians may desire to make upon the case of Mary Barry.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

E. Spooner, Esq.,
Clerk to the Guardians of the poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster. The Workhouse, Petty France, S.W.

6,784/1866. Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, S.W.,
My Lord, London, February 16, 1866.

I am directed by the Board of Governors and Directors of the poor of these parishes to acknowledge the receipt of your Lordship's communication, dated the 13th February instant, No. 5,542/1866, C, and its enclosure with reference to the removal of Mary Barry to Ireland, and to state in reply thereto that the same is under inquiry by the Board.

I have the honour to be your lordship's obedient servant,

(Signed), E. Spooner, Clerk.

Lord Enfield, M.P., Secretary
Poor Law Board, S.W.

8,835/1866. Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, S.W.,
My Lord, London.

By direction of the Governors and Directors of the poor of these parishes, I forward herewith the proceedings of the Board with reference to the case of Mary Barry, in reply to the communication of the Poor Law Board, dated the 13th ultimo, No. 5,542/1866, C.

I have the honour to be your lordship's obedient servant,

Viscount Enfield, M.P., Secretary
Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.

St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster,
February 15, 1866.

At a Board of Governors and Directors of the poor of these parishes, held this day—

Present S. H. Godson, Esq. (Chairman), in the chair.

Read the following letter and its enclosure.

(Here the same is inserted, No. 5,542/1866, C, 13th February, 1866, re Mary Barry and children.)

The Board made inquiries of the Relieving Officer in reference to the removal of the case referred to in the letter now read, and it appeared that this woman and her children were admitted into the Petty France house in the name of Mary Welch, on the 5th May, 1865, and she took her discharge on the 10th June, to avoid removal; she was admitted again on the 25th September, and steps were taken to pass her to Ireland, but she again discharged herself on the 30th September to avoid removal to Ireland; she was again admitted on the 31st October; she remained in the house until the 7th November, and she was removed to Ireland at her own request.

The Relieving Officer stated that option is given in every Irish case either to leave the workhouse or go to Ireland; that Mary Welch stated on oath she was born at Patrick's Well, Limerick, that she left there nine years ago, and that her husband had deserted her thirteen weeks; she had not heard from him since, nor did she know where he is; that a copy of the order for her removal to Ireland was given to her, and another copy was posted to the Guardians of the poor of the Limerick Union on the same day, viz., 7th November, 1865.

The Clerk informed the Board that he forwarded to Mr. Frost, of 46, High-street, Wapping, the Agent for the removal of Irish paupers, a copy of that part of the letter sent to the Poor Law Board by the Guardians of the Limerick Union as relates to the removal of Mary Barry or Welch, with a request that he will oblige the Board with a full report of the circumstances attending the removal to Limerick, but he had not received any reply at present.

The Board directed the Clerk to acknowledge the receipt of the Poor Law Board's communication in reference to the case of Mary Barry now read, and inform them that the same was under investigation.

March 1, 1866.

The Clerk reported that he had seen Mr. Frost, and he made the following statement in reference to the case of Mary Barry, or Welch, referred to in the Poor Law Board's communication on the 15th ult. :—

RE MARY WELCH OR BARRY.

February 27, 1866.

Mr. FROST stated—I always see the warrant given to the pauper by the officer who brings them to me, and in most cases the paupers ask me to keep the warrant until they embark. I have always received a good character of Peter Reynolds for steadiness and sobriety. I employed him to remove Welch and family to Limerick. The order was given to the pauper.

PETER REYNOLDS, Conductor to Mr. FROST, the Agent for executing Irish Orders of Removal, states—

I cannot remember the pauper named Welch or Barry. I removed her to Limerick, no doubt, on the day named, with three other families, under the orders of Mr. Frost. I had no occasion to go to Killarney between the 12th and 28th of November, and did not go, I am certain. Very often, when warrants are given to the paupers, they have torn them up on the voyage. I never handed her over to another person to take her to Limerick, because I always do the work myself of taking the poor to their destination. I keep no account of my journeys to and from Ireland.

The Clerk was directed to forward the result of the Board's inquiries into the case of Mary Barry or Welch, on the 15th ult., and the statements made by Mr. Frost and his agent, now read, to the Poor Law Board.

Extracted from the minutes of the Board.

E. SPOONER, Clerk.

8,835 C/1866. Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
Sir, March 13, 1866.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 5th instant, forwarding extracts from the minutes of the Governors and Directors of the poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, in explanation of the proceedings connected with the removal from those parishes to Ireland of the pauper named Mary Barry.

I am directed to inquire what steps the governors and directors took to ascertain whether the pauper's husband had or had not deserted her as alleged, and whether they were supplied with any other information as to the case than that which appears in the extracts from the minutes.

The Board wish to be furnished with a copy of the directions given by the Governors and Directors in pursuance of which the order of Justices was obtained for the removal of the pauper to Ireland.

They also wish for an explanation of the statement of the Relieving Officer, that "option is given in every Irish case either to leave the workhouse or to go to Ireland." They desire to be informed whether this option is given by the Relieving Officer himself or by the Master of the Workhouse, or by the Governors and Directors? If given by the Relieving Officer, or the Master of the Workhouse, the Board wish to learn whether this is by direction of the Governors and Directors?

The Board request to be furnished with a prompt answer to these inquiries.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

(Signed), H. Fleming, Secretary.

Clerk to the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, S.W.

Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, London, S.W.,
Sir, March 16, 1866.

I am directed by the Board of Governors and Directors of the Poor of these parishes to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th instant, No. 8,835 C/1866, and to state that through the unavoidable absence from illness of the Relieving Officer, the inquiries requested to be made by the Poor Law Board cannot be proceeded with at present.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

(Signed), E. Spooner, Clerk.

H. Fleming, Esq., Secretary,
Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.

9,735/1866. Poor Law Board, Whitehall, S.W.,
Sir, March 22, 1866.

I am directed by the Poor Law Board to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 16th instant, in which you state that the inquiries of the Governors and Directors of the poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, into the case of the pauper Mary Barry, cannot be proceeded with in consequence of the unavoidable absence of the Relieving Officer concerned in the case.

The Board request the Governors and Directors again to refer to the Board's letter of the 13th instant, as the inquiries therein contained relate to their own proceedings and not to those of the Relieving Officer.

I am, sir, your obedient servant,

E. Spooner, Esq.,
Clerk to the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parishes of St. Margaret and St. John, Westminster, Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, S.W.

Workhouse, Petty France, York-street, London, S.W.,
MY LORD, March 29, 1866.

I am directed by the Board of Governors and Directors of the poor of these parishes to acknowledge the receipt of your lordship's letter dated the 23rd instant, No. 9,735 C, and to state in reply to inquiry respecting the case of Mary Barry, as to what steps the Governors and Directors took to ascertain whether the pauper's husband had or had not deserted her; that it was upon the statement of the pauper herself that her husband had deserted her in April last in Rye-street; that she had not heard from him since that time, neither could she give any information about him; that the order of the Board was written by the Chairman in the relief list when she appeared before the Board in September last, for her to be "passed to Ireland," which order she was informed of by the Chairman.

With regard to the statement of the Relieving Officer that option is given in every Irish case either to leave or go to Ireland, I am to explain that it is the practice of the Board, when paupers are reported as belonging to Ireland and removable thereto, never to send them if they object to be passed; and that the Relieving Officer and the Master are empowered by the Governors to stay the execution of a Justice's order whenever objections are raised by the poor, but in the case of Barry it appears she was in favour of being sent to Ireland, and she was sent accordingly.

I have the honour to be, my lord, your obedient servant,

Viscount Enfield, M.P., Secretary,
Poor Law Board.

No. 8.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the BOARD of GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
SIR, April 17, 1866.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 13th inst., forwarding correspondence relative to the case of Mary Barry, removed from Westminster, with her children, in the month of November last.

The Commissioners think it would have been better if the Board of Guardians had applied to the Commissioners for a preliminary inquiry under the 7th section of the Act for the further amendment of the Law relating to the removal of Irish poor from England (26 & 27 Vic., cap. 89). It could then have been ascertained with certainty how far the present statements are correct, and more especially whether any desertion of this woman by her husband actually took place, as seems very unlikely from the terms of the letter which he addressed to her while in Limerick Workhouse.

Had it appeared that there was no such desertion as alleged, an appeal might have been successfully maintained against the order, as in that case the woman and her children were not removable to Ireland without the husband.

As, however, they have now ceased to be chargeable, and the time for the hearing of the appeal is limited to six months from the time of removal, it would not now appear to be desirable to proceed under the section above mentioned.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk, Limerick Union.

Case of Catherine Nevin and Children, removed from London to Loughrea.

No. 1.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union, dated 15th October, 1864.

A warrant for the removal of a woman named Catherine Nevin and her three children from the Strand Union, received by the Clerk on the 13th instant, was laid before the Board. The parties have not as yet arrived at the workhouse.

(Copy of warrant is herewith forwarded.)

No. 2.—Copy of Warrant referred to in foregoing Minute.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Strand Union, County of Middlesex.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Loughrea Union, in the County of Galway, in Ireland.

Metropolitan Police District, to wit.

Whereas complaint is now made by the Guardians of the poor of the Strand Union, in the said district, and county of Middlesex, unto me, the undersigned, one of the Magistrates of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, sitting at the Police Court at Bow-street, within the Metropolitan Police District, and county of Middlesex, that Catherine Nevin hath become and is now chargeable to the parish of St. Paul, Covent Garden, in the said union.

And whereas the said Catherine Nevin having been brought before me, and application having been made to me at the Police Court aforesaid by the officer of the said Guardians on their behalf, I have made due examination on oath, and find that the said Catherine Nevin is of the reputed age of twenty-nine years, and was born in Ireland, and last resided for the space of three years in the parish of Craughwell, in the county of Galway, now contained in the said Union of Loughrea; she hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said Strand Union; and that she hath three children, named John, Mary Anne, and Eliza, of the reputed ages of nine years, seven years, and ten months, which children are not exempt from removal from the said union.

And I have seen the said Catherine Nevin and her said children, and I am satisfied that the said Catherine Nevin and her said children are in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are therefore to require you, the Guardians of the poor of the Strand Union, to cause the said Catherine Nevin, with her family, to be safely conveyed to the said Union of Loughrea, and to be delivered at the workhouse of such union.

Given under my hand and seal at the Police Court aforesaid, the twelfth day of October, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-four.

No. 3.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the BOARD of GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
SIR, 25th October, 1864.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of a copy of the warrant received for the removal of Catherine Nevin and her children from the Strand Union to Loughrea, and request that they may be furnished with the particulars specified in their circular letter of the 21st June last, on the arrival of the parties at Loughrea.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Loughrea Union.

No. 4.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of LOUGHREA UNION, dated 29th October, 1864.

Read letter from the Poor Law Commissioners, No. 19,740, dated 25th October, 1864, requesting that they may be furnished with the replies to the inquiries in the circular of the 21st June last, upon the arrival of the woman Catherine Nevin and her children, who have been deported from the Strand Union.

The Clerk stated that the parties in question have not as yet been delivered at the workhouse.

No. 5.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of LOUGHREA UNION, dated Saturday, 26th August, 1865.

The Clerk laid before the Board a warrant received by him on the 4th instant, for the removal of a woman named Catherine Nevin and her children from the St. George, Hanover-square Union, and stated that the parties have not arrived at the workhouse as yet; also a letter received by that morning's post from Mr. Frost, the "deporting agent."

Copies of those documents are forwarded herewith.

The Master was directed to reply to Mr. Frost's letter.

No. 6.—Copy of Documents referred to in the foregoing Minute.

To the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the Parish of St. George, Hanover-square, in the Metropolitan Police District, and the County of Middlesex;

And to the Guardians of the Poor of the Loughrea Union, in the County of Galway, in Ireland.

Metropolitan Police District, to wit.

Whereas complaint is now made by the Governors and Directors of the Poor of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, in the said district, and county of Middlesex, unto me, Robert Philip Tyrwhitt, esq., one of the Magistrates of the Police Courts of the Metropolis, sitting at the Police Court at Marlborough-street, within the Metropolitan Police District, and county of Middlesex, that Catherine Nevin hath become and is now chargeable to the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square aforesaid. And whereas the said Catherine Nevin having been brought before me, and application having been made to me by the Removing Officer of the said Governors and Directors on their behalf, I have made due examination on oath, and find that the said Catherine Nevin is of the reputed age of thirty-three years, and was born in Ireland (and last resided for the space of three years), in the parish of Craughwell, in the county of Galway, now contained in the said Union of Loughrea, and hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square; and that she hath three children, named John, Mary, and Eliza, of the reputed ages of ten years, eight years, and eighteen months, which children are not exempt from removal from the said parish of Saint George, Hanover-square.

And I have seen the said Catherine Nevin and children, and am satisfied that the said Catherine Nevin and children are in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are therefore to require you, the Governors and Directors of the poor of the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square aforesaid, to cause the said Catherine Nevin, with her family, to be safely conveyed to the said Union of Loughrea, and to be delivered at the workhouse of such union.

Given under my hand and seal at the Police Court aforesaid, this second day of August, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five.

R. P. Tyrwhitt, L.S.

London, 46, High-street, Wapping,
August 24, 1865.

Dear Sir,

I am sorry to trouble you. If you will have the kindness to give me any information you can it will oblige. I sent a woman and three children, the name of Nevin, by my conductor. I suppose you have a copy of the order of removal. I hope he brought them safe. I have not heard from him since the 9th instant, from Dublin, stating the trouble he had. I am very anxious about him; also, I am obliged to make a return to the Board of Guardians respecting them. Your answer will oblige

Yours, respectfully,

JOHN FROST.

To the Master of the Loughrea Union.

No. 7.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the BOARD of GUARDIANS.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
SIR, 1st September, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have had before them minutes of proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union on the 26th ultimo, from which it appears that a warrant for the removal of a woman named Catherine Nevin and her children from the Union of St. George, Hanover-square, London, to the workhouse of the Loughrea Union has been received by the Guardians, but that the parties have not arrived, and that a communication has been received from Mr. J. Frost on the subject, inquiring as to the delivery of the woman and her children at the workhouse. In reference thereto the Commissioners request that they may be informed of the further information which may be received by the Guardians in this case.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Loughrea Union.

No. 8.—EXTRACT from MINUTES of PROCEEDINGS of the BOARD of GUARDIANS of LOUGHREA UNION, dated 2nd September, 1865.

Read letter from the Poor Law Commissioners, dated 1st September, 1865, requesting to know whether any information has been received of the woman Catherine Nevin and her children, who have been deported from the Union of Saint George, Hanover-square, London, as referred to in minutes of the 26th ult.

Ordered,—That the Commissioners be informed, in reply to their letter, that the parties in question have not as yet arrived at the workhouse, nor has any account been received of them since last meeting.

No. 9.—OBSERVATIONS of Mr. ROBINSON, Poor Law Inspector, in charge of the DUBLIN DISTRICT.

I find that a party came to Dublin in the Duke of Cornwall steamer, which left London on the 5th ultimo and arrived on the 9th, tickets being taken for all in the name of Frost, and the tickets being—one return and two single tickets: this probably was the party, the two single tickets being sufficient for Catherine Nevin and her three children.

From information obtained from John Kelly, one of Mr. Frost's agents in Dublin, it would appear that George Legton was the name of the conductor who came with Catherine Nevin.

I find, also, that a man who came from London in charge of paupers went before Mr. Stronge, Chief Magistrate, at the Police Court, early last month, and stated that a woman he was removing wished, or was willing to remain in Dublin, and he asked whether he might leave her; Mr. Stronge refused to give him any such authority, and stated to him that if he left the woman he would render himself liable to a prosecution. Mr. Stronge says that to the best of his recollection Mr. Tyrwhitt was the magistrate who signed the removal order, and that Loughrea was the place to which the pauper was ordered to be removed.

John Kelly had a letter from Mr. Frost saying he had not heard of the party since the 10th ultimo. He expressed some anxiety about them, and stated that his conductor had been before the Mayor, meaning probably the Chief Magistrate.

It appears from Mr. Frost's letter to the Master of Loughrea Workhouse, that he heard from his conductor from Dublin on the 9th ultimo, and I have very little doubt that the party arriving on that day by the Duke of Cornwall consisted of Catherine Nevin and her children, and that the person sent with them was the man who went before Mr. Stronge.

I have not been able to trace them further.

No. 10.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, September 8, 1865.

Adverting to the minute of the Board of Guardians of the Loughrea Union of the 2nd instant, in reply to their inquiry relating to the case of Catherine Nevin and her children, removed under warrant from the Union of St. George, Hanover-square, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland request that you will inform them whether anything further has been heard of the family in question.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of Loughrea Union.

No. 11.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union, dated September 9, 1865.

Letter from the Commissioners, dated 8th September, 1865, requesting to be informed whether any further information has been received of the woman Catherine Nevin and her children, who have been deported from the Union of St. George, Hanover-square.

The Clerk stated that nothing further has been heard of the parties in question since last meeting.

No. 12.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Clerks of the several Unions in the Counties of Dublin, Kildare, and Wicklow.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, September 14, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state that it appears from a report of the Clerk of the Loughrea Union, contained in the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Guardians of the 26th ult., that a warrant had been received by him on the 4th ultimo for the removal of Catherine Nevin and her three children from the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, London, to that Union, but that the parties had not arrived at the Workhouse.

The Clerk at the same time reported that he had received a letter from Mr. John Frost, Removing Agent, London, dated the 24th ultimo, stating that he had sent the party by his conductor, and inquiring as to their delivery at the Workhouse.

From information which the Commissioners have received, it seems probable that the party arrived in Dublin by steamer on the 9th ultimo, in charge of a man named George Legton; but as they had not been delivered at Loughrea Workhouse on the 9th instant, and nothing further had been heard of them by the Guardians of that union up to that date, the Commissioners request that you will be so good as to inform them whether the woman in question and her three children have become chargeable in the Workhouse of ——— Union?

The age of Catherine Nevin is stated in the warrant of removal to be 33 years, and her children, John, Mary, and Eliza, are described as of the ages of ten years, and eight years, and eighteen months respectively.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of (Athy, Balrothery, Baltinglass, Celbridge, Dublin North, Dublin South, Naas, Rathdown, Rathdrum, Shillelagh) Union.

No. 13.—Letter from the Clerk of North Dublin Union to the Commissioners.

North Dublin Union,
September 15, 1865.

Gentlemen,

In reply to your letter of the 14th inst., No. 16,806/'65, I beg to inform you that Catherine Nevin and children have not become chargeable to the North Dublin Union.

I send you a statement made by Relieving Officer Hammond of this union, which proves that Catherine Nevin and children arrived in Dublin on the 9th ultimo.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

John A. Crean, Assistant Clerk,
North Dublin Union.

The Poor Law Commissioners,
Custom House.

Statement of Mr. Hammond, Relieving Officer, North Dublin Union, enclosed in foregoing.

A Removing Officer, who gave his name as William Smith, brought on the 9th August last a woman named Catherine Nevin and three children. He showed a warrant of removal from St. George's-in-the-East, London, for Loughrea Union. He wanted to deliver them at this Workhouse, but Mr. Hammond, Relieving Officer, refused to take them. He then offered to give money to the woman to take herself and her children to Loughrea, if Mr. Hammond would sign the warrant, which Mr. Hammond also refused to do. They then went away.

No. 14.—Extract from Minutes of Proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union, dated September 30, 1865.

The Clerk laid before the Board a warrant received by him on yesterday, for the removal of a Catherine Nevin and her children from the Union of Ecclesall Bierlow, Sheffield, and stated that the parties have not as yet arrived at the Workhouse.

A copy of the warrant is herewith enclosed, as also replies to the queries in Commissioners' circular; as this woman and her children were delivered at the Workhouse on Saturday evening.

No. 15.—Copy of Warrant referred to in the foregoing Minute.

To the Guardians of the Poor of the Ecclesall Bierlow Union, in the Borough of Sheffield, in the West Riding of the County of York, and to the Guardians of the Poor of the Loughrea Union, in the County of Galway, in Ireland.

Borough of Sheffield, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, to wit.

At a Petty Sessions of Her Majesty's Justices in and for the said borough, holden at the Townhall, in Sheffield, in and for the said borough, on the 25th day of September, in the year of Our Lord One thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, before us, the undersigned, Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said borough.

Whereas complaint is now made by the Guardians of the Poor of the Ecclesall Bierlow Union, in the said borough, that Catherine Nevin hath become, and is now chargeable to the common fund of the said union.

And whereas the said Catherine Nevin having been brought before us, and application having been made to us in Petty Session assembled, by Jonathan Dearden, the Relieving Officer of the said Guardians, on their behalf we have made the examination on oath, and find that the said Catherine Nevin is of the reputed age of thirty years, and was born in Ireland, in the parish of Craughwell, in the county of Galway, now contained in the said Union of Loughrea, and hath not a settlement in England, and is not otherwise exempt from removal from the said Ecclesall Bierlow Union, and that she hath three children, namely, John, aged ten years, Mary, aged eight years, and Eliza, aged one year and six months, which children are not exempt from removal from the said union. And we have seen the said Catherine Nevin and her said children, and are satisfied that they are respectively in such a state of health as not to be liable to suffer bodily or mental injury by the removal.

These are therefore to command you, the Guardians of the Poor of the Ecclesall Bierlow Union, to cause the said Catherine Nevin and her said children to be safely conveyed to the said Union of Loughrea, and to be delivered at the Workhouse of such Union.

Given under our hands and seals at the Sessions aforesaid.

Thomas Jessop.
Jno. W. Hawksworth.

Where was the pauper residing in England or Scotland when she became chargeable? (Give the name of the union, and also of the parish or township if possible)?—Coalpit-lane, Sheffield, Ecclesall Bierlow Union.

How long had she resided there?—Seven years, except one month within the last three years she spent in London.

If the pauper is a widow, when did her husband die?—Is not married nor a widow.

This woman declined to remain in the workhouse, and left with her children the same evening. She stated that she is not the person mentioned in the warrant of removal received from the Strand Union, in October, 1864, nor in that received last August from the Union of St. George, Hanover-square.

No. 17.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 4, 1865.

Sir,

Adverting to the previous correspondence on the subject of removals to Ireland, from the metropolitan unions and parishes in England, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to state, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that it appears from a report of the Clerk of the Loughrea Union, contained in the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Guardians of the 26th August last, that a warrant was received by him on the 4th of that month for the removal of Catherine Nevin, and her three children from the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, London, to Loughrea Union, but that the parties had not, at the date of his report, arrived at the workhouse.

The clerk, at the same time, reported that he had received a letter from Mr. John Frost, Removing Agent, London, dated the 24th August, stating that he had sent the party by his conductor, and inquiring as to their delivery at the workhouse.

Copies of these documents are enclosed herewith.

From information which the Commissioners received from their Inspector, Mr. Robinson, it seemed probable that Catherine Nevin and her children arrived in Dublin by steamer on the 9th August; but as they had not been delivered at the Loughrea Workhouse on the 9th September, and nothing further had been heard of them by the Guardians of that union, the Commissioners addressed a letter to the clerks of the unions in the counties of Dublin, Wicklow, and Kildare, inquiring whether the woman and her children had become chargeable in any of the workhouses of those unions, but it was found that this was not the case.

It further appeared by a communication received from the Clerk of the North Dublin Union (a copy of which is enclosed), that the parties were brought on the 9th August to Dublin, by a man named William Smith, who, producing a warrant for their removal to Loughrea Workhouse, endeavoured at the same time to procure their admission into the Workhouse of the North Dublin Union; that the Relieving Officer refused to receive them; whereupon W. Smith offered to give money to the woman to take herself and her children to Loughrea, if the Relieving Officer would sign the warrant, which the latter declined to do, and that the parties then went away.

By a letter received (yesterday) from the Clerk of Loughrea Union, it appears that the woman and her children had, after abandonment in Dublin by the servant of Mr. Frost, found their way to the Union of Ecclesall Bierlow, near Sheffield, in Yorkshire, and had there become chargeable: whereupon the Guardians of that union removed her in a legal and proper manner, by the agency of one of their own officers, to Loughrea Union, in which she was born.

The present case is reported as showing that the hardship frequently inflicted on unions in Ireland, by the improper conduct of removals through the irresponsible agency of Mr. Frost, is not limited to Irish unions, but falls occasionally on English unions, as in the case of Ecclesall Bierlow Union, which has been put to considerable expense in removing to Loughrea in Ireland, a family which ought to have been delivered at Loughrea Union in the first instance by her conductor, instead of being abandoned by him in Dublin, and probably furnished by him with money which enabled her to pass to, and become chargeable in a union which ought not to have been burdened with her support and subsequent removal back to Ireland.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 18.—Letter from the Commissioners to Mr. Bourke, Poor Law Inspector.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 6, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, transmit to you the accompanying warrant for the removal of Catherine Nevin and her three children from the Union of Ecclesall Bierlow, to the Loughrea Union, which, together with the replies to the usual queries (also herewith enclosed), has been forwarded to the Commissioners by the Clerk of the Loughrea Union; and the Commissioners request that you will have the goodness, if the opportunity should occur, to question this woman on oath as to her being the same person to whom the two former warrants alluded to relate, and as to the particulars of her abandonment by Mr. Frost's servant, William Smith, and her subsequently falling chargeable in the Union of Ecclesall Bierlow. The other papers relating to the case are referred to you in ordinary course.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To R. Bourke, esq.,
Poor Law Inspector, Parsonstown.

No. 19.—Report from Mr. Bourke to the Commissioners.

Gentlemen, Loughrea, October 14, 1865.

In pursuance of the directions in your letter of the 6th instant, I have examined Catherine Nevin and obtained particulars on oath of her several removals from England, and her abandonment in Dublin by Mr. Frost's conductor; and I annex the depositions, and return the papers which accompanied your letter.

Catherine Nevin seems an industrious woman, strongly attached to her children, whom she is bringing up as well as her means admit. The eldest boy, though only eleven years of age, has been offered employment in Sheffield as an assistant in a school at 3*s.* 6*d.* a week. She does not appear to have been often, or for any long periods in receipt of parish relief during the seventeen years she has resided in England; and is anxious to provide for her own support and that of her children, which she could do whenever she could find employment at her business as a laundress. The father of her children is a discharged soldier, and went to America about two or three years ago. She expects to hear from him and to join him there, and is anxious to maintain her connexion with his friends in Sheffield, lest his communications should not reach her.

I have the honour to be, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

R. Bourke.

The Poor Law Commissioners.

Deposition of Catherine Nevin (enclosed in foregoing Report).

Catherine Nevin sworn.—I am a native of Craughwell, in the Union of Loughrea, and left it with my brother and sister about seventeen years since, to go to England. We went to Sheffield, where we found work. It was there that I became acquainted with John Ashton by whom I have three children. He is now in America. When first he left me I followed him to London, and having met with him there we returned to Sheffield; but he having again deserted me, I went up after him to London, and not being able to find him I became destitute, and applied for relief to the Relieving Officer. I was admitted to the Strand Union Workhouse. I took my discharge, and obtained from the parish a sum of ten shillings to help me back to Sheffield; but I remained in London, and having again to seek relief, I was passed over to Ireland in October of last year (1864). I was sent in charge of an officer (whose name I cannot recollect) from London to Liverpool, and so to Dublin.

I was not sent to Mr. Frost's on this occasion. I was taken by Mr. Gough (Removing Officer, as I believe, of the Strand Union), to the magistrate, and when the warrant was made out Mr. Gough gave me in charge to the man who accompanied me over. Upon my arrival in Dublin, with my three children, the officer placed us in a lodging and gave me a sum of £2 to defray our expenses to Loughrea Union. We remained about a week in Dublin, and I then returned with my children to Sheffield. I remained there during the winter, and received relief for some time in the Ecclesall Bierlow Union House, and in the spring went again to London, where the mother of Ashton, by whom I had these three children, was living. But she had left it, and after some time I had to apply for relief to the parish officers; and having been admitted for about a fortnight to the Workhouse of St. George's, Hanover-square, I was brought before the Police Magistrate, and passed to Ireland. I was taken, with my children, in the first instance, to Mr. Frost's house, where we remained for two days waiting for the boat, and at the expiration of that time I was given in charge of a man like a boatman, who brought me to the steamer and accompanied us to Dublin. I do not know the man's name, but I heard him called George. We were provided by Mr. Frost with some tea and sugar, and plenty of bread and cheese. Having suffered much from sickness on the voyage, I wished to stop in Dublin and make a cup of tea from what I had with me before going to the railway on our way to Loughrea, but the officer refused to wait and took us in a cab to the Broadstone Terminus. When we reached it I refused to go before I had some tea, being very weak and ill from the effects of the voyage. But though there was time enough to have made the tea before the train started, the officer would not allow it, but brought us along on foot through the town to the Police Court, and applied to the Magistrate to sign the paper, saying he would give us money to proceed to Loughrea. The Magistrate refused to do this, and the officer then took us to a house kept by a woman named Clayton, near the Drogheda Railway station, and inquired the price of lodgings. The woman stated it would be 1*s.* 6*d.* a night for us, and 1*s.* for him. He paid her 1*s.* 6*d.* on our account and left us, and I have never seen him since. He left us no money, but said he would be back again next morning to take us to Loughrea, but he never came. On our way from the Police Court to Mrs. Clayton's the officer took me to the City Workhouse, where he wanted the Relieving Officer to sign the paper, but he would not do so.

I stopped a week at Mrs. Clayton's, and got work in washing and one thing or other until I earned money enough to take us all back to Liverpool, where we stopped a little, and I earned what took us to Manchester, and so on to Sheffield. After supporting myself and children there for a few weeks, I got ill and applied for relief, and was admitted to the Workhouse, where I was kept for about three weeks, and then passed on to Loughrea in charge of Jonathan Daden, an officer of the union. I came by Liverpool and Dublin, and so on here. I was without shoes, and the children also; and they had very bad clothing and no linen.

Catherine Nevin.

Sworn before me at Loughrea, this 14th day of October, 1865.

Richard Bourke, Poor Law Inspector.

No. 20.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 18, 1865.

Sir,

Adverting to their letter of the 4th inst., the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to forward herewith for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant a copy of a report from their Inspector, Mr. Bourke, transmitting the depositions of the woman Catherine Nevin, who, with her three children, was recently removed from the Ecclesall Bierlow Union to Loughrea.

It appears from the depositions that Catherine Nevin has, with her children, been three times removed from England to Ireland within twelve months, having been left in Dublin by the persons employed to convey her to Loughrea Union on two of those occasions, instead of being taken to Loughrea by them and delivered at the Workhouse there.

On the first of these two occasions she was left in Dublin with funds to enable her to proceed to Loughrea, but which she used to effect her return to England, while on the last of these occasions she was abandoned without any funds to assist her by the Removing Officer.

There seems to be reason to suppose also that the person by whom she was last abandoned was the "George Legon," employed by Mr. Frost, whose misconduct has been reported in reference to other cases of removal, the particulars of which the Commissioners have found it necessary to communicate for His Excellency's information.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 21.—Letter from the Commissioners to Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, Solicitors.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 30, 1865.

Gentlemen,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith a file of papers relating to the removal of Catherine Nevin and her three children from England, from which you will perceive that Catherine Nevin has been removed from England under warrant on three several occasions, and that on two of those occasions she was deserted by the Removing Officer in Dublin instead of being taken to Loughrea Workhouse, as directed by the order of removal. On the first occasion (in October, 1864), the removal appears to have been intrusted to an officer of the Strand Union, the Guardians of that union having applied for and obtained the warrant, and the officer appears to have conveyed her to Dublin and left her there, having, however, furnished her with ample means to proceed to Loughrea, which, however, she did not do, but returned to London.

On the second occasion the warrant was obtained by the Governors and Directors of the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, in the month of August last, and intrusted to Mr. John Frost, of Wapping, for execution, by whom it was in turn intrusted to a conductor employed by him in such cases; and from the information obtained by Mr. Robinson, Poor Law Inspector, there appears no reason to doubt that this person was George Legon, against whom you instituted proceedings under the Irish Poor Removal Acts in September, 1864, for desertion of a pauper under removal in the city of Cork. Legon appears to have brought the woman and her children to a lodging-house in Dublin, and there deserted them without making any provision whatever for their journey to Loughrea, or for their support in Dublin, and the woman having again made her way back to England, became chargeable in the Ecclesall Bierlow Union, and was removed under a warrant obtained by the Guardians of that Union, and duly conveyed to Loughrea.

The Commissioners think that the circumstances of the desertion of Catherine Nevin by George Legon are such as to render it desirable that proceedings should be taken against him under the 4th sec. of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, for the desertion of the woman and her children; and the Commissioners request that you will be so good as to institute proceedings accordingly in such manner as you may deem most advisable.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 22.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, October 30, 1865.

Adverting to the Commissioners' letter of the 18th inst., relative to the case of Catherine Nevin and her three children, who have recently been removed from Ecclesall Bierlow Union to Loughrea, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to acquaint you, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that, considering all the circumstances of the case, it appearing that on two previous occasions the parties had been removed from Metropolitan Unions, and on both occasions deserted in Dublin by the parties intrusted with the execution of the warrant, they have thought it right to place the matter in the hands of their solicitors, Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, with a view to a prosecution under the 4th sec. of the Act 26 and 27 Vic., cap. 89, against Mr. Frost's conductor, by whom the parties were deserted in August last.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 23.—Letter from Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to the Commissioners.

Offices, 18, Talbot-street,
Sir, November 18, 1865.

Referring to your letter as above, instructing us to institute proceedings under the 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, sec. 4, against George Legon, who is the person supposed to have been intrusted with the execution of a warrant obtained by the Governors of the Union of St. George, Hanover-square, London, for delivery at the above union of Mary Nevin and her children, but who would seem to have deserted them in Dublin, without even giving them the means of proceeding to Loughrea.

We beg to say that we have given the matter full consideration, and find it to be a case of flagrant breach of the 4th section of the Act above mentioned, and one that should be prosecuted, if the evidence necessary to sustain it can be procured.

There are two modes of proceeding: the first, to have proper informations taken here, and a warrant issued for the apprehension of the accused, under which (it being properly backed) he could be arrested in London and brought over to be dealt with here; the other course would be to have the pauper sent to London, where the informations could be made, and the accused brought to justice.

But to sustain such proceedings in either place, George Legon must be clearly identified as the person who deserted Catherine Nevin. This she cannot do, as she says in her deposition: "I do not know the man's name; but I have heard him called George." Therefore, unless this deficiency in the evidence can be supplied by John Kelly (referred to in Mr. Robinson's report as one of Mr. Frost's agents in Dublin), or some other person, the proceeding cannot be successfully sustained here. Furthermore, in proceeding here it would be necessary to give some legal proof of the warrant under which the pauper was removed; and this presents a difficulty which in the Cork case was only got over by giving in evidence a statement made by George Legon before the magistrate, in which he admitted having had the warrant.

Under these circumstances (unless a person to prove the warrant could be induced to come from the London Police Court), we are disposed to think that the proceedings can be best taken in London (where we assume George Legon is to be had), as the evidence of issuing of the warrant could be there procured, and some opportunity afforded to Catherine Nevin, who should be sent over for this purpose, of identifying the man in question as the conductor who deserted her and her children.

We have written to Mr. Robinson, P.L.I., to know the address in Dublin of John Kelly, and shall await the further instructions of the Commissioners in the matter.

We are, sir, your very obedient servants,

GEALE AND DWYER.

No. 24.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to Messrs. GEALE and DWYER.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
November 23, 1865.

GENTLEMEN,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 18th instant, on the subject of the proceedings which they are desirous should be instituted against George Legon, the person supposed to have been intrusted with the execution of a warrant for the removal of a woman named Catherine Nevin, with her children, from the parish of St. George, Hanover-square, to Loughrea Union.

In reply, the Commissioners have to state that they think it desirable on many grounds that the man who deserted Catherine Nevin and her children should be brought over to this country by warrant, if that course is found to be practicable.

Mr. Robinson informs the Commissioners that he has supplied the address of John Kelly, who may be able to identify George Legon as the person to whom the warrant of removal was intrusted.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. BANKS, Chief Clerk.

No. 25.—LETTER from the COMMISSIONERS to the CLERK of LOUGHREA UNION.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
November 23, 1865.

SIR,

Adverting to the minutes of proceedings of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union on the 26th August and 30th September last, respecting the case of Catherine Nevin and her children, for whose removal from the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, to Loughrea Union, a warrant was issued, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland request that you will have the goodness to inform them whether the woman with her children is still at Loughrea, either in the workhouse or town, or in the neighbourhood.

The Commissioners would be glad to receive information on this point without delay.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To Patrick Egar, esq., Clerk of Loughrea Union, Loughrea.

No. 26.—Letter from the Clerk of Loughrea Union to the Commissioners.

Board Room,

Gentlemen, November 24, 1865.

I beg leave to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 23rd inst. (No. 20,957/'65), requesting information of the woman Catherine Nevin, who with her three children was removed under warrant from the Union of Ecclesall Bierlow on the 30th September last.

In reply I have the honour to inform you that this woman and her children were admitted to this union workhouse on the 21st ult., where they remained until Sunday, the 5th November instant, on which day she claimed her discharge, and, accompanied by the three children, left for the purpose of returning back to England. I have been informed that on the day in question those parties travelled by car from Loughrea to the railway station at Athenry, where they remained until the following morning, when they left by the excursion train for Dublin. I may add that Catherine Nevin stated, before leaving the workhouse, her intention was to return to Ecclesall Bierlow, but not to apply for relief there until she would have acquired a settlement in the union.

Patrick Egan, Clerk of Union.

Dublin Castle,

Gentlemen, December 1, 1865.

Referring to your letter of the 30th October last, relative to the removal of Catherine Nevin and her three children from the Ecclesall Bierlow Union to Loughrea, I am directed by the Lord Lieutenant to state that a letter has been received from the Secretary of State for the Home Department, desiring to learn the result of the instructions issued by you to your solicitors for the prosecution of Mr. Frost's conductor, by whom the above-named paupers were deserted.

I am therefore to request that you will be so good as to furnish the information required.

I am, gentlemen, your obedient servant,

Thomas Larcom.

The Poor Law Commissioners, &c.

No. 28.—Letter from the Commissioners to Messrs. Geale and Dwyer.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 4, 1865.

Gentlemen,

With reference to their letter of the 23rd ultimo, and to previous correspondence relating to the case of Catherine Nevin and her three children, who were removed from the parish of Saint George, Hanover-square, London, and deserted in Dublin by the person intrusted with the execution of the warrant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland request that you will be so good as to inform them what progress has been made in reference to the proposed prosecution.

The Commissioners understand that the woman left Loughrea workhouse with her three children on the 5th ult., and is now supposed to be at Ecclesall Bierlow, from whence she was last removed; but the Commissioners presume that this circumstance will not oppose any serious obstruction to the proceeding, and they trust that no unnecessary delay will take place, the intention to prosecute in this case having some time since been communicated to Her Majesty's Government.

By order of the Commissioners,

Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, Solicitors, Talbot-street.

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 29.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 4, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 1st inst., requesting by direction of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, to be furnished with information as to the result of the instructions given by the Commissioners to their solicitors to prosecute Mr. Frost's conductor, for the desertion of Catherine Nevin and her children in Dublin; the warrant, with the execution of which he was intrusted, requiring that they should be left at Loughrea.

In reply the Commissioners desire to state that, having on the 17th ult. called Messrs. Geale and Dwyer's attention to the subject of the instructions given to them on the 30th October last, they received a letter from them in reply, setting forth the difficulties which they considered to exist in the way of obtaining a conviction. A copy of this letter, together with a copy of the Commissioners' reply, is enclosed, from which it will be seen that the Commissioners have instructed Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to proceed, notwithstanding these difficulties, to obtain a warrant under which Mr. Frost's conductor may be brought over to this country to be dealt with by the proper tribunal in Ireland.

The Commissioners desire to add that they have learned from the Clerk of Loughrea Union, that the woman and her children left the union on the 5th ult., with the intention of returning to England, but Messrs. Geale and Dwyer have been again requested to proceed in the prosecution notwithstanding this circumstance.

By order of the Commissioners,

Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 4th inst., inquiring what progress had been made in reference to the prosecution for desertion of Catherine Nevin and her three children, by the conductor intrusted with the execution of the warrant for their removal from London to Loughrea, in the month of August last, we beg to say that some little delay has of necessity taken place, until we could ascertain where the woman Catherine Nevin is to be found, as her evidence is necessary to sustain the prosecution. After she had been deserted in Dublin in August last, she returned almost immediately to Sheffield, from whence she was removed again to Loughrea in September, where she continued till early in November last, having then left, intimating her intention to get back to Sheffield. Under these circumstances we are making all requisite inquiries, and are in communication with our English correspondent on the subject. Should she be found (as there is no doubt she will) we shall report further on the subject.

We are, sir, your obedient servants,

Sir,

Referring to previous correspondence in this matter, we beg to state for the information of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, that our correspondent at Sheffield informs us by letter received this morning, that the woman Catherine Nevin and her three children are at present inmates of the Sheffield Workhouse.

This being so, we consider that it would under all the circumstances be more advisable that the proceedings should be taken in London, as we cannot obtain sufficient evidence here to identify George Legon as the person who deserted the pauper, or to prove the warrant of removal.

We are, sir, your obedient servants,

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
GENTLEMEN, December 15, 1865.

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 15th inst., relating to the case of Catherine Nevin and her three children, who it appears are now inmates of the Workhouse of the Sheffield Union, and recommending that the prosecution in the case should be made in London; and the Commissioners request that you will proceed in the matter as proposed in your letter.

By order of the Commissioners,

No. 34.—LETTER from Messrs. GEALE and DWYER to the COMMISSIONERS.

Offices 18, Talbot-street,
SIR, January 17, 1866.

Referring to the instructions received from the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland to institute proceedings against George Legon, for the desertion of Catherine Nevin and her children, who had been intrusted to his care for delivery under an English removal warrant at the workhouse of this union—

We beg to state, for the information of the Commissioners, that on the 11th inst. we caused an application to be made to Mr. Knox, one of the London metropolitan magistrates at the Marlborough-street Police Court, to grant a warrant for the arrest of George Legon, with a view to his committal, which was then granted. The magistrate however subsequently suspended the issuing of the warrant, and desired that the matter should be discussed before him, this was accordingly done on the 13th instant, but the magistrate was of opinion that as the offence charged took place in Ireland, he had not jurisdiction under the statutes to grant the warrant desired.

We beg to enclose a report of the proceedings taken from the London Times of the 15th instant, which, although slightly inaccurate in some particulars, gives a fair but concise account of what took place.

This decision in no way affects the right to proceed in Ireland, and has had one good result, inasmuch as the magistrate seeing the difficulty in the way of a prosecution in this country, stated his readiness at any time to send over an officer from his court to prove the original warrant should such be desired.

Under these circumstances, having regard to the effect of the publicity of what took place in London, and the expense which should of necessity be incurred to sustain a prosecution here, it is a matter for the consideration of the Commissioners, whether any further steps should be taken in the matter. The woman Catherine Nevin is now in London, and we have made arrangements to have her forthcoming up to the end of next week, in case she should be wanted.

Awaiting further instructions,

We are, sir, your obedient servants,

B. Banks, esq., Chief Clerk, Poor Law Office. GEALE and DWYER.

COPY REPORT of PROCEEDINGS, enclosed in foregoing LETTER.

MARLBOROUGH-STREET.

Mr. E. Dillon Lewis stated to Mr. Knox that he appeared on behalf of the Poor Law Commissioners of Ireland to support an application for a warrant against George Legon, who had brought himself within the provisions of the 26th and 27th of Victoria, cap. 89, the 4th section of which enacted "that any person being employed in the execution of a warrant, duly issued under the authority of the said Acts or either of them, who shall wilfully desert any person mentioned therein before he or she shall have been conveyed to the place of destination, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be liable to a fine not exceeding £10, and in default of payment to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months." The various Boards of Guardians in the London districts contracted with a person named Frost, living at Wapping, who undertook the task of conveying paupers to their place of settlement at the rate, he believed, of £3 10s. for each adult person. It was obvious that under such an arrangement the conductor would desire to realize as large a profit as possible; therefore the funds he would give to his conductors would necessarily be scanty. In turn the contractor would try to get something for himself, and thus the paupers would be pressed on all sides. In the present case, John Legon, one of Frost's conductors, was selected to carry into effect a warrant granted by Mr. Tyrwhitt in August last, for the removal of a woman and her three young children to the Union of Loughrea, in the county of Galway. Legon accompanied the paupers as far as Dublin, and then he hurried them to a police court, refusing to allow them to partake of any refreshment, although the woman, who had been very ill during the passage, complained of exhaustion. Legon applied to a magistrate to have his warrant endorsed, no doubt with the intention of passing off the magistrate's endorsement as a sufficient guarantee that he had discharged his task, and as a satisfaction to persons in this country that it was with a magistrate's sanction he had left the paupers in Dublin. The magistrate, however, not only refused to make the endorsement, but remonstrated with Legon for his conduct. It was, therefore, clear that Legon knew if he failed to take the paupers to their destination he would be acting illegally. Legon, however, took the paupers to a house in a small street in Dublin, paid the landlady 1*s.* 6*d.* for one night's lodging, and went away, promising to return the next day and convey them to Loughrea. The man Legon never returned, and after waiting four or five days, the woman, being without money, contrived to get enough to buy food with by doing a little washing. The family were, however, subjected to such privations that one of the children died. Legon returned to England, leaving the paupers in Dublin; and he would submit that in so doing Legon had been guilty of desertion under the statute, and that he was justified in asking for a warrant against him.

Mr. Knox said a grievous offence had been committed. He was most anxious to render assistance if he could legally do so, but upon reference to the section of the Act, he was of opinion he had no jurisdiction, the offence having been committed in Ireland, and the Act in question only extending to England and Wales.

Mr. E. D. Lewis contended that the magistrate had jurisdiction, and cited cases and other matters in support of his argument.

Mr. Knox was not convinced, and declined to grant a warrant.

Mr. E. D. Lewis said the Poor Law Board, whom he represented, had come forward on public grounds only, and the application would have the good effect that the publicity which he hoped would be given to it would serve to show how the destitute were treated, and how the Act in question was virtually inoperative, inasmuch as Irish magistrates were reluctant to issue warrants against persons residing in England, except for very serious offences.

Mr. Dwyer, solicitor to the Irish Poor Law Board, confirmed Mr. Lewis's statement, and added that even when warrants were issued in Ireland the case was stopped by the prosecution being called upon to prove the signature of the English magistrate and the execution of the warrants.

No. 35.—Letter from the Commissioners to Messrs. Geale and Dwyer.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 18, 1866.

Gentlemen,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th inst., reporting the refusal of the Magistrate at Marlborough-street Police Office, London, to grant a warrant for the apprehension of George Legon on the charge of having deserted Catherine Nevin and her children who were intrusted to his care, under an order of removal from England; and the Commissioners request that you will now proceed with the prosecution of Legon in Ireland.

By order of the Commissioners,

To Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, Solicitors, Talbot-street.

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

No. 36.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 18, 1866.

Sir,

Adverting to the letter addressed to you on the 8th ult., relative to the case of Catherine Nevin and her children, who were removed from England under an order of removal, and deserted in Dublin by the person charged with the execution of the warrant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland now transmit to you, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of a report which they have received from their solicitors, detailing the proceedings taken at the Marlborough-street Police Office, London, from which it will be seen that the magistrate declined to grant a warrant for the apprehension of George Legon, on the ground that he had not jurisdiction under the Irish Poor Removal Acts to do so.

The Commissioners have instructed Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to proceed with the prosecution of Legon in Ireland.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B., &c., Dublin Castle.

No. 37.—Letter from Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to the Commissioners.

Offices, 18, Talbot-street,
February 2, 1866.

Sir,

In accordance with the instructions contained in your letter of the 18th ult., to take proceedings in Ireland for the apprehension of George Legon, on charge of having deserted Catherine Nevin and her children, who had been intrusted to his care under an order of removal from London to Loughrea, we beg to state that Catherine Nevin and her children arrived here from London yesterday; and we have obtained a warrant for the arrest of the accused, which has been placed in the hands of the police, with a view to its being executed in London.

We are, sir, your very obedient servants,

B. Banks, esq., Chief Clerk.

Geale and Dwyer.

No. 38.—Letter from Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to the Commissioners.

Offices, 18, Talbot-street,
Sir, February 19, 1866.

We beg to state, for the information of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, that George Legon was this day brought up before the Chief Magistrate at Capel-street Police Office, and duly committed for trial, on the charge of deserting Catherine Nevin and her children. Mr. Leigh, the Clerk from the Marlborough-street Police Court, London, was present, and proved the warrant of removal.

The case will be tried at the City Sessions on the 13th March next.

We are, sir, your obedient servants,

Geale and Dwyer.

B. Banks, esq., Chief Clerk.

No. 39.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin.
Sir, February 20, 1866.

Adverting to their letter of the 18th ult., and to previous correspondence, relating to the case of Catherine Nevin and her children, removed from England under an order of removal, and deserted in Dublin by the person charged with the execution of the warrant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to state, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, that they have received a communication from their solicitors, Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, dated the 19th instant, stating that George Legon was on that day brought before the Chief Magistrate at Capel-street Police Office, and duly committed for trial, on the charge of deserting the parties alluded to, and that the case will be tried at the City Sessions on the 13th March next.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Dublin Castle.

No. 40.—Letter from Messrs. Geale and Dwyer to the Commissioners.

The Queen v. George Legon.

Offices, 18, Talbot-street,
Sir, March 16, 1866.

Referring to previous correspondence, we beg leave to state, for the information of the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, that the accused was brought up before the Recorder on the 13th instant, when, after a full and close investigation, he was found guilty of the charge of desertion under the statute, and sentenced to the full penalty of £10, or in default three months' imprisonment.

We are, sir, your obedient servants,

Geale and Dwyer.

B. Banks, esq., Chief Clerk.

No. 41.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, March 19, 1866.

With reference to their communication of the 20th ult., regarding the committal for trial of George Legon, the person charged with the execution of a warrant for the removal of a female named Catherine Nevin and her children from England to Ireland, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to forward herewith, for the information of His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, a copy of a report which they have now received from their solicitors, Messrs. Geale and Dwyer, of the trial of George Legon, and his sentence in a penalty of £10, or in default three months' imprisonment.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To General Sir Thomas Larcom, K.C.B.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 42.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Board of Guardians.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
Sir, March 23, 1866.

Adverting to the previous correspondence respecting the removal to Loughrea of a woman named Catherine Nevin and her three children from the Ecclesall Bierlow Union, and on two previous occasions from Metropolitan unions, on both of which she was deserted by the parties intrusted with the execution of the warrant, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to state, for the information of the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union, that they deemed it desirable to institute proceedings, under the 26 and 27 Vic., c. 89, sec. 4, against George Legon, who was ascertained to be the person intrusted with the execution of one of the warrants in question, namely, that obtained by the Governors of the parish of Saint George's, Hanover-square.

The woman having been accordingly traced after her return to England, and George Legon identified as the person in fault, proceedings were instituted in London, but without effect, owing to want of jurisdiction, the offence charged before the magistrates having occurred in Ireland.

Proceedings were then taken in Ireland, and the result has been, as the Guardians will see from the enclosed copy of a communication from the Commissioners' solicitors, the infliction of a penalty of £10 on George Legon, or in default three months' imprisonment.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk to the Board of Guardians of Loughrea Union.

III.—CORRESPONDENCE ON THE SUBJECT OF THE AMALGAMATION OF UNIONS.

No. 1.—Letter from the Earl of Longford to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

5, Leinster-street, Dublin,
January 9, 1866.

Sir,

I had the honour last year to represent to the Poor Law Commissioners that it would be for local convenience to abolish the Granard Poor Law Union, which is composed of electoral divisions from three different counties, Longford, Cavan, and Westmeath. These divisions might be attached to neighbouring unions, and the expense of a staff and maintenance of a poorhouse which is far beyond the present or probable requirements of the district might thus be economized. The Commissioners answered to the effect that there was no intention of altering the arrangement of unions.

I bring forward the subject again for the consideration of the Government with reference to the Granard Union, and others similarly circumstanced.

At the times when the unions were formed and revised, the pauperism of the country may have required establishments which are no longer necessary. There appears to be a tendency to increase the salaries of union officers and provide retiring allowances, which must augment the expense of the staff, whilst their duties diminish.

There is also a disposition to take the area of unions as districts for registration and other public purposes, which I submit must lead to inconvenience in administration, when (as in the case of the Granard Union) the district so formed is entirely different from that by which county taxation and county business are regulated.

For these reasons, I suggest that a partial or general revision of the unions in Ireland may with advantage be taken into consideration.

I have, &c.,

Longford.

To the Chief Secretary, &c.,
Dublin Castle.

No. 2.—Letter from the Commissioners to the Under Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
January 26, 1866.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have received the letter of the Earl of Longford addressed to the Chief Secretary of the Lord Lieutenant, and bearing date the 9th instant, in which his lordship refers to a proposal made by him to the Commissioners in December, 1864, to break up the Granard Union, and annex the different portions of it to the surrounding unions of Delvin, Mullingar, Longford, Cavan, and Oldcastle.

A copy of the correspondence with Lord Longford at that time is annexed; and it will be seen that his lordship's desire was to consult the Commissioners before entering on details, and to ask their views on the general subject.

In reply the Commissioners referred his lordship to their annual report of 1857 (forwarding a copy), where their views on the subject had been fully stated, which they had not seen reason to change since that date.

The Commissioners did not think it necessary on this occasion to bring the proposal under the consideration of the Guardians of the Granard Union, because they had already been made aware that the Granard Board were as much opposed to the project as the Commissioners themselves were, and on the same grounds.

At the time of the movement made for the amalgamation of unions, and shutting up of workhouses in 1857, a circular was sent by the association formed for that purpose to all the unions in Ireland, and on that occasion the Granard Board adopted the following answer to the circular :—

"Resolved,—That we do not desire amalgamation with any other union, because we believe that the removal of the paupers from this union to any other workhouse would inflict great hardship on the poor. We are also of opinion that Guardians from this union would not, or could not, attend the meetings of Poor Law Guardians in either Longford or Cavan, the nearest workhouses to us ; they could not attend to the interest of the ratepayers or supervise the disbursement of their own moneys. We have no objection, however, to the inmates of neighbouring houses being removed to this house."

The Boards of Guardians of most of the other unions, which it was proposed at that time to break up, passed similar resolutions objecting to dismemberment, and the association very soon ceased to agitate the question. A petition to Parliament on the subject, which had been carefully prepared and very numerously signed, was in fact never presented, the promoters themselves appearing to have finally come to the conclusion that the vacant space in Irish workhouses is not, after all, without its advantages, affording as it does a security on the one hand for the effectual relief at all times of the sick and destitute poor, and, on the other hand, a protection against any injurious result to property from the too great increase of pauperism.

It was not until October, 1861, that a new proposal to disturb the boundaries of Granard Union was made by the Longford Board of Guardians, and strenuously objected to by a unanimous resolution of the Granard Board.

Again, in the month of July, 1865, the Longford Board passed a resolution in favour of "union rating, and in connexion with it a revision of the boundaries of unions with the view of regulating the present areas of taxation," and sent a copy of this to the Granard Board inviting their concurrence. At a full meeting of the Granard Board on the 11th September, at which the Earl of Longford was present, the following resolution was moved by Mr. Pollard Urquhart, M.P., and seconded by Col. Greville, M.P.—

"That the resolution of the Longford Board in favour of union rating be adopted by this Board."

This motion, on being put to the vote, was rejected by a majority of twenty-two to fourteen.

The Commissioners are now requested to report, in the first place, upon the Earl of Longford's proposal to the Government to break up the Granard Union ; and secondly, as to the necessity for a general examination with a view to revision of the boundaries of unions generally.

With regard to the Granard Union, the accompanying tracing and statistical table derived from the last published union accounts, contained in the annual report for 1865, will assist in explaining the bearing of this proposal on the several parts of Granard Union, which it is intended to separate and to annex, each to some union situate in the same county; and its bearing also upon the several unions to be affected by the change.

The first point which presents itself is, that Granard Union is situate for the most part in the county of Longford, a comparatively small part only in Cavan, and another part somewhat larger in Westmeath. The four unions therefore situate in Cavan and Westmeath, would be very little affected by the change, their poundages of expenditure not being very different from those of Granard Union.

The question, in fact, as the correspondence above referred to shows, is one between Granard and Longford Unions alone, none of the other unions having evinced any desire to appropriate any part of the territory of Granard Union.

The next striking circumstance appearing on the face of the tracing and the table is, that Granard Union is larger in population, area, and net annual value, than Longford Union, which is proposing to break up Granard Union, with the view of appropriating to itself more than half its territory. Now Granard Union exceeds in population, area, and value, the average extent, in these respects, of all the unions in Ireland, and comprises no less than six dispensary districts, the average number of such districts in each union being five. It has a population of 36,043, an area of 134,003 statute acres, and a net annual value of £84,597. In the year ended 29th September, 1864, the total number of persons relieved in the workhouse was 1,508, the average daily number being 303. In the course of the subsequent year 235 persons were admitted direct into the workhouse in sickness, thirty-two of whom were suffering from fever, and two from serious accidents. The present number of inmates is 290. There are also 328 receiving out-door relief.

It appears, therefore, that the beneficent intention of the legislature in enacting the Irish Poor Law, is at present being satisfactorily carried out in Granard Union, and that this salutary operation of the law is appreciated by a majority of those who are taking an active and intelligent part in the local administration of relief.

The saving to be effected by dissolving Granard Union, and shutting up the workhouse, would be limited to that part of the establishment charges which is connected with the workhouse, including also the salary of the union clerk.

If any definite plan of alteration had been proposed, it would be easy to calculate with precision the effect of the change, economically, on each fragment of the Granard Union, and on each of the several Unions to which those fragments would be respectively annexed. The arrangement, however, which would probably be made, is not difficult to conjecture; and it cannot be very far from the truth to estimate the saving as follows:

As to those portions of the Granard Union which would go to the four unions in the counties of Cavan and Westmeath, the annual saving would amount, in each case, to about a farthing in the £1. As regards the portion to be added to Longford Union, the establishment charges of the future Longford Union, supposing them to remain at the present amount, notwithstanding the additional pauperism imported from Granard, would be reduced from 4½*d.*, their poundage (as appears by the table) to about 2½*d.*, which is the poundage of the same charges in Granard Union.

The ratepayers of Longford Union would therefore be the parties benefiting, almost exclusively, from any saving to be effected by the change; those of Granard Union losing the care of their own poor, and the management of their own affairs, together with such benefit as some of them may derive from the sale of milk and other articles of local supply, for consumption in the workhouse.

It now remains to consider the effect of the proposed change on that part of the population of 36,043 persons in Granard Union, who are inmates of Granard Workhouse, or who may hereafter be obliged by necessity or sickness to seek relief or medical treatment in hospital; a part of the question especially referred to by the Granard Guardians in their adverse resolution of 1857, above quoted.

The town of Granard, the centre of the Union, and surrounded by the most populated part of it, is distant from Longford by the road 15 statute miles, and the distance of the furthermost boundary of that part which would be annexed to Longford Union, varies from 17 to 21 miles. The present radius of Granard Union is, in fact, not less than 9 miles on the average.

A very large proportion, therefore, of persons needing relief, in whatever shape, would have to apply for it at the distant towns of Longford, Mullingar, Cavan, Oldcastle, or Delvin, and if admitted, would have to remain there at a greatly increased distance from their friends and connexions, so long as they required relief. At such distances, also, the fever hospitals and infirmaries of those unions would become, according to well-proved experience, practically useless to persons suffering from sickness or accident, and the efficiency and usefulness of the Irish Poor Law, quoad the population in question, would be diminished in a most material degree. If at any time epidemic disease should arise, the evil effects of such a change would, of course, be greatly aggravated; and it is impossible to say within what space of time, or in what part of Ireland, such a calamity may not occur.

It must now be considered what assignable ground there is for inflicting this grievous injury on the poor inhabitants of Granard Union, for the exclusive benefit, in a pecuniary sense, of the ratepayers of Longford Union.

The expenditure in relief of the poor in Longford Union, and on all other purposes with which the poor-rate of that union is chargeable, amounts to 1*s.* 6½*d.* in the £ on the rateable property, and this poundage, although more than the average poundage of the poor-rate throughout Ireland, viz., 1*s.* 3*d.*, is less than the poundage in forty-two other unions; and there is every likelihood that with proper care and management, on the part of the Longford Guardians, it may hereafter be brought nearer to the level of the poundage of the surrounding unions. The present number of inmates in the workhouse is 418, fewer by 70, than at the corresponding period of 1865, but quite a sufficient number for effective management by one Board. The average daily number in 1859 was only 214, and the poundage of the expenditure on relief, which now averages 1*s.* 4¼*d.* on the valuation, was then only 10½*d.* It seems to be more reasonable, under all these circumstances, that the ratepayers and Guardians of Longford Union should look to a reduction of the poor-rates through the medium of their own exertions, than by inflicting a serious injury on the destitute poor of the adjoining union.

In reference to the proposed general reconstruction of unions with a view to the reduction of their number, the enlargement of the area, and the shutting up of workhouses, the Commissioners fully expressed their views to the Government in their annual report of 1857. Those views they have not since seen reason to change, but on the contrary, have felt them to be greatly confirmed by subsequent experience obtained in the course of the adverse seasons which prevailed from 1860 to 1863, in which period the expenditure in poor relief increased from £413,712 to £605,981, and the total number of persons relieved annually in workhouses from 153,706 to 288,285, concurrently with a decrease in the population.

During this period the chief defect observable in the system of administering relief was connected with the large area of the unions, and the great distance which in consequence thereof the poor have to go in order to obtain relief. It has not unfrequently happened from this cause that patients suffering from acute disease or accidental injury are exposed to much risk in being conveyed to the workhouse hospital. Looking back to the 1st January, 1865, it is found that from that date to the present time no less than six cases have been reported, in which persons in course of being conveyed to the workhouse (generally in such cases on a common car or cart) have died on the way; and in twenty other cases in a short time after admission to the workhouse. Although this number may not appear considerable compared with the number admitted in sickness during the same period, that is to say, more than sixty thousand, removed sometimes by their friends in the last extremity, it is still sufficiently large to represent a great amount of suffering in such cases and in the cases of persons brought from equal distances, but which did not terminate in the same manner.

The last of these fatal cases, which occurred on the 22nd December, 1865, is very suggestive of the nature of the difficulty referred to. It is that of John Boxwell, who died in Rathdrum workhouse four hours after admission. The verdict of the Coroner's jury is in these terms :— "Died from exposure and cold owing to the want of some proper institution in Arklow, in consequence of which he was obliged to be sent to the workhouse, a distance of ten miles, in a weak and destitute state."

The Commissioners have endeavoured to induce the Guardians of unions to remedy this evil as far as possible, by providing conveyances on springs, furnished with suitable wrappings, to convey the sick to the workhouse hospitals; and in a great majority of the unions they have succeeded in doing so. But the evil effect of the large area is by no means wholly corrected by these appliances, even where they are used; and cases have occurred in which sick persons on their way to the workhouse have died in the spring-vans or ambulances thus provided for their use.

The establishment of village hospitals recently commenced in England by private subscription, and under economical disadvantages, shows the existence of a want in that country which in Ireland has to some extent been met by the workhouses, and by that provision of the Irish Poor Law which enables persons above a state of indigence to obtain medical or surgical attendance in the hospital wards, thus providing a most valuable supplement to the county institutions, which have long since been shown to be practically useless to the great majority of the population in Ireland by reason of their remoteness; the diminution of the areas of most of the large unions which took place in 1849–50, has rendered the enactment just referred to one of great value and utility in the treatment of fever and other acute disease, as well as of accidental injury.

On the joint ground, therefore, of policy and humanity, the opinion of the Commissioners is quite adverse to any general project of reconstructing the present unions in Ireland, with a view to the enlargement of their areas.

The Earl of Longford appears to think that inconvenience must arise from the boundaries of Poor Law Unions not being conterminous with the boundaries of counties. Such inconvenience was certainly not anticipated in the original formation of unions in Ireland; for the Assistant-Commissioners were expressly instructed not to regard the county boundaries in the formation of unions, nor was any endeavour made, so far as the Commissioners are aware, to do so in their subsequent reconstruction.

The inconveniences referred to are not particularized, nor have any such been brought at any time under the observation of the Commissioners.

Inconveniences anticipated from "the disposition"—(these are Lord Longford's words)—"to take the areas of unions as districts for registration and other public purposes," ought now, if not imaginary, to exist, not in apprehension merely, but in reality; for the unions have for many years past been used for census and valuation purposes, as well as more recently for the registration of births and deaths. This fact itself, in the opinion of the Commissioners, forms an additional ground for not disturbing the union boundaries unnecessarily, as such changes must interfere with the value of statistics compiled under the present arrangement, and interrupt their comparison with those of periods subsequent to alteration.

In conclusion, the Commissioners desire to repeat that they are prepared at all times, in pursuance of the power given to them of altering unions or electoral divisions, to examine upon its own merits every particular proposal which may be made to them for the exercise of those powers, and to decide every such question according to its merits and on their own responsibility.

They have felt themselves called upon to exercise these powers in very few cases since the alteration in boundaries, which took place in 1849-50; and since the year 1857 applications of such a nature have almost wholly ceased to be made. The Commissioners think, therefore, that it is not at all necessary to make any general examination of the boundaries of unions and electoral divisions, with a view to their alteration, at the present time.

Lord Longford's letter is herewith returned.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Letter from the Earl of Longford to the Commissioners.

Pakenham Hall, Castlepollard,
December 13, 1864.

Gentlemen,

I beg to submit that the time has arrived when some of the poor law unions of Ireland may be dissolved, and their electoral divisions incorporated with adjoining unions.

The poorhouses are now maintained at considerable expense in establishment and buildings, with accommodation for paupers beyond the requirements, present or probable, of the country.

My special object is to recommend the dissolution of the Granard Union, which is most inconveniently constituted of portions of three counties, not otherwise connected by business relations. I believe that the relief of the poor will be amply provided for if the several electoral divisions are attached to the adjacent unions of Delvin, Mullingar, Longford (the guardians of which are very anxious for an increase of area), Cavan, and possibly Oldcastle. Probably the general subject has already been under your consideration; and, therefore, before entering upon details, I wish to consult the Commissioners, and in the most friendly spirit to ask their views on this matter.

I make no charge against the management of the Granard Union, which is perhaps as good as the average.

I have the honour to be, sirs, your obedient servant,

Longford.

Letter from the Commissioners to the Earl of Longford.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
December 14, 1864.

My Lord,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your lordship's letter of the 13th instant, suggesting the dissolution of some of the unions in Ireland (especially Granard Union), by the incorporation of their electoral divisions with adjoining unions, and asking the views of the Commisioners on the matter.

In reply, the Commissioners desire to state that in the years 1856 and 1857, when the number of inmates in the workhouses was about the same as it is at present, the subject of dissolving some of the unions, and incorporating their electoral divisions with adjoining unions received a great deal of consideration, and that the views of the Commissioners were expressed, in opposition to any of the changes proposed, in their Annual Report to His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant, dated 1st May, 1857.

The Commissioners still retain the views expressed by them on this subject in that Report; and they take the liberty, therefore, of forwarding a copy of it to your lordship for your information, and in reply to your lordship's letter.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

* The month of January includes cases which occurred in the previous year, and were still under treatment in January.

† The registry of cases in a few of the Unions does not distinguish whether the disease first arose in or out of the Workhouse; the numbers in these columns do not therefore agree with the number in the previous column, showing the total number of cases.

Note on Columns headed "Result."—From the nature of the headings under the general term "Result," some cases are necessarily twice entered; and consequently the numbers in the several Columns exceed the total entered in the final Column.

Also as regards Columns headed "One eye lost," "Both eyes lost."—These columns include many cases in which the sight was lost before admission into the Workhouse.

No. 14.—Abstract of Returns from Clerks of Unions showing the Number of Persons admitted to the Workhouse during the year ended 29th September, 1865; distinguishing the Number admitted in Sickness; also the Number of Births and Deaths in the Workhouse during the Year.

Unions.	Area in Acres.	Population in 1861.	Number of Persons admitted during the Year.
			Number admitted in Sickness.				Number admitted who were not sick.	Total number admitted during the year.	No. of Births in the Workhouse during the year.	No. of Deaths in the Workhouse during the year.
			Suffering under Fever or other dangerous contagious diseases.	Suffering under other diseases.	Suffering from accidental injury.	Total number admitted in sickness.

APPENDIX C.

CIRCULARS OF INSTRUCTION ISSUED UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT.

No. 1.—Annual appointment of Dispensary Committees and Wardens.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
March 23, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to call your attention to their circular of the 21st of March, 1862, relating to the annual appointment of dispensary committees and wardens, and to the extracts from previous circulars, appended thereto; and they request that you will take the necessary steps, as pointed out in the circular referred to, to place before the Board of Guardians, after the next annual election, a correct list of the members of the Board entitled to be members of the respective dispensary committees in the union.

As soon as the committee shall have been completed for any dispensary district, the Guardians should fix a day for the first meeting of such committee, for the special purpose of appointing their honorary officers for the current year, in accordance with articles 5 and 6 of the Dispensary Regulations, and you should give notice thereof to each member of the dispensary committee, in accordance with articles 10 and 12 of the Dispensary Regulations.

A form for the return of officers of the several dispensary committees in the union will be forwarded to you in due course.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of the Board of Guardians
of each Union.

No. 2.—"Sewage Utilization Act, 1865."

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 9, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland transmit to you herewith, for the information of the Board of Guardians, a copy of "The Sewage Utilization Act, 1865," 28 & 29 Vic., c. 75.

The Guardians will observe, on reference to the 3rd section and the schedule referred to in that section, that the powers given by the Act may be exercised by the Board of Guardians, or any committee thereof appointed by the Board, in any town or village in the union which is not a town corporate or borough, or a town having Town Committees, or having Commissioners or other governing body under any local Act.

By order of the Commissioners,

B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

To the Clerk of each Union.

No. 3.—Sanitary Precautions to be taken under the Provisions of the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
August 23, 1865.

Sir,

The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland desire to draw the attention of the Board of Guardians to the fact that Asiatic cholera has made its appearance in several ports of the Mediterranean Sea, and has now advanced, according to public report, so far as the coasts of Italy and Spain.

It is possible that sooner or later this disease may show itself in some parts of Ireland, and, although no apprehension of an immediate visitation exists, it may be well that the Board of Guardians should at once consider of the means at their disposal for meeting the disease in the event of its making its appearance in any union.

The powers which the Guardians possess in relation to epidemic diseases under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act are two-fold, and may be classed in the first place as "preventive;" and, in the second place, as "mitigatory and curative."

The preventive powers created by the Acts of 1848 and 1849 are for the most part always in existence, and ought to be continuously in action, for the removal of private or public nuisances which are injurious to health and which must predispose those who are affected by them to the reception of epidemic disease. Other and larger powers of this nature are liable to be called into existence by an Order of the Privy Council when danger is considered to be imminent; and by the same authority special powers are at the same time created for mitigating and arresting the progress of the disease, and for the curative treatment of individuals attacked by it, interment of the dead, &c.

All the provisions above referred to were brought into active operation in the years 1853 and 1854, when the last serious invasion of cholera took place in Ireland. The first alarm on the subject was at the close of the year 1852; but the disease did not make its appearance as an epidemic until late in the autumn of 1853. From that time until April, 1855, cholera prevailed occasionally as an epidemic in some places in Ireland, but the greater part of the country was free from the invasion.

During this period the organization of dispensary districts under the Medical Charities Act, which had been completed at the time of the visitation, was applied with great success to the mitigation of the disease and to the curative treatment of individuals attacked either by cholera or by premonitory symptoms, more especially the latter; and many thousands of such cases were so treated with success by the dispensary officers, as well as in the union hospitals, the whole number of cases having been about 40,000.

The result was that during the sixteen months of the presence of cholera in Ireland, a very small amount of mortality from that cause prevailed; the whole number of reported deaths from cholera and diarrhœa together being 3,488, while in the London Metropolitan District alone the return of deaths from cholera for the fortnight ended 16th September, 1854, was 3,599. The expenditure on treatment for the same period amounted to only £4,377. In addition to this, however, the sum of £7,260 was expended by the Guardians of unions in the removal of nuisances during the two years; and this was exclusive of the sums expended for a like purpose by the municipal authorities in large towns, such as Dublin, Cork, Belfast, Limerick, and others.

The Guardians will find in the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th Annual Reports under the Medical Charities Act a full and detailed account of the whole series of operations at that period, both before and after the issue of the Order in Council, which took place on the 17th September, 1853; and can thus inform themselves beforehand of the various steps which it may become necessary for the Commissioners of Health to adopt on the present occasion, the Acts of Parliament which then regulated those proceedings being still in force in Ireland without amendment or alteration.

At the present point of time it is sufficient to call the attention of the Guardians to the propriety of an active exercise of the powers which they possess, independently of an Order in Council for the removal of nuisances, under the two Acts of 1848 and 1849, and which have been, or ought to have been, in continuous action during the interval which has passed since the last invasion of cholera.

The Commissioners are aware that in many places much has been done for the public health by Town Councils and by Boards of Guardians respectively, but on the other hand those powers have ceased in many parts of the country to be exercised with sufficient vigilance and activity.

The attention of the Guardians therefore is now called to the terms of a circular explaining the nature of their powers for the removal of nuisances in places for which a Town Council does not act in that capacity, and a reprint of that circular is forwarded herewith.

It appears desirable that in all such places steps should be taken by the Guardians, or by committees of their own members, to carry into effect the powers which they possess for the removal of nuisances with a view to the prevention of disease.

If cholera should unfortunately hereafter present itself in any part of Ireland, the Commissioners, who will have immediate information thereof from the dispensary officers, will be prepared to communicate at once with the Board of Guardians as to the necessary steps to be taken to mitigate the disease, and if possible arrest its progress.

By order of the Commissioners,

To the Clerk of each Union. B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

Circular as to the Removal of Nuisances, &c., which is referred to in the foregoing Circular.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
October 19, 1852.

Sir,

1. The Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland, having received inquiries in reference to the powers of Boards of Guardians in Ireland under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts of 1848 and 1849 (11 & 12 Vict., c. 123, and 12 & 13 Vict., c. 111), deem it advisable at the present time to call the attention of Boards of Guardians to the provisions of those Acts; and the Commissioners have directed that a copy of the two Acts referred to be enclosed herewith.

2. Under section 1 of the first named Act, the Board of Guardians and other local authorities therein designated are empowered, in case of complaint, to take proceedings for the abatement of nuisances in connexion with houses or property, for the cost of abating which the owners or occupiers of the premises are responsible. On receipt of a notice signed by two or more inhabitant householders, representing the existence of any of the causes of complaint described in the Act, and setting forth that the premises referred to in such notice are in such a condition as to be a nuisance or injurious to health, the Guardians are empowered after due examination to proceed against the owner or occupier of the premises in manner provided in the Act, with a view to the removal of the cause of complaint if the same be not previously abated; and in case of his non-compliance with any order of Justices in this behalf, the Guardians or other authorities named for the purpose may themselves cause the nuisance to be abated and removed. Sections 3 & 4 provide for the payment of the costs and expenses thus incurred, which should be recovered from the owners or occupiers as therein provided, wherever practicable; but the latter section is so far modified by section 7 of the second Act, that such expenses incurred by the Guardians may, in certain cases described, where not so recoverable, be charged by the Guardians upon the poor-rates of the electoral division in which the premises are situate. It will be observed that under section 5 of the second Act, Justices may act in petty sessions in cases brought before them under these Acts, although they may be ex-officio Guardians of the union.

3. The powers given by section 1 of the first Act for the removal of nuisances, are extended by section 6 of the second Act, which dispenses with the necessity of a notice from householders, and enables the Board of Guardians and other local authorities to take proceedings for the removal of any of the causes of complaint specified in the first Act, upon a certificate of their existence from any Medical or Relieving Officer of the union, or from two constables. The Guardians are thus enabled themselves to take measures for the removal of nuisances by the agency of their own officers; and the Commissioners request the attention of the Guardians to the subject with a view to their considering the propriety of calling upon the Medical and Relieving Officers of the union to certify to them from time to time any Nuisances of the kinds described in the Act, which may come under their notice in the course of their performance of the duties of their office in their respective districts, so far as this may be practicable without interfering with their ordinary duties.

4. The form of certificate of the Medical or Relieving Officer may be similar to the form of notice (Schedule A), for the use of householders, as annexed to the first Act, or to the like effect; and it may be convenient for the Guardians, with a view to avoid unnecessary delay and expense, to cause their Relieving Officers to be provided with blank forms of certificate, to be filled up where they find such nuisances to exist, and to instruct them to leave a copy of any such certificate with the occupier of the premises to which it may relate, with a view to the latter removing the cause of complaint without a resort to legal proceedings. This however would not dispense with the necessity of any of the other steps prescribed by section 1 of the Act, wherever it is necessary to go on with such proceedings. For the convenience of the Guardians, the Commissioners have caused a form of certificate to be prepared, and to be transmitted annexed hereto, together with the Acts in question.

5. Some misapprehension having appeared to prevail as to the effect of the provisions of the 19th section of the Medical Charities Act (14 & 15 Vict., c. 68), the Commissioners have deemed it right to make this communication to the Board of Guardians, in reference to their powers in the removal of nuisances, &c., under the Acts previously referred to, the Guardians and other local authorities designated for the purpose being fully authorized to perform such functions as are assigned to them in this behalf, by sections 1 to 8 of 11 & 12 Vict., c. 123, and sections 6 & 7 of 12 & 13 Vict., c. 111, without any further authority from the Commissioners, whose intervention for these purposes is wholly unnecessary to enable the Guardians and other local authorities to proceed in accordance with those sections; the powers and duties of those authorities under the provisions here referred to not being at all interfered with or affected by the provisions of the Medical Charities Act.

6. The Commissioners have in some instances been requested to constitute the Committees of Management of Dispensary Districts as Local Boards of Health, or Sanitary Committees, with a view to the removal of nuisances and other sanitary measures. The Commissioners have, however, no power to constitute the dispensary committees for other purposes than those provided for in the Medical Charities Act, and the General Rules for the government of Dispensary Districts issued in pursuance thereof, namely, the management of the business of the dispensaries; the contingency under which, in the event contemplated in sections 9 & 10 of the 11 & 12 Vict., c. 123, their functions might be extended under section 19 of the Medical Charities Act, to other sanitary purposes, not having yet arisen, and the Orders in Council issued in 1848 and subsequent years, under section 9 of the first-named Act, having expired.

7. The appearance of Asiatic cholera as an epidemic in parts of the continent of Europe, although not at present calling for any extraordinary provision for the treatment of epidemic disease in this country, and not affording ground for immediate alarm, nevertheless renders it desirable that the attention of the Guardians should be directed to those steps which may be taken in the removal of nuisances, &c., as precautionary measures for the preservation of health; and to this end, the careful and vigilant attention of all those public and local bodies to whom authority is given for enforcing sanitary precautions, and the removal of causes which may be injurious to health at any time, and especially in the event of the recurrence of epidemic disease in this country, appears to be demanded at the present time; and the Commissioners will be prepared to afford the Guardians any advice and assistance in their power in reference to these objects.

8. The Commissioners desire to impress on the Guardians the importance of any precautionary measures which they are empowered to carry into effect, in the removal of nuisances, &c., being adopted before the appearance of epidemic disease; inasmuch as many measures of this nature, which might be safely and advantageously resorted to at the present time, might tend to aggravate the evil they are intended to provide against and alleviate, if deferred until the actual appearance of such disease. The Commissioners desire further to point out that any such measures will also be of service as precautions against epidemic fever. Typhus fever has long been the scourge of Ireland, attributable in a great measure, no doubt, to causes not removable by the Guardians, but also, to a very great extent, the result of the undrained, filthy state of the worst parts of almost every Irish town, unknown and unvisited by those in better circumstances; but when once fever is prevalent, it extends its ravages to all classes, and is even more fatal to the rich than to the poor. It may at the same time be observed that any precautions of the kind herein adverted to, which tend to prevent or diminish the prevalence or virulence of epidemic or contagious disease amongst the poor, will no doubt tend also to the saving of the rates, by diminishing the demands for relief at the cost of the rates.

9. The authorities who are empowered to take steps for the removal of nuisances are designated in section 1 of the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Act of 1848, and in section 6 of the Amendment Act of 1849. Where there is in any town, parish, or other locality within any union, a Town Council, Trustees, Commissioners, Officers of Health, or other local body, it is probable that these officers, being on the spot in their respective localities, may be able more effectively to carry into effect such measures as may be necessary for the removal of nuisances, in those localities, than the Board of Guardians of the union at large; but the Board of Guardians, although authorized to incur certain expenses themselves in certain cases, are not authorized to provide other bodies with funds for the purposes referred to.

10. The existence of such bodies, however, does not deprive the Board of Guardians of their own powers and functions in the same localities; and section 6 of the second Act appears to devolve the duties in question more immediately upon the Guardians. Under section 1 of the first Act, the Board of Guardians can, if they think fit, appoint a committee of members of their own body, for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions in question; and this power may enable the Board of Guardians to provide more effectively and conveniently for the due execution of the Acts in remote parts of the union, where there may be no other body authorized to take the necessary proceedings in this behalf; such committees reporting their proceedings from time to time to the Board of Guardians at their weekly meetings.

By order of the Commissioners,

Arthur Moore, Assistant Secretary.

To the Clerk of the Board of Guardians
of each Union.

No. 4.—Sanitary Precautions.

Poor Law Commission Office, Dublin,
November 4, 1865.

Sir,

Adverting to their circular of the 23rd August last, calling the attention of Boards of Guardians to the propriety of an active exercise of their powers under the Nuisances Removal and Diseases Prevention Acts, the Commissioners for administering the Laws for Relief of the Poor in Ireland now desire to call the further attention of the Board of Guardians to the powers which they possess under the "Sewage Utilization Act, 1865," as they have reason to believe that there are cases in which those powers may be exercised with advantage in a sanitary point of view.

On reference to the Act, a copy of which was transmitted with the Commissioners' circular of the 9th August, it will be seen that the Board of Guardians is constituted the "sewer authority" in any town or village in the union which is not a town corporate or borough, or a town having Town Commissioners or Commissioners or other governing body under any local Act; and further, that the powers given by the Act may be exercised by the Board of Guardians or any committee thereof appointed by the Board; that full powers are given to the "sewer authority" for the construction of such sewers as they shall think necessary for keeping their district properly cleansed and drained, with powers of entry when necessary for the purposes of the Act. The sewer authority is also empowered to take proceedings to prevent the pollution of any water-course by sewage, and they may, for the purpose of utilizing the sewage, make contracts for the supply of such sewage to persons willing to take it.

Powers are also given for borrowing money, on the security of the rates, for the purposes of the Act; and the Public Works Loan Commissioners are authorized, on the recommendation of the Commissioners of Public Works in Ireland, to advance money for those purposes.

By order of the Commissioners,

To the Clerk of each Union. B. Banks, Chief Clerk.

TABULAR RETURNS IN CONNEXION WITH RELIEF UNDER THE MEDICAL CHARITIES ACT.

[NOTE.—In this series of Tables, the Unions are classed in the Counties and Provinces in which the chief or central place of the respective Unions is situate; but many of the Unions comprise parts of more than one County or Province. The total of Population and Area of the Unions in the respective Counties and Provinces, as arranged in these Tables, will not, therefore, agree with the summaries of those Counties and Provinces in the Census Returns. An Alphabetical Index List of the Dispensary Districts is annexed (No. 6), showing the name of the Union in which each District is situate, and referring to the table and page in which the particulars relating to each District are to be found.]

TWENTIETH ANNUAL REPORT.

TO THE

RIGHT HON. SIR GEORGE GREY, Bart.,

HER MAJESTY'S PRINCIPAL SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE HOME DEPARTMENT.

BOARD OF SUPERVISION FOR THE RELIEF OF THE POOR IN SCOTLAND, CHAMBERS, GEORGE STREET, EDINBURGH.
August 1865.

SIR,

Proceedings of the Board.

WE have the honour to submit the General Report of our proceedings for the past year.

We have to regret the loss of a very efficient public Officer by the death of Mr Briscoe, General Superintendent of the Northern District. Having been employed in a similar capacity in Ireland, he brought to the performance of his duties in this country an experience of some years in the administration of the Poor Laws. The knowledge which he had thus acquired—the integrity and independence of his character, and the sagacity and judgment which he evinced, obtained for him the respect and confidence of the Parochial Boards with which he was called upon to communicate, and many of these have expressed their regret at his death, and have acknowledged the advantage which they derived from his judicious advice and assistance.

As soon as it became known that a vacancy had occurred in the office of Superintendent, numerous applications were made to us by Candidates, a considerable number of whom appeared to be well qualified. Amongst these, it appeared to us that Mr Peterkin, who had been an Officer of the Board from the date of its formation, and who, for many years, had performed analagous duties to our entire satisfaction—thus giving practical proof of his special fitness—was the Candidate whose nomination would be most likely to advance the public service. He was therefore nominated by the Board, and has been appointed Superintendent of the Northern District. The instructions which, with the approval of the Secretary of State, were issued to Mr Peterkin, are printed in the Appendix, p. 3.

Mr Peterkin's appointment as Superintendent caused a vacancy in the office of Visiting Officer, which was filled by the nomination of Mr Alexander Campbell, a Proprietor and a Member of the Bar, who had given much attention to the administration of the Poor Laws in the District in which his property is situated, and who was strongly recommended to us by gentlemen holding influential positions in the public service.

Since the date of our last Report, the General Superintendents of Poor have continued to discharge their duties within their respective districts to our entire satisfaction. Mr Falconar has visited 206 Parishes in the Counties of Argyll, Bute, Dumbarton, Perth, Elgin, Nairn, Banff, Forfar, Inverness, Aberdeen, Kincardine, and Stirling. Mr Peterkin has visited and inquired into the administration of the Law in 143 Parishes in the Counties of Caithness, Clackmannan, Dumfries, Edinburgh, Forfar, Inverness, Kincardine, Lanark, Linlithgow, Perth, Renfrew, Ross, and Sutherland. Besides repeating his visits to many of these Parishes, he has inspected 37 Poorhouses, and 17 Lodging Houses, and conducted 14 special investigations. We have received from these gentlemen their General Half-yearly Reports upon the administration of the Law within their respective districts, as well as special Parochial Reports from time to time, wherever circumstances appeared to require them, and we have continued to deal with these Reports in the same manner as with those of former years.

Since his appointment, Mr Campbell, the Visiting Officer of the Board, has conducted eight special investigations, and he has inspected and reported upon 12 Lodging Houses for Paupers and 41 Poorhouses at present in operation in Scotland. He has also visited and inquired into the administration of the Law in 128 Parishes.

We have investigated allegations, involving charges more or less serious, against 25 Inspectors of Poor; and we have been under the necessity of dismissing two of these Officers for neglect or failure to perform their duties. Three whose conduct was under investigation, were permitted by us to resign their offices; and we have censured or admonished 13 Inspectors, whose errors were not of so grave a character as to call for more serious punishment. We have had the satisfaction of acquitting seven Inspectors of the charges which were brought against them. Proceedings of the Board.

We have been called upon to investigate complaints against two Governors of Poorhouses, and of these we found it necessary to censure one.

We have also investigated charges against four Medical Officers. We are glad to be able to state that the charges made against three of these gentlemen were unfounded; but we were compelled to censure one Medical Officer for a careless discharge of his duties.

With the approval of the Secretary of State, we have changed the form in which the General Register of the Poor is to be kept in each Parish, and have required that all the particulars relating to each case shall be stated consecutively, so that the history of each may be traced with the greatest facility. We have also required that a separate Register shall be kept of all orphans and children deserted by or separated from their parents who may be chargeable to the Parish. We have further required that for one hour on each of two days in the week, to be publicly announced, these Registers shall be open to inspection at the Inspector's office, free of charge, by any known minister of any religious denomination officiating in the Parish; and on payment of one shilling on each occasion by any ratepayer of the Parish giving his name and address in writing. App. (A.) No. 2.

It is to be hoped that this arrangement—affording ample facilities to persons of all religious denominations, and of almost all classes, for examining the Registers, which had previously been open to inspection only by the ministers of the different religious denominations, and by members of the Parochial Board—may have the effect of removing the suspicions that have been propagated as to the proceedings of some of the Parochial Boards in this country with reference to the religious instruction of orphans and deserted children. It is due to those Boards, however, to state, that a very minute and careful investigation into their proceedings, in the course of which every child not residing with its parents was accounted for as at 14th May 1864, failed to discover any ground for the suspicions referred to.

In reply to the inquiry, whether Parochial Boards are under an obligation to provide nurses for Paupers who may be suffering from fever, no nurse being procurable in the Parish, and whether that Board can require Paupers, capable of undertaking it, to nurse fever patients, we stated our opinion, that if a nurse could not be obtained in the Parish, the Parochial Board ought to obtain one from beyond it, and that Paupers cannot be deprived of their allowances because they decline to expose themselves to the risk of infection.

Proceedings of the Board.

In the Poorhouse Combinations that have been formed in the Highlands and Islands, the distance of some parts, and even of entire Parishes, from the Poorhouse is such, and the means of transport are so imperfect, that we considered it necessary to point out to some of the Parochial Boards the inexpedience of leaving it to the Inspector on his own responsibility to offer relief in the Poorhouse, and to refuse out-door relief. We stated our opinion, that no person entitled to parochial relief should be required to accept relief in the Poorhouse, which necessarily implies removal thither, unless by an order of the Parochial Board duly entered in its minutes. We also pointed out that in any case in which the Sheriff may have ordered relief, an offer to remove the applicant on a future day to the Poorhouse is not a proper execution of that order, to which prompt effect should be given by granting immediate relief, and continuing it until removal to the Poorhouse has actually been effected, or relief in that form has been refused by the applicant.

App. (A.) No. 3.

It has been represented to us, that in consequence of the duties imposed upon Inspectors by successive Acts of Parliament passed since their salaries were fixed, the remuneration which they receive is no longer adequate. We are of opinion, that with regard to many Parishes this complaint is well founded, and that Parochial Boards might with advantage increase the salaries of the Inspectors to an extent fairly commensurate with the additional labour and responsibility that has been imposed upon them; but as the Statute gives us no authority to require an augmentation of the salaries of these officers, we must leave it to the good sense and justice of Parochial Boards to consider the matter.

Assessments.

Since the date of our last Report, the Island of Coll, which previously formed part of the Parish of Tyree and Coll, has been erected, by decree of the Court of Teinds, into a separate Parish; and since the same date, other six Parishes which had previously raised the Funds for relief of the Poor by Voluntary Contributions, have resolved to raise those Funds by Assessment. The number of Parishes now assessed is 777, and the number that still raise the Funds by Voluntary Contributions is 108. The Parochial Boards of two Parishes have resolved to change the mode of classification formerly adopted. In one of these Parishes we have declined to sanction the proposed change, and in the other, the resolution is still under our consideration.

The progress of the change from Voluntary Contributions to Assessment, during the twenty years that have elapsed since this Board was formed, has been as follows:— Assessments.

In 578 of the assessed Parishes, the Funds for the Relief of the Poor are raised by an equal rate upon owners and occupants respectively, and in 175 there is a classification of occupants in terms of the 36th section of the Act 8 and 9 Vict. c. 83. In 24 Parishes the Assessment is levied according to Established Usage.

We have increased the number of Members to be elected to the Parochial Boards of the following Parishes, namely:—In Inch from 2 to 3; Row, 5 to 7; Auchterderran, 3 to 4; and have reduced the number of Members to be elected in the parish of Morven from 6 to 2. Elected Members.

The number of Parishes that have Poorhouses, either singly or in combination, is 300, having an aggregate population of 1,773,870. In the 56 Poorhouses at present in operation, the accommodation is sufficient for 13,398 inmates. When the Poorhouses which are in progress, or the erection of which has been resolved on, are completed, the number of Parishes having Poorhouses, singly or in combination, will be 365, with an aggregate population of 2,036,737. We have, during the past year, approved of the rates for boarding Paupers belonging to 100 Parishes, in those Poorhouses of other Parishes or Combinations to which it appeared to us that they might most advantageously be sent. We continue the practice, however, of limiting our approval in all such cases to a period of 12 months, as we deem it desirable that Poorhouses.

Poor-houses.

we should have a periodical opportunity of considering whether any change of circumstances has arisen to render a further continuance of our approval inexpedient. The number of Parishes that possess a right, in terms of the 65th section of the Statute, to send Paupers to the Poorhouses belonging to other Parishes, is 193, with an aggregate population of 590,773; but some of these Parishes are embraced in Combinations for proposed Poorhouses, or propose to have Poorhouses of their own. The population of the Parishes to which Poorhouse accommodation is available, amounts to 2,364,643. The Tables showing the number of Poorhouses in operation and in progress, and the Parishes forming the various Poorhouse Combinations in Scotland, are printed in the Appendix. These Tables indicate the number of Inmates of Poorhouses as at 1st January and 1st July, the number who were receiving in-door relief during the half-years ended 31st December 1864, and 30th June 1865; the number of those on the Sick List, as well as those who were Lunatic, and the number of Children who were at school. These Tables also exhibit the average Weekly Cost per head of Inmates during the half-years ended 31st December 1864, and 30th June 1865, for Maintenance, including food, fuel, clothing, light, and all other necessaries; and the average weekly expenditure per head of Inmates for whom there is accommodation in the Poorhouse for the same periods under the following heads, viz.:—1st, Establishment Charges, including salaries of officials, feu-duties, insurance, repairs, etc. 2nd, Estimated Rent of Poorhouse and Land, being so much per cent. on the amount expended. 3rd, Medical Relief, including medicine, medical and surgical appliances, and medical attendance.

App. (B.) No. 12.

We have sanctioned the occupation of the Poorhouses of East Lothian Combination, Elgin Combination, and Islay Combination, and of the permanent Poorhouse of Lorn Combination. We have also sanctioned the reception of an increased number of inmates into the Combination Poorhouses of Liff and Benvie and Thurso.

We approved a resolution of the Parish of Hamilton to erect a Poorhouse, and subsequently gave our concurrence to the Combination of that Parish, with seven contiguous Parishes in the county of Lanark, for the erection of a common Poorhouse for the Middle Ward of that county. We also concurred in the Combination of the Parish of Lanark, with ten contiguous Parishes, for the erection of a common Poorhouse for the Upper Ward of Lanarkshire. We further concurred in the Combinations of Arbroath with St Vigeans, and of Stirling with St Ninians, for similar purposes. Moveover, we sanctioned the enlargement of the following Poorhouse Combinations by the addition of the undermentioned Parishes:—To the Rhins of Galloway Combination, the Parishes of Colmonell, Glasserton, Kirkcowan, Kirkinner, Mochrum, Penninghame, Sorbie, Whithorn, and Wigton; to Kincardineshire Combination, the Parishes of Durris and Glenbervie; and to the Peebles Combination the Parish of Biggar. The aggregate population of the 37 Parishes above referred to is 166,207. Poorhouses.

We have approved of sites for the Poorhouses in the Combinations of Kincardineshire, Arbroath, Cambusnethan, and Hamilton; of the site at Craiglockhart for a proposed new Poorhouse for the Parish of Edinburgh; and of the site for an extension of the Poorhouse of the City Parish of Glasgow.

We have approved of plans for the Combination Poorhouses of Kincardineshire, Arbroath, Cambusnethan, and Hamilton, and of plans for a Poorhouse at Wick. We have also approved of additions to, or alterations of, the Poorhouses of Barony, Govan, St Cuthberts, and Islay Combination.

We again print in the Appendix a tabular statement of the present Poorhouse Buildings Debt, as returned to us by the Parochial authorities, showing the sums borrowed for the erection or enlargement of Poorhouse buildings under the 62nd section of the 8 and 9 Vict. cap. 83, or the 19 and 20 Vict. cap. 117, sec. 3, the liquidation of the debt during the past year, and the amount of the debt as at May 1865. App. (B.) No. 13.

We have completed the arrangements for the distribution of the 17th Parliamentary Grant of L.10,000 in aid of Medical Relief to the Poor in Scotland. The number of Parishes which have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 707. Of these only 13 have failed to establish their claims by producing vouchers for the required amount of expenditure from their own funds, and otherwise satisfying us that the conditions of the Grant had been fulfilled. Last year 684 Parishes established their claims: this year 694. The increase in the number actually participating this year is therefore 10. The detailed account of the distribution, showing the amount expended on Medical Relief afforded to the Poor in each Parish, for which vouchers have been produced; the sum apportioned to it from the Grant; and the additional sum, proportionate to the excess of its vouched expenditure, beyond the minimum, assigned out of the unappropriated shares to each participating Parish, will be found in the Appendix. Medical Relief. App. (B.) No. 8.

The whole sum expended on Medical Relief to the Poor during the year ended 14th May 1865, according to the Annual Returns of the Inspectors, was L.31,399, 11s. 9d., which is equal to 2·46 pence per head of the population of Scotland in 1861. The population of the 707 Parishes and Combinations that have resolved to comply with the conditions annexed to participation in the Grant is 2,844,043, and of the 177 Parishes that have not so resolved, 218,251. The sum expended by the former, according to the Returns, was L.30,306, 19s. 10½d., equal to about 2·55 pence per head of the population; and that by the latter was L.1092, 11s. 10½d., equal to about 1·20 pence per head of the population of these Parishes.

Complaints of Inadequate Relief. App. (B.) Nos. 2 & 3.

The number of applications complaining of Inadequate Relief that have been before us during the year ended 30th June 1865, has been 489. In the immediately preceding year the number was 521.

The subjoined Table exhibits the number of such applications in each year since this Board was formed, and the manner in which they have been disposed of:—

Cost of Relief and Management. App. (B.) Nos. 4 & 5.

The sum expended during the year ended 14th May 1865, for the Relief and Management of the Poor (including L.7,069, 17s. 5¼d. expended on buildings not being authorized Poor-houses, and L.39,349, 18s. 8d. expended on authorized Poor-house Buildings), has been L.778,274, 1s. 3¾d. In the preceding year, the expenditure for the same purposes was L.770,029, 14s. 9½d. There has therefore been an increase in the expenditure of L.8,244, 6s. 6¼d.

Cost of Relief and Management.

Cost of Relief and Management.

The preceding Table presents a comparative statement of the sums expended for the Relief and Management of the Poor for the last ten years, arranged under the different heads of expenditure, together with the rate per head of the population, calculated for six years on the census of 1851, and for the last four years on the census of 1861. The rate per cent. on the annual value of real property, as returned in 1843, is also stated.

Although it has been thought desirable, for the purpose of comparison with former years, to show in the preceding Table the rate per cent. on the annual value of real property as returned in 1843, it is right to state, that, according to the annual value returned in 1856, the rate per cent. for the last ten years would be as follows:—

The rate per cent. for 1865 on the annual value of real property, as estimated for 1859, would be L.6, 0s. $9\frac{1}{4}$d., or 13s. $2\frac{1}{2}$d. per cent. greater than in 1856, when similar returns were available.

The total sum expended under the heads of Relief to the Poor on the Roll, or Registered, and to the Casual Poor, for the last ten years, was—

Number of Poor.

The number of Lunatic Poor relieved in the course of the year was, as stated above, 6345. Of these, 987 died, or were cured, or ceased to receive relief; thus the number at the 14th May was 5358, being an increase as compared with the number at the same date last year (5220) of 138. Of these, 3805 were in Asylums and Poorhouses, and 1553 were residing with relatives or other parties in private dwellings.

The subjoined Table shows the number of Dependants of the Poor as returned to us for the past ten years :—

Of the Casual Poor and Dependants for 1865, as stated above, 12,243, with 11,140 Dependants, are returned as being also enumerated as Registered Poor. The whole number of Unregistered or Casual Poor at the 14th May 1865, was 3534, with 3415 Dependants. The number of Adult Casual Poor relieved on the 1st January 1865, was 2910, and their children, together with orphans or deserted children, 2802. The number of the former relieved on 1st July 1865 was 2690, and of their children and orphans or deserted children, 2763, or stated thus: Number of Poor.

The total number of Persons of all classes and ages receiving relief as Casual Poor on 1st January 1865, was 5712; on 14th May 1865, 6949; and on 1st July 1865, 5453; the average of the three periods being 6038.

The following Table presents an abstract of the total existing Poorhouse accommodation, and of the number of Poor (exclusive of Lunatics) receiving in-door relief at the dates specified respectively for the past two years:—

Years.	Poorhouse Accommodation at 1st July.	No of Poor receiving In-door Relief, at
		1st January.	14th May.	1st July
1864	12,770	8,073	7,257	7,165
1865	13,398	8,270	7,348	7,344

The whole sum derived from Church Collections in Assessed Parishes during the year ending May 1865, was L.20,054, 1s. 11d., of which L.9,789, 0s. 10d. is stated to have been expended on Relief of the Poor. From this sum, however, must be deducted L.270, 14s. 7d., handed over to the Parochial Boards. It would appear, therefore, that the sum of L.9,518, 6s. 3d., derived from Church Collections, was actually applied by the Kirk Sessions to the relief of persons in their respective Parishes who required assistance. But these funds are generally employed to afford aid to persons who have fallen into temporary difficulties, with a view to prevent them from becoming chargeable to the Parish as Paupers; and it is probable that few of the persons so assisted have also been chargeable to the funds raised by assessment. Church Collections. App. (B.) No. 7.

Returns of legal proceedings under the Statute, in the Sheriff Courts, have again been furnished to us by the courtesy Applications to Sheriffs. App. (B.) No. 1.

Applications to Sheriffs.

of the Sheriffs-Substitute, and an abstract of them is inserted in the Appendix.

The total number of applications to Sheriffs, on the ground that relief had been improperly refused, as returned by the Sheriffs-Substitute, was, during the past year, 533; while, in the returns for the preceding year, the number of such applications was 639. These numbers, however, fall short of the actual number of applications, as in several Sheriff Courts no complete record is kept of them. The number of such applications in which Sheriffs felt called upon to grant interim orders of relief during the past year was 308; in the preceding year it was 372. The number of applicants admitted to the Roll of Paupers by final order of the Sheriffs during the past year was 107; in the preceding year it was 129. The average annual number of such interim orders during the ten preceding years was 350; and of such final orders, 78.

The number of prosecutions under the 79th and 80th sections of the Statute during the past year has been 110, and of convictions 64. In the previous year the number of such prosecutions was 109, and of convictions 63. The average annual number of such prosecutions during the ten preceding years was 106, and of convictions 68.

Removal of Nuisances Act.

During the past year we have not been called on to exercise the statutory powers conferred upon us by the Nuisances Removal (Scotland) Act, 1856; but we have afforded, from time to time, such assistance as it was in our power to give to those Local Authorities who applied to us for advice or information regarding the execution of the Act.

Vaccination Act.

We have continued to discharge the functions devolved upon us in relation to the duties of Parochial Boards and Vaccinators, under the Statute 26 and 27 Vict. c. 108, "to extend and make compulsory the Practice of Vaccination in Scotland."

App. (A.) Nos. 4 & 5.

By virtue of the powers conferred on us in the 5th section of the Act, we framed Regulations respecting the proceedings to be taken under the 18th section, and subsequently a Supplemental Regulation on the same subject. These Regulations will be found in the Appendix.

At our instance a Parochial Board dismissed their Vaccinator from his office for refusing to make Returns as he was required to do by our Regulations of the 20th August 1863.

In pursuance of the powers conferred upon us by the 12th section of the Act, and on application by the several Parochial Boards respectively, we have framed modifications of the 8th and 9th sections of the Act for 16 Parishes in Scotland, and have obtained the approval of the Lord Advocate thereto. In the case of every such application, we called upon the Parochial Board to state the precise nature of the modifications which they considered necessary or expedient, and their reasons for so considering them; and after receiving the information so called for, we framed such modifications as appeared to us to be suitable to the circumstances of the Parish. The following are the Parishes for which modifications have accordingly been framed and approved, in terms of the Statute:—the Parishes of Ardnamurchan, Colonsay and Oronsay, and Gigha, in Argyleshire; South Uist, in Inverness-shire; Cross and Burness, Eday, Hoy and Græmsay, Orphir, South Ronaldshay, Rousay and Egilshay, and Shapinshay, in Orkney; Bressay, Burra and Quarff, and Mid and South Yell, in Shetland; and Barvas, Lochs, and Uig, in Ross-shire. Vaccination Act.

In order to ensure due publication of the nature of these modifications, as in the previous year, we directed each to be inserted once in the Edinburgh Gazette, and once in each of three successive weeks in the local newspaper or newspapers circulating in the Parish, to be posted on the doors of the Parish Church, and other places of public worship in the Parish, and to be further circulated in such manner as the Parochial Board shall consider most effectual for the information of the Population.

An Abstract of the Modifications, so framed and published during the past year, is printed in the Appendix. App. (B.) No. 11.

We print in the Appendix Abstracts of Returns from all Parishes in Scotland, which have been made in compliance with our Regulations, by the Vaccinators appointed under the Vaccination Act for the half years ended 31st December 1864, and 30th June 1865. These Returns show the number of persons vaccinated successfully and unsuccessfully during the half year; the number of cases in which Certificates of Insusceptibility have been granted; and the number of persons vaccinated who were not in receipt of Parochial Relief. They relate exclusively to Vaccinations performed by the Vaccinators in their official capacity, i.e., cases of paupers and the children of paupers, and of those persons not paupers whom the Parochial Board authorize the Vaccinator to vaccinate; and they do not include Vaccinations performed by the Vaccinators, or other Medical Practitioners, in the course of their private practice. App. (B.) No. 9.

We also print in the Appendix an Abstract of Returns made by the Inspectors of the Poor from every parish in Scotland, of defaulters under the 18th section of the Vaccination Act, as required by our Regulations, for the year ended 30th June 1865. That Abstract also shows the number of persons Vaccinated in terms of the section referred to, the number of pro- App. (B.) No. 10.

DOCUMENTS ISSUED AND RECEIVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISION.

No. 1.—Instructions to Mr Peterkin, General Superintendent of the Poor.

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 11th March 1865.

Sir,—Having now completed the tour which the Board considered it necessary that you should make in company with Mr Campbell, with a view to his instruction in the duties of Visiting Officer, the time has arrived when it is desirable that you should proceed to the Northern District, of which you have been appointed Superintendent in succession to Mr Briscoe, and there enter upon the performance of the proper duties of that office. For instructions as to these, I have to refer you to the communication which, with the approval of the Secretary of State, was made to your predecessor on the 25th May 1857, and which was printed in the Board's Twelfth Annual Report.

The Board are of opinion that it would be expedient that you should at once proceed to make a complete survey of the whole of your district, including the islands comprehended in it, which now embrace not only the Western Islands of the Counties of Inverness and Ross, but the Orkney and Shetland groups, and make yourself acquainted with the administration of the Poor Laws as at present conducted in the different Parishes; and you are hereby instructed to pursue that course, making such arrangements as to the order in which you are to visit the different parts of your district as may best enable you to complete your survey of the more inaccessible parts while the season is suitable for that purpose.

You will report, from time to time, anything connected with the administration and operation of the Poor Laws that you may consider it necessary or desirable to bring to the notice of the Board; and in your Half-yearly Report of November, you will give the Board an account of the condition of your district, and of the changes you may have occasion to note since your former visits.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

W. S. Walker, Secretary.

W. A. Peterkin, Esq., General Superintendent of the Poor, Scotland.

Approved by the Right Hon. Sir George Grey, Bart., one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, 9th March 1865.

No. 2.—Circular Letter as to Rules relating to "the General Register of Poor," and "The Children's Separate Register."

Board of Supervision, Edinburgh, 3d November 1864.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to transmit, for the information and guidance of the Parochial Board and yourself as Inspector of Poor, the accompanying Rules and relative Forms for a new General Register of Poor, and for a Children's Separate Register, which have been framed by this Board and approved by the Secretary of State for the Home Department.

The cases of all persons admitted to the Roll by the Parochial Board or its Committee, after the 31st of December next, must be entered in the new General Register, and all new applications by persons previously on the Roll, are to be held as new cases, and in like manner entered in the new General Register.

Although the Board have not required that the cases on the Roll at the 31st December next, shall be transferred to the new General Register, it is nevertheless desirable that, wherever it is practicable, this should be done within a few days after the 1st of January 1865, in order that the new General Register may contain the whole of the Registered Poor of the Parish. Where such transfer is found impracticable, as may possibly be the case in a few of the largest Parishes, it will be understood that the Register prescribed in March 1855 is to be carefully attended to in respect of all cases already entered therein, and not transferred to the new General Register.

But the cases of all children as described in Rule V.—those who are in receipt of relief on 31st December next, as well as those who may thereafter be in receipt of relief—are to be entered in the Children's Separate Register; and you should, without delay, commence the transfer of such children as are at present on the Roll from the present Register to the Children's Separate Register.

I enclose specimen sheets of the Books which Messrs Blackwood and Sons are prepared to supply, from which you will perceive that the principle of the new Books is that the whole history of each case shall, so far as possible, be recorded on one folio of the Registers, and that no more than one case shall be entered in the same folio. But if, in any case, the space in a folio should be found insufficient for all the entries relating to it, then the course pointed out in Rule VI. should be followed in the General Register as well as in the Children's Separate Register.

You will submit this communication to the first meeting of your Parochial Board or its General Committee; but if no such meeting is to be held before the 15th of December next, you will submit it to a special meeting summoned for the purpose.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

W. S. WALKER, Secretary.

To the Inspector of Poor, ———

RULES relating to a New Register of Poor to be called "The General Register of Poor," and to an Additional Register to be called "The Children's Separate Register."

Rule I.—From and after the 1st day of January 1865, the Inspector of Poor in every parish and combination shall keep the Register of Poor, to be called "The General Register of Poor," in accordance with the annexed Form A, which the Inspector is required in every case to fill up, in every particular, as far as may be practicable.

Rule II.—Every Inspector of Poor shall provide himself, at the cost of the parish, with books for the Registers of Poor required by these Rules to be kept.

Rule III.—No new cases shall be entered in the present Register after 31st December 1864.

Rule IV.—The Parochial Board of each parish or combination shall, before the 1st of January 1865, name and publicly announce two lawful days in the week, on each of which, during one hour to be fixed and announced in like manner by that Board, but not earlier than 9 a.m., nor later than 3 p.m., both the General Register and the Children's Separate Register, directed by Rule V. to be kept, shall be open to inspection at the office of the Inspector of Poor, free of charge, by any known minister of any religious denomination officiating in the parish or combination, and on payment of one shilling, on each occasion that he inspects it, by any ratepayer of the parish or combination, giving his name and address in writing.

Rule V.—From and after the 1st day of January 1865, the Inspector of the Poor in every parish and combination shall also keep in a separate book a Register, to be called "The Children's Separate Register," in accordance with the annexed form B, in which shall be entered the particulars, to be specified in Rule VII., regarding each poor child, who, at the date above mentioned, or thereafter, may be receiving relief from the parish or combination, and who may be an orphan or deserted (either by both parents, or by an only surviving parent), or who may, by order of the Parochial Board or a Committee thereof, be separated from or placed elsewhere than with the child's parents, or one of them.

Rule VI.—The Children's Separate Register shall be so kept, that all the particulars required to be entered therein, which relate to each child, shall be contained in one page of that Register, or if it should (in any case) be necessary to continue the entries relative to the same child, in a second page of the same or another volume, then the original and the second page shall respectively contain distinct references to the volume, and the page of that volume in which the other entries can be found.

Rule VII.—The particulars relating to each child required to be entered in the Children's Separate Register are :—

First.—The name and the age ascertained or presumed. The date at which he or she became chargeable, and whether as an orphan, or as a deserted child, or as a child separated from a parent or parents, and if so separated, then the reason for such separation.

Second.—The religious denomination :—whether Protestant or Roman Catholic,—with the grounds for holding the child to be of the denomination entered in the Register.

Third.—The name, religious denomination, and place of residence of the parents, or of the last surviving parent of the child, so far as these are known or can be ascertained.

Fourth.—The date of any minute of the Parochial Board or Committee thereof, directing that the child be sent to the Poorhouse, or be boarded out, and when directed to be boarded out, the name, religious denomination, and place of residence of the person with whom boarded, and the date of removal thereto; and if the child be registered as a Roman Catholic, then the date of intimation sent, in terms of the Board of Supervision's Minute of the 13th February 1862, to the priest of that faith residing nearest to the place where the child is to be boarded. Also, in like manner, similar entries with reference to every subsequent order for removal and actual removal of the same child boarded out, from one place or house to another, or from the care of one person to another, from time to time, so long as the child is receiving relief.

Fifth.—The date and the age at which, and the circumstances in consequence of which the child may have ceased to be chargeable to the parish or combination, and the name, residence, and occupation or trade of the person with whom the child may have been apprenticed or may have engaged as a servant while receiving parochial relief.

Rule VIII.—In every case in which an orphan or deserted child, or a child separated from its parents, is ordered to be sent to the Poorhouse, the Inspector shall state, in the ticket for his or her admission, the religious denomination of the child as entered in the Children's Separate Register, and the House Governor of the Poorhouse shall enter the child in the Poorhouse Register as of that denomination; and he shall cause to be delivered on Monday of each week to any known minister of the religious denomination of any inmate, and who regularly visits, or has been nominated to visit, the Poorhouse, for the purpose of instructing the children of his own denomination, a list of all such children then inmates of the Poorhouse, if he applies for it.

W. S. WALKER, Secretary.

No. 3.—Extract Minutes of the Board of Supervision respecting Paupers in the Highlands and Islands offered In-door Relief.

Extract Minute, dated 17th November 1864.

The documents respecting paupers offered in-door relief which were before the Board at last meeting were again submitted. The Board are of opinion that where the distances and difficulties of transport are such as they are in the Mull Poorhouse Combination, it would neither be expedient nor proper to refuse out-door relief, and to offer relief only in the Poorhouse to any pauper on the roll, or any applicant for Parochial relief, without the authority of a minute to that effect, recorded in the Minute Book, by the Parochial Board, or its Committee duly nominated.

The removal of paupers from the Parishes of the Mull Combination to the Poorhouse is too serious a matter to be left to the discretion and responsibility of the Inspector, and ought never to be resorted to until each case has been considered by the Parochial Board, and their decision upon it duly recorded.

When the Inspector intimates to any pauper, or any applicant for Parochial relief, that the Parochial Board has refused to continue or to give out-door relief, and has resolved to give him or her relief in the Poorhouse, he ought, when offering in-door relief and removal to the Poorhouse at the cost of the Parish, to explain the consequences of declining that offer, and at the same time to tender a form of complaint to the Board of Supervision, to be filled up and dealt with in terms of the rules relating to inadequate relief; and should the person decline to accept the relief offered, and also decline to make a complaint in the prescribed form, it would then be competent to the Parochial Board, or its Committee duly authorized, to strike the name of that person off the roll, on the ground that he or she had been offered, and had refused, relief in the Poorhouse.

But if, on the other hand, the poor person should desire to complain to the Board of Supervision, that the relief offered is inadequate in the circumstances of his or her case, then it will be the duty of the Inspector to proceed as in any other case of complaint of inadequate relief, and to take care that the complainant does not suffer for want of needful sustentation pending the decision of the Board of Supervision.

Should the Board dismiss the complaint, in respect of the offer of relief in the Poorhouse, and should the person still persist in refusing that offer, it would be competent to the Parochial Board to strike his or her name off the roll on the ground of such refusal. But no person can, in any case or circumstances, be held to have been struck off the roll unless a minute to that effect has been duly recorded.

Every such minute will determine the date at which the person to whom it relates ceased to be in receipt of Parochial relief.

Extract Minute, dated 2d March 1865.

The letter of the Inspector, dated 14th February, as to period at which a pauper refusing in-door relief may be struck off the roll, which was before the Board at last meeting, was again submitted. The Board are of opinion that if, at the end of a month after a pauper has been furnished with a form of complaint on the ground of inadequate relief, the Inspector has reason to believe that the complaint has not been transmitted to the Board of Supervision, and if he has not himself received any communication from the Board of Supervision on the subject, he may then submit the case to the meeting of the Parochial Board held next after the period of a month has expired as above stated, with a view, if that Board should see fit, to the name of the pauper being struck off the roll by a minute of the Parochial Board to that effect.

In any such case in which a pauper ceased to receive relief in consequence of having refused to receive it in the Poorhouse, it would be competent to the Parochial Board to direct the Inspector, in the event of a renewed application by the same person, to renew the offer of relief in the Poorhouse, without bringing the case again before the Parochial Board, provided there were no such change of circumstance as might be calculated to change the views of the Parochial Board with regard to the propriety of giving relief only in the Poorhouse.

Extract Minute, dated 2d March 1865.

The Board took into consideration the documents which were before the Board at last meeting relating to the case of Ann M'Donald, a deaf-mute, who was admittedly otherwise ablebodied, and who had maintained herself as a hired servant, but who had applied for Parochial relief, and having been refused by the Inspector on the grounds above stated, made application to the Sheriff-Substitute, who ordered interim relief.

The Board are of opinion that the authority of the Sheriff or his Substitute to order relief to any person making application to him, who has applied to the Inspector and has been refused relief, is clear and unquestionable; and that it is the duty of the Inspector at once to "obtemper" the order, even if an appeal to the Sheriff from the decision of his Substitute should be considered advisable. But the Board consider it equally clear that, in any question relating to the adequacy of the relief afforded or offered, whether as interim or permanent relief, the jurisdiction of the Sheriff is expressly excluded by the Statute; and if any Sheriff-Substitute should usurp such jurisdiction, the proper course would be to appeal to the Sheriff.

The Statute, while it excludes the jurisdiction of the Sheriff, has provided other means of obtaining redress, if the relief afforded, whether permanent or ad interim, is by the pauper considered inadequate.

At the same time, the Board are of opinion that where removal to the Poorhouse implies removal to such a distance as from Kilmallie to Oban, no pauper ought to be called upon to accept interim relief in the Poorhouse; and that no pauper ought, in any case, to be removed to the Poorhouse, unless by an order of the Parochial Board, duly entered in the minutes.

The Board desire also to point out that an order of the Sheriff to give relief would not be adequately obtempered by making an offer to remove the pauper to the Poorhouse on a future day. Not only must relief be given immediately in such cases, but it must be continued until removal to the Poorhouse has actually been effected by order of the Parochial Board, or until the applicant, by refusing relief in the Poorhouse without sufficient reason, has ceased to be a proper object of Parochial relief. Of the sufficiency of any reasons that may be assigned for refusing to accept relief in the Poorhouse while out-door relief is demanded, the Board of Supervision are the proper judges; and in such cases the pauper ought to be provided with a schedule complaining of inadequate relief, to be filled up and transmitted to that Board in the manner prescribed by the rules.

Copies of the Board's minutes of 17th November 1864 and 2d March 1865 in the case of Morven (see preceding Extract Minutes) to be sent along with this minute for the information of the Parochial Board of Kilmallie.

No. 4.—Circular Letter as to Vaccination Act.

Board of Supervision, 15th December 1864.

Sir,—I am directed by the Board of Supervision to inform you, that the accompanying Regulations have been made and issued by them, in terms of the 5th section of the Vaccination (Scotland) Act, with reference to proceedings under the 18th section of that Act.

I enclose four copies of these Regulations for the use of the Parochial Board, the Vaccinators, and yourself, as Inspector of Poor. If additional copies are required, they will be furnished on application.—I am, sir, your obedient servant,

W. S. WALKER,
Secretary.

To the Inspector of Poor, ———

REGULATIONS made and issued by the Board of Supervision for the Relief of the Poor in Scotland, in terms of the 5th Section of the Vaccination (Scotland) Act, 26 and 27 Vict., c. 108.

1. When the Inspector of the Poor has received from the Registrar, in terms of the 18th section of the Act, a list of the names and addresses of persons who have failed to transmit or lodge a certificate of vaccination, in terms of the Act, he shall lay the same before the Parochial Board at their first meeting held hereafter, or (failing any such meeting at an earlier date), at a meeting not later than three months from the date on which the said list was received, which meeting the Inspector is hereby required to call, for the purpose of receiving the said list and giving Orders thereon, in compliance with the 18th section of the Act.

2. All Orders issued to the Vaccinator, in compliance with the 18th section of the Act, shall be in the Form C annexed hereto, and Inspectors of the Poor are required to adhere strictly to the terms of that form of Order. The body of the Order may be printed, and the names and dates filled up in writing. Every such Order shall be delivered by being put into the Post Office, addressed to the Vaccinator, upon the same day on which the Order is issued.

3. All Notices of Orders so issued shall be in the Form D annexed hereto, and Inspectors of the Poor are required to adhere strictly to the terms of that Form of Notice. The Notice must be entirely in writing, and it must be delivered to the person to whom it is addressed on the day on which it is issued, or as soon thereafter as may be, either by being served upon him or her personally, or by being left at his or her place of residence. The Inspector will be held responsible for the due delivery of every such Notice, and for being able to prove that such delivery was made.

4. If, after the expiry of 20 days from the date of such Notice, the Vaccinator shall certify that he has been unable to perform the operation of vaccination upon any child specified in the list annexed to the Order, owing to the parent or guardian having refused to allow, or taken means to prevent, such operation to be performed, the Inspector shall, within seven days after the receipt of such certificate, proceed against the offending person, in terms of the 25th section of the Act, for recovery of the penalty attached to the offence by the provisions of the 18th section.

5. The Inspector shall report to his Parochial Board at the meeting thereof next ensuing, as to whether any Orders issued by them have been effectual; and if any such Orders have not been effectual, he shall specify in his said Report the cause of failure, and the result of all proceedings taken by him for the punishment of offenders.

6. The Vaccinator shall be entitled to remuneration from the Parochial Board for every person he may have visited for the purpose of vaccination, in pursuance of an Order under the 18th section of the Act (whether he has performed vaccination or not), the said remuneration to be according to the scale of allowance fixed by the Parochial Board for successful vaccination.

7. If any child named in the Registrar's List shall have left the parish for another known place of residence in Scotland before an Order to vaccinate such child has been issued and executed, the Inspector of the Poor shall give immediate notice of the fact, and of the circumstances connected therewith, to the Inspector of the parish to which such child shall have gone, whose duty it shall be to use all lawful endeavours to have the said child vaccinated, and a certificate of such child's vaccination transmitted to the Registrar of the district within which the said child was born.

8. If the present place of residence of any child named in the Registrar's List shall be unknown, it shall be the duty of the Inspector of the Poor to take all reasonable means to discover such place of residence, and as soon as such place of residence becomes known to him, to proceed in terms of the preceding regulations.

Secretary.

FORM C.

VACCINATION ACT.

ORDER to VACCINATOR by virtue of the Act 26 and 27 Vict., c. 108, sec. 18.
To ———, Vaccinator for the Parish of ———, residing at ———

The Parochial Board of ————, having received from the Registrar a list dated ———— of the names and addresses of persons who have failed to transmit to or lodge with the Registrar a certificate of vaccination, in terms of the Vaccination (Scotland) Act, 26 and 27 Vict., c. 108, a copy of which list is annexed hereto, do hereby Order you, in terms of the 18th section of the Act aforesaid, to vaccinate the children specified in the said list, at some time not less than ten nor more than twenty days after this date, unless they shall previously have been vaccinated, and a certificate of their vaccination or insusceptibility shall have been transmitted to the Registrar.

Notice in writing of this Order has been this day given, in terms of the Act aforesaid, to the persons having care of the said children.

If any of the persons named in the said list having care of the children specified therein shall refuse to allow, or take means to prevent, the operation of vaccination to be performed in terms of this Order, you are hereby required to certify the same in writing under your hand to the Inspector of the Poor, on the twenty-first day after the date of this Order.

If, on examination of any of the children specified in the said list, you shall be satisfied that such child has been already successfully vaccinated, you are hereby required, on or before the twenty-first day after the date of this Order, to furnish the Inspector of the Poor and the Registrar, in respect of each such child, with a certificate of insusceptibility, on the ground of previous successful vaccination, in the form, or as nearly as may be, of Schedule C, annexed to the Vaccination Act.

If, on examination of any of the children specified in the said list, you shall be satisfied that such child is not in a fit and proper state to be successfully vaccinated, you are hereby required, on or before the twenty-first day after the date of this Order, to furnish the Inspector of the Poor and the Registrar with a certificate in respect of each such child, in the form, or as nearly as may be, of Schedule B, annexed to the Vaccination Act.

If, in pursuance of this Order, you shall successfully vaccinate any of the children specified in the said list, you are hereby required, on or before the twenty-first day after the date of this Order, to furnish the Inspector of the Poor and the Registrar with a certificate in respect of each such child, in the form, or as nearly as may be, of Schedule A, annexed to the Vaccination Act.

A. Aberdeen (Aberdeen Dist.)

Col. I. The greater number of these were disposed of on hearing applicants verbally.
Col. V. In most of these cases a report was made to the Sheriff-Clerk, that upon the order being received, relief had been granted.
Cols. XI. and XII. No record kept of these proceedings.

B. Aberdeen (Peterhead Dist.)

Col. XIII. Small debt actions—1st, partial decree; 2d, a decree; 3d, a decree; 4th assoilzied.

C. Berwick.

Col. I. In one of these cases relief was given by the Inspector after the application had been made.

D. Bute.

Col. I. Several other applications were made, which, by a conference with the parties, were adjusted, and of which no record is kept.

E. Dumfries.

Col. XIII. Still in dependence.

F. Edinburgh.

Cols. I. and II. In addition to these, there are numerous applications to the Sheriff, so clearly incompetent under the Statute, that they are at once refused.
Col. II. Contains the number of applications in which orders upon Inspectors to afford interim relief, and to lodge statements, have been pronounced.

G. Elgin or Moray.

Col. I. No record is kept of applications refused, unless an interlocutor refusing relief be asked for. The number refused may be about 20, and are included in the 34.

H. Fife (Dunfermline Dist.)

Cols. I., II., III., and VI. The case referred to in the above return has been disposed of by the Sheriff refusing the application; but the interlocutor being dated after 30th June, is not included in the return.

I. Forfar (Forfar Dist.)

Col. XIII. Defender assoilzied.

K. Inverness (Uist Dist.)

Col. I. There are every year many verbal applications for relief, which are refused when made, and the applicants seem satisfied with the grounds stated to them by the Sheriff-Substitute. Of these no note is kept. In regard to the cases under Col. V., it is believed that the Inspectors, after lodging answers, often put the applicants on the roll of paupers, and thus further proceedings are rendered unnecessary.

L. Lanark (Glasgow Dist.)

Col. I. There are also numerous applications in which the Inspectors act upon the recommendation of the Sheriff, and of which no note is kept.

M. Lanark (Hamilton Dist.)

Col. I. Only such applications are here enumerated as were followed by an order.
Col. IV. In other two cases applicants were found entitled to expenses, having, in the course of the litigation, been admitted to the roll without an order of Court.
Col. V. All these were cases in which the applicants declined or neglected to proceed further. In other five cases, the applicants were admittedly placed on the permanent roll during the subsistence of the order for merely interim relief, and no judgment on the merits followed.
Cols. VII. and VIII. One of these appeals was in regard to expenses only.
Col. XIII. Decree passed.

VI. Number of Cases under consideration of the Sheriff, and not yet disposed of.	VII. Number of Cases in which Appeals against Interlocutor of Sheriff-Substitute have been made to Sheriff-Depute.	VIII. Number of such Cases affirmed by Sheriff-Depute.	IX. Number of Cases altered or reversed by Sheriff-Depute.	X. Number of Cases undisposed of by Sheriff-Depute.	XI. N. Lanark (Airdrie Dist.)

Col. I. No record kept; but applications almost daily.

O. Orkney and Shetland (Kirkwall Dist.)

Col. VI. Two applications under consideration of the Sheriff on 30th June 1864 were refused in July 1865.
Col. XIII. Still pending.

P. Perth (Perth Dist.)

Col. I. As usual, applications in Perth and most parishes are disposed of verbally, and such will, on an average, run fifty in the year.

Q. Perth (Dunblane Dist.)

Col. V. Two refused on applicants' own statement.

R. Renfrew (Greenock Dist.)

Col. I. In both cases here mentioned, relief was voluntarily given by Inspectors after answers were lodged. The applications ended in this way.

The number of verbal applications made to the Sheriff-Substitute by persons alleging that they have been refused relief are very numerous, but upon being sent to the Inspector for a written note of why they have been refused relief, they return with an order for admission to the Poorhouse. These have not been noted, as apparently not falling within the meaning of the Return.

S. Renfrew (Paisley Dist.)

Col. I. No record kept.
Cols. XIII. and XIV. These actions are generally raised in the Small Debt Court, the Record Book of which does not contain any particulars regarding these queries.
